DECEMBER

By Blanche Jones
(In the Willamette Valley)
Rosetips red in each wayside thicket,
Mingle with snowberries softly white;
Blackberry vines with red leaves peeping
Out from young evergreens reaching for light.
Sword ferns waving like tall, green feathers,
Mosses that thrive 'neath a clouded sun;
Chinook winds and balmy weather,
Such is winter in Oregon.

Town and Gown Club Plans Activities

The Town and Gown Club, formerly known as the Lausanne Guild, held an unusually interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Plans were made at this time for a large tea which will be held on the last Tuesday of the month at Mrs. Bishop's home.

The avowed purpose of the Town and Gown club is to deepen the mutual feeling between Willamette University and the Salem townwomen. The organization whose membership comprises a group of the city's most prominent matrons is open to all those who are interested in the furthering of a deep interest between the community and the college. The meeting of the club on Tuesday was attended with particular enthusiasm, and the members are making generous plans for increasing the vital scope of their organization.

Christmas Ceremonial

The Christmas ceremonial of the White Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will be held at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, December 8, in the Masonic temple.

Ever Ready Birthday Club

Mrs. Hattie Kennon was hostess for the Ever Ready Birthday club Monday, November 30. The honoree guests were Mrs. Kennon and Mrs. Clara Lucas. Others present were Mesdames Mary Neyhart, Florence

Shipp, Clara Adams, Jennie Martin, Pauline Clark, Mollie Bennett, Mabel Loveland, Louisa Loveland, Hazel Barnholdt, and Little Miss Zelma Barnholdt. At 1 o'clock the regular covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all. The afternoon was spent in social chat and fancy work.

Special Meeting of Church Society

The West Side Ladies Aid society of the Jason Lee church will hold a special meeting Friday afternoon, December 11, to pack the regular Christmas boxes for the orphans' home at Corvallis. These articles and many more have been asked for: Bibles, good reading books and magazines, all kinds of games, good records for victrola, pictures for the walls, toys, paint hooks, crayon and water colors, pin cushions, sewing baskets, scissors and thimbles, wash cloths, tooth paste, brushes, canned fruits, vegetables and fish, dried fruits and apples, and crochet and embroidery threads.

Moroni-Olsen Players at Heilig

The return engagement of the Moroni-Olsen Players on Wednesday evening of this week is being anticipated with the greatest interest. St. John Ervine's "The Ship," promising to win for itself altogether as much favor as was won by "Pygmalion," when the entire house was sold out and numbers turned away. A committee of prominent Salem citizens, with Miss Carol S. Dibble as chairman, has organized as a unit for the sponsoring of better dramatic and platform activities in Salem. The personnel of the board includes Miss Dibble, Mrs. George H. Alden, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Paul Wallace, Albert Richard Wetton, Prof. Horace Williams, Prof. Morton E. Peck, Prof. E. T. Brown and Prof. Horace Rahskopf. The special devotees of the Moroni-Olsen company will be interested to know that Janet Young will play the part of Old Lady Thurlow in "The Ship," while Dorothy Adams will be Hester. Gordon Nelson, the new member of the Moroni-Olsen company who was seen to such good advantage as Colonel Pickering in "Pygmalion," comes from Vancouver, B. C., where for several years he has been a conspicuous figure in Little Theater circles. During the past summer he has been filling an engagement in light opera.

Mr. Nelson was born in Vancouver, spent some time in school in England, was overseas from 1916 to 1919, when he returned to complete his education at the University of British Columbia. Prominent in Vancouver sporting circles, being an ardent oarsman and rugby enthusiast. He has rowed in several international regattas.

Geon Greenwell, the bass-voiced bystander in the first act of "Pygmalion," was plucked from his college career to strengthen the casts of the Moroni-Olsen plays and while in college in Ogden, Utah, he was prominent in athletics, school paper work and dramatics, besides other minor activities.

His powerful shoulders are a great help to Joe Williams, the stage manager, in setting up and tearing down scenery.

W. F. M. S. on Wednesday

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer. Mrs. Charles J. Lisle will lead the devotional, while Mrs. M. R. Porcupine will have charge of the lesson, reviewing the second chapter in the study book on "Bible Teachings in Proverbs." The Christmas offering will be taken at this time. Mrs. Aldene Smith will please with special musical numbers.

Golden Wedding Celebrated

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hale was the scene of one of the most memorable family reunions of the season when five generations assembled to honor Mr. and Mrs. Hale on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary yesterday at 1960 South Commercial street. The honor guests were made the recipients of a number of attractive wedding presents including a set of gold band dishes from the children of the couple.
