

Make Yourself Glad By Giving Now To Christmas Cheer Fund

If You Have No Children, or Care to Make Those for Whom No Father or Mother Is Planning, Happy, Give

If Christmas were reduced to the mere interchanging of gifts—a more or less compulsory affair—what an annoying occasion it would become.

People to remember, presents to be purchased, with resultant bills cutting into January's income.

Christmas is not that. Christmas spirit is measured not by the number of packages sent, or by the number of people remembered, but by the love and affection poured into the kindly offerings of affectionate friends.

Keep your Christmas in tune with that larger spirit.

The Statesman-Associated Charities "Christmas Cheer Fund" represents a direct way of making little folks happy on Christmas.

You may not have children of your own. You may feel that you should like to make happy someone for whom no father or mother is planning.

This "Christmas Cheer Fund" is your direct method. All food and all money contributed to the fund will be turned over immediately to the Associated Charities, which will see that it is used wisely.
