Bits For Breakfast

If you know beans— Help the Slogan man, and do it today. This is important. We should grow more beans—millions of pounds more of dry beans and tens of millions of pounds more of string beans. This is a great bean country, for the right kind of beans.

The city council turns down the playground. What is to be done about it? Suggestions are in order. Is it to be dropped? What is to become of the apparatus? What have you to say?

The bee men of Marion county are to meet at the Salem Chamber of Commerce rooms on Saturday, December 19, at 2 o'clock, to organize. J. Pelmulder, Woodburn, and Kenneth Russell, Turner, are members of the organization committee outside of Salem, and they promise to be present, with other bee men from their sections.

Obituary

Baldwin In this city Dec. 7, Linus H. Baldwin, age 73 years. The husband of Mrs. Loringa Baldwin, father of Mrs. Grover C. Potter of Salem, Richard N. Baldwin of Myrtle Creek, Ben L. Baldwin of Roseburg and Ralph J. Baldwin of Portersville, Cal. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 2:30 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment will be in Lee Mission cemetery.

GRATITUDE It singeth low in every heart: We hear it each and all— A song of those who answer not, However we may call. But, oh, 'tis good to think of them, When we are troubled sore; Thanks be to God that such have been, Although they are no more! —John W. Chadwick.

W. T. Rigdon & Son

not go far without organization and regulation. But it can become a great industry here with these. Ours can be made the best bee country on all the green earth. It only requires plenty of late bee pasture and the keeping down of the bee diseases.

Among other things, the automobile numbers ought to be made at the penitentiary. This is done for the state of Washington at Walla Walla. It would help a lot towards making the Oregon prison self supporting.

STATE ELKS HEAD WILL TOUR SOUTH

E. M. Page, President of Association, to Make Inspection Trip

E. M. Page, president of the state Elks' association, will make an official tour of inspection of Elk lodges throughout southern Oregon. It was learned.

On his trip he will visit Eugene, Medford, Marshfield, Ashland and several others. It is reported that several of the lodges in this section of the country have built fine temples recently.

Salem is considered to have one of the finest temples in the northwest. It is the opinion of some architects that the interior of the local temple is unsurpassed in Oregon.
