HE VISITS SALEM AFTER 29 YEARS

Mr. Page Was General Secretary of Salem Y Away Back in Nineties

W. C. Paige was a Salem visitor yesterday, after 29 years. He was being shown around town by Prof. W. I. Staley, president of the Salem Y. M. C. A. board of directors.

Mr. Paige was general secretary of the Salem "Y" two years, from 1894 to 1896. At the same time, he was physical director, boys' work secretary, etc., etc. He was nearly the whole thing. The Salem "Y" was then located up stairs in the building of the Salem Hardware company.

Mr. Paige went to Houston, Texas, from Salem, where he was general secretary for 12 years. Then he went to Kentucky; then at Henderson five years, then at Louisville and New Albany, and then in the state work of Kentucky; spending in all 17 years in that state.

Now he is in the National Council of the "Y." He is traveling over the country; headquarters New York, but home in Houston, Texas. Went to the new work last month.

Mr. Paige was married in Louisville, and there is a son taller than his dad and a daughter better looking; though he is himself a handsome man.
