AT HEILIG TODAY

One of the acts featured on the Heilig theatre Association vaudeville at that showhouse today.

Silverton

A Christmas program will be given at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening. The program will consist of choruses, quartets, duets and solos. The program committee feels itself very fortunate in securing Miss Laile De Lacheur, who is visiting her niece, Mrs. W. L. McGinnis, to sing at the program. Miss De Lacheur, known on the stage as the "Silver-haired Lady with the Voice of Gold," is a well known concert singer throughout the east and Canada. This is her second season with the Patheages on the west coast. She will return in the spring to the east, at which time she will appear with the Orpheum.

Rev. M. A. Christenson of Portland spent Sunday at Silverton. Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Christenson spoke at Trinity church, having for his subject, "Finding Your Place in Life."

In celebration of their 27th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larson entertained at a dinner Sunday at their home. The occasion was also Mr. Larson's birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ennevidson, Miss Macella Ennevidson, Merl Larson, John Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard of Salem, and Miss Amanda Olsen of Molalla. Melvin Nelson of Portland was a Sunday guest at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. George Henriksen of Silverton.

Albert Olsrud of Montana is a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Larson. Mr. Olsrud and the Larsons were neighbors when the latter made their home in Montana. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burbee are recent arrivals at Silverton from Montana. They have rented the Frank Armstrong farm south of Silverton.

PREFER "BLUE DENIM" WORK

PITTSBURGH.—A majority of night students at the Carnegie Institute of Technology have shown a preference for "blue denim" work. Only a comparatively few are entered for occupations where clean linen and well combed hair are necessities. Building and machinery trades have attracted many of the students.

"BEST PEOPLE" AT THE OREGON

Today is the last day Salem theatre-goers will have the chance to see "The Best People," now playing at the Oregon. The film is a dramatization of one of the best sellers of recent years. It is a Paramount production and stars Warner Baxter and Esther Ralston.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

The frail and wistful Lillian Gish has finished her work in "La Boheme" and it will be released soon.

If the picturization of the familiar opera she plays the role of "Mimi." And all indications point to its leaving a weepy trail across the country.

Remember how we wept through "Broken Blossoms" and "The White Sister." When Lillian Gish makes even strong men to gulp and blink suspiciously.

STAR DUST

Sid Chaplin is an ardent mountaineer. At present he holds the record for the Ledge Trail Climb at Yosemite National Park. Bessie Love is vacationing in Europe. Joseph Schenck has bought control of the Federal Trust and Savings Bank of Hollywood to make it an institution for movie people. Douglas Fairbanks was made a Master Mason recently. Charlie Chase first appeared before the footlights as a boy singer of illustrated songs.

The fashion sequences of "Irene," Colleen Moore's new picture are being done in color.

Priscilla Dean has a new contract with Metropolitan Pictures that make her a star in a different type of pictures. The first will be "The Danger Girl," adapted from the stage play, "The Bride." It is a dramatic comedy of the mystery order. Priscilla recently refused to make a picture in which she was required to do a "wamp" role.

Tom Wilson, a member of the "Million Dollar Handicap" cast has played blackface roles for so long that many believe him to be a negro. In four years he has only played two parts with his face unblackened.

Mae Murray

The latest American star to succumb to the offers of foreign producers is Mae Murray. Mae has gone to Berlin to make a series of pictures for Ufa, German film concern. The titles are as yet unannounced, but it wouldn't be surprising if they were films which have been already produced in this country. A short time ago the German concern bought the

Interested in "Part Time Marriage?" Look for "Married Cheats."

Earl Rossman recently made a color record of the Northern Lights which took three months to make. The photographer took scenes in temperatures ranging from 35 to 52 degrees below zero. The Aurora Borealis sequence will be used in "Kivalina of the Ice Lands," which Pathe is distributing.

In addition to Betty Blythe, four American movie actresses are appearing in London theaters. They are Edith Day, Dorothy Dickson, Lucille La Verne and Tallulah Bankhead.

Harry M. Warner didn't cause any considerable excitement in movie circles when he recently announced that the trouble with the movies is that too many stars think they are gods. Old stuff!

Owen Moore plays the part of "English Algebron" in "The Mocking Bird," Lon Chaney's starring vehicle. In this picture Chaney fills the dual role of a Limehouse missionary and master crook.

days. Renee, when a youngster, used to belong to a circus troupe in France. Later she gained recognition as a dancer and came to the United States to seek fame. After achieving popularity on the New York stage she applied for a job at the William Fox studios and was given a part in "The Strongest." A few months ago she played the part of a young French girl as Jack Gilbert's sweetheart in "The Big Parade." Then she joined the cast of "La Boheme." Lillian Gish's new picture, to play the part of "Musetta." As soon as the last scenes had been shot she hurried over to where Lon Chaney was making "The Mocking Bird" and began work on that production.
