Miss Norell Hobson was a visitor at the Kuiken home over the week-end.

Miss Kate Kuiken, Miss Effie Kuiken and Miss Norell Hobson were visitors at the Holzfuss home Saturday evening.

The social was well attended last Friday evening and a satisfactory sum was realized for the purchase of Christmas supplies.

Professor Payne and wife have rented rooms of Mrs. Stafford and are doing light housekeeping.

The Lyons high school is preparing for a Christmas program.

Middle Grove

Friday evening, Dec. 11, the Middle Grove community club launches its campaign for a new schoolhouse. All patrons of the district are urged to be present and to join in the discussions. A program full of pep will be given.

All three rooms of the school are so crowded that if any more pupils come, there will be no room for the teachers.

The school children are busy getting ready for their Christmas program.

The meetings at the church are still in progress, and will continue all next week. The pastor, Rev. Burns, is conducting them. He is assisted by Miss Dorothy Johnson of Portland, who leads the singing.

Miss Covalt the school nurse, visited the school last Tuesday forenoon, afterward taking lunch with Mrs. Hedine.

Tuesday evening a crowd of their friends on the lane, went up there and gave them an old-fashioned charivari. Tin cans, bells, horns and other instruments of torture to sensitive ears, were in evidence. The surprised Mr. and Mrs. Munson bade the uninvited guests welcome and treated them to some delicious home-made candy. After a short visit, they departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Munson a long and happy life together.

Lyons

The old fashioned dances held in the Odd Fellow's Hall have proved very popular with both the old and the young. The usual large, joyous crowd was present last Saturday night to enjoy the old fashioned "fiddle" music and dances. The freewill offerings go to defray the expenses incurred in recent improvements of the hall.

E. H. Potter, one of the Lyons merchants has been remodeling his place of business, increasing his stock, and adding to the general atmosphere of his store, making it a very desirable place in which to trade.

Lyons and community turned out en masse to the Sunday school last Friday night in the community hall. While the young folks played "spin the bottle" and "pig in the parlor" in one part of the hall the older men and women threw off the shackles of rheumatism and gout and enjoyed "drop the handkerchief," "London bridge is falling down," ran races and other equally as exciting games of their childhood days. The social proved to be quite a financial success as well as social. The proceeds will buy Christmas

Hayesville

The Hayesville community club held their annual meeting, December 4, at the Hayesville school.

After the business preliminaries a delightful program was given, which was as follows:

Community sing, America; reading, Retta Bailey; the girl's glee club, of Hayesville, which is a new organization in the community, rendered two lovely selections. An interesting part of the program was a monologue given by Mr. DuBoise. A reading, given by a talented young lady, Colleen Menus, cleverly entertained the audience. During the heart of the program the older members of the club, were taken back to olden time with old fashioned music, rendered by the Pruitt Trio.

Mr. White gave a monologue which proved to be the spice of the evening.

Another new organization in the community is the Boys glee club. Their two number were encored with a hearty appreciation. Little community cordially invites all to

Silverton

A Christmas program will be given at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening. The program will consist of choruses, quartets, duets and solos. The program committee feels itself very fortunate in securing Miss Lalie De Lacheur, who is visiting her niece, Mrs. W. L. McGinnis, to sing at the program. Miss De Lacheur, known on the stage as the "Silver-haired Lady with the Voice of Gold," is a well known concert singer throughout the east and Canada.
