HE ASKED FOR CHRISTMAS STOCKings. "For your wife or something better?" asked the clerk. The point is this—your wife is really entitled to that very delightful better home on Summer, all new and all modern and close for $8500; nor would you strain the old credit too far if you bought a pretty modern 7-room home on North Fifth close for $6800; or if, on calling the roll of the children, you find you need a 7-room house and can't afford "something better" we've a splendid 7-room modern with large lot and a double garage for $4750 on easy terms; and we have a 7-room house and 3 lots for $2500; or we will sell you a mighty nice 5-room house with fireplace and basement new for $2600 and if your wife doesn't like it she can bring it in after Christmas and exchange it or get the money back.
