Mrs. I. M. Doughton. An earlier group admitted to membership includes Mrs. John D. Foley, Mrs. N. D. Elliott, Mrs. Ben W. Vick, Mrs. W. J. Willett, Mrs. N. E. Gunnell and Mrs. W. J. Busiek. Numerous items of business were transacted at the regular business session, including reports on the recent bridge tea and on scholarship loan activities. The club voted to sponsor a debate some time in January which will be presented at the club house by the Willamette university team.

Dr. Grover C. Bellinger was the speaker of the afternoon, emphasizing the vast importance of prevention, especially the roles that sanitation and education play, in the fight against tuberculosis. A special feature was a Christmas time play written by and presented under the direction of Miss Mary Gilbert.

Miss West Goes to Eugene
Miss Mary West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton L. West, plans to leave today for Eugene where she has accepted a position in the business office of the university. Beginning next term, Miss West plans to take class work in the University of Oregon in addition to filling her new position. Miss West is a former student of the university having been vice president of her class, during her junior year, as well as a member of the glee club. She has been employed at the state house since last autumn.

Mrs. Byron F. Brunk and Mrs. Elmer L. Ross will be hostesses on Tuesday evening at the Brunk home, 1545 Highland avenue, for the Christmas meeting of the club.

Kensington Club
The members of the Kensington club were delightfully entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Power. The rooms were lovely with baskets of chrysanthemums. Miss Florence Power delighted the guests with a number of vocal solos.

On January 7 Mrs. I. M. Doughton will be hostess for the pleasure of the group.

Mrs. Powers Complimented
Mrs. Aurelia Powers was complimented on Thursday afternoon with a delightful, informal tea, at which Mrs. Karl Becke was hostess in her home. A group of intimate friends of the honor guest were bidden. Jerusalem cherries and red candles in silver holders were used on the tea table. Mrs. Walter J. Kirk presided at the urns.

Hofer's at Home
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer and Mrs. E. Hofer motored home from California last week after a trip to San Francisco. Colonel Hofer will come to Salem a little later in company with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer who plan to be guests of their parents for the holidays. Colonel Hofer and Mrs. Hofer were guests of Mrs. Anna Hofer during their stay in Pasadena.

Dinner at the Marion
John Anderson and Homer Lake of New York City and Alex Galloway of San Francisco were the honor guests on Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Beyerl entertained with a four-teen-cover dinner party.

Granddaughter is Bride
Mrs. B. J. Miles spent the past weeks in Portland as the guest of her daughter Mrs. Will Knight. While in Portland Mrs. Miles was a guest at the wedding of her granddaughter, Miss Marcia Knight to Mr. William C. Ralston the event being a distinctive social event of the season.
