Prehistoric Specimens to Be Sought by Students

BELOIT, Wis.—Beloit College will sponsor a school next summer for the training of students in museum and field work in archeology.

The school will consist of nine weeks of travel and study and will be known as the Logan Museum School of Prehistoric Archeology. It is intended to train students in the best methods of museum work and display and in the excavating and treatment of specimens.

Twelve museums of England, France, Switerland and Algeria will be visited. The field work will be conducted in France and Algeria.

PREPARATORY TO REMOVAL
I shall offer the last full quarter block on the top of Fairmount hill unimproved, or will divide in two tracts of 75x150 each. A magnificient view of the Cascades to the east and the Polk county hills to the west. Particularly desirable and away below the market as evidenced from actual sales made on surrounding like properties. I would like to negotiate with parties who appreciate the hill sites.
Also offer two lots at 22nd and D street and two lots at 14th and Cross in Oak Lodge. Also away below the current prices. The properties are all clear and can give terms.
Also will lease my house furnished early in January, and offer my office equipment and lease to some Realtor and initiate the buyer advantageously. No phone information. If interested call in person. Wm. Fleming, 341 State St. 63d3tf
