MARY PICKFORD IS HERE IN NEW PLAY

"Little Annie Rooney," Comedy Drama of Tenement Life, at Oregon

"Little Annie Rooney," the comedy drama of tenement life in New York in which Mary Pickford stars, and which comes to the Oregon theatre today under a United Artists Corporation release, appears to have been written to order for "The World's Sweetheart" for it is an ideal Mary Pickford story.

Combining comedy and drama, smiles and tears, children's gang battles and a pretty love story, "Little Annie Rooney" is the type of play in which the public loves to see Mary Pickford, and the type she can do as no other actress can.

"Little Annie Rooney" is as its name, and as Irish as the curly haired little ragamuffin who plays the title role. It deals with the young daughter of an East Side policeman whose playmates are about thirty young boys, and who enters into the gang fights and rows of these tenement lads with all the vigor of her command.

Unexpected tragedy stalks into the policeman's family, and the girl is suddenly faced with some of the grim realities of life that seldom come to a child of her age.

Through the gang battle sequences Miss Pickford romps gloriously, a leader of the dirty faced boys and the idol of her "gang."

In the dramatic scenes she does some of the finest and most convincing work of her whole screen career.

She is sweet and appealing as the sweetheart of her "Joe," and through the entire picture the artistry of Mary Pickford is again revealed.

CONFEDERATE PLAN HIT BY LOCAL POST

Strong Protest Launched Against Release of Arlington Property

The GAR on record. The following paper was accepted by Sedwick Post, GAR, at its regular meeting on Saturday, December 19.

Whereas, It has been reported that the organization known as The Daughters of the Confederacy, seek to get possession of the Lee mansion at Arlington, adjoining Washington City, and make it a memorial to, and a museum of relics and mementoes of R. E. Lee, the leading soldier in the attempt to destroy the Union.

And, Whereas, The national government first acquired title to this property from a tax-sale, and afterward paid the heirs of R. E. Lee a most liberal sum for their supposed equity in the property.

And, Whereas, The government has established on said property a cemetery where are buried thousands of the men who gave their lives for the Union, and where are also buried many others who distinguished themselves in the service of the nation.

And, Whereas, The property overlooks the city of Washington, the capitol of the nation—occupying as it does, the most slightly position in the vicinity of the city.

Therefore, Be It Resolved: First—That we, members of Sedwick Post, Grand Army of the Republic, would consider it an unforgivable insult to the men who fought for the nation's life, if any part of said Arlington property should be released by the government to be made a memorial to its enemies.

Second—If it comes to an issue, we hereby urge on all the members of the Oregon delegation in every attempt to glorify treason in the manner indicated.

LACKS FUNDS, FINE MEANS TERM IN JAIL

R. H. Littlefield-May Serve 250 Days to Work Out $500 Penalty

R. H. Littlefield, alleged bootlegger who was caught some nights ago by officers Edwards and Davis, pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk and transporting and possessing liquor, and was fined $500 by Judge Poulsen Wednesday.

It is understood, however, that Littlefield has no cash, and will be forced to serve out his fine in the city jail. At the rate of $2 per day, he will have to stay in the bastle for 250 days.

Littlefield was at first inclined to enter a plea of not guilty, it is understood, and was to have his Portland lawyer defend him. Upon talking it over with Mrs. Littlefield, his wife, however, he decided to enter the plea of guilty.

When caught, Littlefield, according to the two officers, had on his possession in his Star roadster five gallons of high-powered moonshine.

It is said the names of several persons appeared on cards carried by Littlefield, with suspicious little numbers, such as 1, 1 1/2, 2, marked after the names or checked off.

COUNCIL RETAINS DEPARTMENT HEADS

Fire and Police Chief Retain Power to Select Their Own Staff

At the annual caucus held by the city council Tuesday night, it was decided unanimously to retain the services of Frank Minto as chief of police, Harry Hutton as fire chief, Hugh Rogers as city engineer, W. S. Low as street commissioner, Batty Cooper as sanitary inspector, and Homer Smith as member of the park board.

Policy of allowing the fire chief and police chief to pick their own personnel was adopted by the council. Intentions of either chief have not been revealed, although it is understood few if any changes will be made.

Decision was not reached on the appointment of city health officer, as the council is waiting to see whether not a full time officer is to be retained by the city and county together.

Only real issue came in the selection of city attorney. Chris Kowitz is present incumbent. C. A. Swope and Raymond Basset are seeking the office. Swope has resided but a brief time in Salem, it is said. The name of Allan Carson was suggested for the post. Who is to receive the post will probably be known definitely by the next meeting of the council, to be held January 4.

John B. May, arrested with Brokaw and Babe on a similar charge was freed when Wallace dismissed the case against him. Brokaw and Babe were held in default of $10,000 bail each, but defense counsel said bond would be arranged tomorrow.

SEEK ANNEXATION TO CITY OF SALEM

Nob Hill and Morningside Districts Circulate Petitions for Vote

Residents of the Nob Hill and Morningside districts are seeking to have the districts annexed to the city of Salem, it is reported. The districts are just south of this city.

Petitions are being passed around throughout the city, it is said, seeking to go before the public on the ballot to be cast in May.

About 1000 persons would be added to Salem's population should the city vote to annex the two districts. Approximately 320 acres are concerned in the matter. In order to get on the ballot, 1500 names have to be signed to the petitions, it is understood.

Borrowed trouble carries a high rate of interest.
