A CHRISTMAS WISH

(By Rosa May Tribbey Hester.)

If I were a muse I might readily find
Some pretty words to convey
The thought of my heart and the wish of my soul
To you this Christmas day.

But I am not so gifted and the words come slow
When my heart would speak to you,
And though I puzzle my wit the thing that I write
Is far from the sentiment true.

So I'm falling back to the surest old wish
That has carried its message of cheer
To a million hearts, and I'm wishing you
A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Emmons-Linde Wedding

The outstanding social event of Christmas day promises to be the wedding of Miss Olive Raundie of Portland to Dr. Carl W. Emmons, which will be solemnized at high noon today at the Emmons' home at 828 North Commercial street, with Dr. Norman Kendall Tully, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating.

The bride will wear a lovely frock of pencil blue crepe back satin, with lace trim.

Miss Anne Lindie, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Ralph Emmons, a brother of the groom, as best man, will be the young couple's only attendants.

Miss Lindie is a graduate nurse, having completed training at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. Dr. Emmons, who is a prominent Salem physician, is a graduate specialist of the University of Oregon Medical school, with outstanding post-graduate work in Chicago. Prior to locating in Salem he was connected with the University of Oregon clinic in Portland. Friends of Dr. Emmons will also remember that he is a graduate of the Salem high school.

Dr. Emmons and his bride will leave immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip north. After the first of the year they will be at home to their friends in the Engie apartments on North Capitol street.

Vanishing Parties Close

An unusually successful chain of vanishing parties, sponsored by Salem matrons for the benefit of the Doernbecher hospital fund came to a close this week, after continuing for six weeks.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, which occurred on December 19, was fittingly celebrated with a family reunion and dinner party on Sunday, December 20, the day following, at the Taylor home at Macleay. Mr. Taylor is an old pioneer of this section, his father having come to Oregon in 1845 and settling on one of the old homesteads in the Waldo Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor now make their home on part of the original home place where Mr. Taylor was born. Mrs. Taylor, who was Rosalia Hughes before her marriage, came to Oregon from Iowa in 1874.

parents of eight children, including Walter Taylor and Ada Jeruman, both of Salem; George Virgil Taylor of Mill City; Eary E. Taylor of Pixley, Cal.; Edith Jeruman of Salem; Alfred Taylor of Pixley, Cal.; Fay Lieschly of Pratum, and Myrtle Clymer of Silverton.

In the group invited for the wedding anniversary were three brothers and sisters of Mr. Taylor, these being Marion Taylor of Mehama, Harvey Taylor of Macleay, Amos Taylor of Albany, Mrs. Marion Baker of California, Mrs. N. A. Bond and Mrs. Nellie Humphreys of McMinnville.

Roast turkey, roast duck and roast chicken formed the "piece de resistance" of the elaborate anniversary feast. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were lovely about the rooms and on the table where the feast was the festive, richly fed wedding cake, ornamented with the golden numerals, "50."

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Clymer, Mrs. Addie Taylor of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Humphreys of McMinnville, Mrs. Marion Baker of California, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patton of Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Craig of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Taylor of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Taylor of Mehama, Mr. Russell King of Mill City, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Taylor of Mill City, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clymer, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lieschly, Miss Lale Lieschly and Howard Lieschly of Pratum, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Taylor of Mehama, Mr. and Mrs. Elvy Taylor of Silverton, Bertha Lois Taylor of Salem, Margaret Savage, Billie Welch, Virgil Taylor of McMinnville, Eldon Bewick of one Or., Adolph Craig of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Ralph Emmons of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jerman of Salem, Mrs. Ada Jerman, Mr. Albert Jacobs, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

Holidays in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor and daughter Barbara Jeanne of Portland, and Paul E. Davies, marine, of Bremerton, Washington, will spend the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies.

Miss Dotson Is Home

Miss Mabel Dotson is spending the Christmas holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Dotson. Miss Dotson is a member of the high school at Philomath.

Guests at McCallister Home

Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister are entertaining as their house guests for the Christmas holidays Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan of Corvallis. Additional guests for the family dinner today will include Mr. W. B. McCallister of Portland, Mrs. Mary Cauthorn, and Miss Cauthorn.

Home From Yakima

Miss Jenelle Vandevort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, will arrive home this morning from Yakima, Washington, to spend the holiday season. Miss Vandevort is successfully engaged in Girl Reserve work in Yakima, having accepted the position early last fall.

Town and Gown Club Tea

The members of the Town and Gown club are anticipating the tea which they are planning for early in January. The attractive event will take place at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

Guests in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore and daughter, Miss Helen Moore and Miss Ruth Moore, left on Christmas eve for Portland to spend the holidays with Mrs. R. Dillar, a sister of Mrs. Moore.

Christmas Carols

The singing of Christmas carols by a group from the Salem MacDowell club is an annual custom among these singers as quaint as it is delightful. Going from house to house, and singing to shut-ins, is the part this group took in the festivities yesterday of Christmas eve.

Home From U of W

Miss Bertha Lois Taylor, who is a student this year at the University of Washington, is spending her Christmas vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor. Miss Taylor will return to Seattle January 4.

Reunion at Poling Home

One of the most enjoyable family reunions of Christmas day will take place this noon and afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Poling when members of the family group will meet together for the first time in a number of years. Dan Poling, who is in New York City, and Charles Poling, both regret that they will be unable to celebrate with the group. Seasonal decorations of evergreen, mistletoe, and holly will deck the rooms, while in the afternoon hours both music and a family Christmas tree will be featured. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Goode of Portland will be special guests of the family for the day. At the dinner table at the noon hour the following will be seated:
