Equipment Arrives.

Salem high school yesterday received new athletic equipment for its gymnasium. Ordering of the equipment was authorized some time ago by the city school board. Included in the equipment were parallel bars, a vaulting horse, floor mats, stall bars, ropes, a wrestling mat and spring boards. The total cost for the equipment was $1017.15.

Miller Speaks.

At the meeting of the Salvation Army of Salem in the State street hall last night, Rev. and Mrs. Carl P. Miller of the South Salem Friends church were the principal speakers. Fred G. Fisher of Chicago sang. The meeting was well attended.

Census Complete.

Census for the Salem school district No. 24 has been completed. There are now in the district 5727 children between 4 and 20 years of age. Of this number 2784 are boys and 2940 girls. The complete roll will be submitted to the county school superintendent so that Salem may receive her portion of the county school fund. The city receives from the county a nominal sum per capita.

Pringle Holds Program.

An excellent Christmas program was held in the Pringle school on Thursday evening. Two plays were presented, both written by R. J. Miller, principal of the school. A large crowd attended. W. W. Fox, rural school superintendent, was present.

Takes Over Company.

The Pacific Telephone company has taken over the Tillamook County Mutual Telephone company with headquarters at Tillamook, according to announcement made at the office of the public service commission Saturday. The order of consolidation will become effective as of January 2, 1926.

YMCA Program to Start.

The educational trip program of the Salem YMCA will start on Monday. At 10 o'clock in the morning the boys who wish to make the trip will gather at the YMCA rooms. Monday's trip will be to the state penitentiary. Basketball games will make up the greater part of the program for the afternoon. In the evening there will be free movies in the association rooms. A live program will be conducted each day at the YMCA. All boys in the city are invited to attend.

Speeder Is Fined.

B. C. Barsam of Oakland, Cal., was fined $10 when he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of driving 42 miles an hour on the Pacific highway. The case was heard in justice court Saturday by Brazier C. Small. The arrest was made by R. B. Reinhardt, of the state traffic division.

Divorce Is Secured.

James Coates was granted a divorce in circuit court yesterday from Grace Coates on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in Portland in August, 1925.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to most sincerely thank all who sent the beautiful flowers, who assisted in various ways and for the many sympathetic acts bestowed, all of which helped so much to lighten the sorrow.—The children of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Moore. d27

Births Are Reported.

Two births were reported at the office of the city health officer Saturday. To Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Taylor of Walla Walla a son was born on December 11 and has been named Donald Dean Rexford. A son was born December 11 to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hampton of Salem and has been named Albert Randall.

Ministers to Meet.

A meeting of the Salem Ministerial association will be held in the basement club rooms of the city library Monday morning.

Fred Sefton Recovering.

Fred C. Sefton, one of the retired members of Capital Typographical Union, No. 210, living on his ranch at Yoncalla, Oregon, has just recovered from a severe illness. His many Salem friends will no doubt be glad to know he is out of danger. Mr. Sefton is a former employe of the State

Printing office and was the one selected by the Secretary of state to edit and compile the session laws of the legislature. He has held most of the important positions in and around the state printing office, being, formerly, secretary of the local Typographical Union.

Special Meetings.

Fred G. Fisher, singer evangelist who arrived in Salem yesterday, will assist the Salvation Army in two special institutional meetings today. The first will be held at the state penitentiary, and the other at the girls' training school, both services taking place in the afternoon.
