

Salem Society News

By AUDREY BUNCH Phone 106

Mrs. Prince Byrd Entertains Club

One of the most delightful meetings of the Tuesday Bridge club for the year took place yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Prince Byrd entertained for the pleasure of the members and two additional guests with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle followed with an afternoon of cards in her home. In lieu of prizes, each guest was made the recipient of a favor from the branches of the Christmas tree arranged in the Byrd home.

Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Bert Ford and Mrs. Roy Byrd.

At the Gray Belle the table was lovely with poinsettias and holly, while Christmas decorations of holly, mistletoe, and evergreen were again featured at the Byrd home.

Covers at the luncheon were placed for Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. E. F. Slade, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. Bert Ford, Mrs. Roy Byrd, and the hostess, Mrs. Prince Byrd.

At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Frank Spears will be the hostess, the group meeting for the first meeting of the new year on January 12.

Visitors in Portland

Mrs. George J. Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce are spending several days in Portland, having motored up on Tuesday.

Librarians in Portland

Miss Maude E. Covington and Mrs. Ivan Bellinger will be among those from Salem in attendance today at the meeting of the library section of the state teachers' association in Portland.

Dinner at Curtis Cross Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer of San Francisco, who are hobnobbing guests of Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer, and Mr. and Mrs. William Kilz of Vancouver, B. C., who are guests at the home of Mrs. S. W. Thompson, were the honor guests at the delightful dinner party on Saturday at which Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross were hosts at their home on Fairmount Hill.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. William Kilz, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross.

Northwest Poetry Society

A group of Salem literary folk plan to be in attendance this evening at the meeting of the Northwest Poetry society at the home of Mrs. H. C. Wortman on Portland Heights.

Holiday Dinner at Spaulding Home

One of the season's most enjoyable dinners took place Christmas day at the Spaulding home when Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding entertained for the family. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spaulding and children of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and little daughter, Leone, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills and children and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith and little daughter, Norah Kate.

Vacation at Mont Alto Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford and Mrs. Blanche M. Jones are spending the holiday season at the Mont Alto ranch, near Roseburg.

Miss White Is Guest

Miss Henrietta White is spending the holiday season as the guest of her parents, Brigadier-General and Mrs. George A. White. Miss White is a student at Oregon Agricultural college.

B. P. and W. Ex-Officer Travels

Miss Adelia Prichard, past president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, left for Vancouver, B. C., where she will give the principal address at the annual meeting of the Vancouver Business and Professional Women's club, returning to Portland Thursday.

Miss Prichard was accompanied by Miss Jennette M. Dalley of St. Paul, publicity director of the Minnesota Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Miss Dalley is making an extended visit in Portland, and is renewing her friendship with Miss Prichard, whom she met while the Portland woman was national president of the organization. She has been warmly greeted by the local Business and Professional Women's club. Minnesota clubs are very active, according to Miss Dalley, and their activities are much in the news.—Oregonian.

Queen Review No. Five

Queen Review No. 5 of the Woman's Benefit association will hold a special meeting of importance at 2 o'clock on Thursday, December 31, in the small hall at the Fraternal temple. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Bradford Is Guest

Mrs. Etta Bradford of Portland is spending the holiday season as the guest of friends.

Dinner at Cooper Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cooper entertained in their home on Saginaw street at one of the most enjoyable family dinners of the holiday season last Thursday. A centerpiece of Scotch heather made the Christmas table attractive.

Womans Club Classes

Special interest at the Salem Woman's club classes on Monday centered around the discussion in current events, splendidly conducted by Prof. S. B. Laughlin. The group took up the matter of the world court plan and followed with a discussion of the financial situation in France and the present political status of Italy. Many questions were asked by the group of 16 women present.

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

Yomareo Club to Meet

Mrs. B. E. Sison and Mrs. E. B. Millard will be hostesses this afternoon at the Millard home at 2411 D street for members of the Yomareo club and a group of additional guests, honoring Mrs. Roy F. Dillen, who is leaving soon for Los Angeles.

Story-Telling Section Postponed

The meeting of the story telling section of the Salem Arts' league which was scheduled for tonight has been postponed and will take place instead a week from tonight, Wednesday, January 6, at Mrs. Ivan Bellinger's apartment at the Court.

Guests at Marcus Home

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooley (Margaret Marcus) of Myrtle Point, Or., are spending the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. Cooley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Marcus, at their country home south of Salem.

Guests From McMinnville

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelson and daughter Wanda from McMinnville were Sunday dinner guests of the doctor's sister, Mrs. Annie S. High, 628 North Liberty street.

Christmas Dinner at Fruitland

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Branch were hosts at one of the loveliest holiday dinners of the year when they entertained at their home, near Fruitland, on Christmas day. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cooper and children, Jessie, James, Carol and Hazel; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and daughter Jewell, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cooper.

"LISTEN IN"
FREE TO RADIO FANS
DINNER CONCERT
6:00-7:00 KGW (491.5) Portland
6:00-7:00 KFWV (212.6) Portland
NEWS
7:30-7:45 KGW (491.5) Portland, news items.
SPECIAL
7:30-9:00 KWSE (348.6) Pullman, Wash. Pauline Williams, pianist; "Pyrotol, a Safe Explosive," R. N. Miller; "The Proper Housing of Poultry," J. S. Carver.
7:30-9:00 KOAC (282.5) Corvallis. 7:30, musical selections; 7:45, "Mokey Plans for the Home Income in 1926," Emma S. Weld; 8:15, "Which Shall It Be—Serge or Satan?" Alma Fritchhoff.
STORIES
6:30-7:30 KHJ (405.2) Los Angeles. History story, Professor Hertzog.
7:00-7:20 KFI (467) Los Angeles. Detective stories.
ENTERTAINMENT
6:00-10:00 KFOA (454.3) Seattle. 6-6:45, Hoffman orchestra; 6:46-8:15, studio program; 8:30-10, Times organ recital, Elk's club.
6:00-11:00 KHJ (405.2) Los Angeles. 6-6:30, Leighton's orchestra; 6:30-7:30 p. m., history story, Prof. Hertzog; Daniel Le Luce and Beatrice Wilson, saxophone duet; Dick Winslow, juvenile reporter; Mickey McBan and Vivian Marple, screen stars; 8, Dr. Mars Baumgardt, scientific lecturer; 8:30-10, program; 10-11, Clark's dance orchestra.
6:30-11:00 KFI (467) Los Angeles. 6:30, vest pocket concert; 6:45, radiatorial; 7, detective stories; 7:20, Drury Lenington, tenor; 8, orchestra; 9, examiner program; 10, Patrick-Marsh orchestra.

UNCLE BILLY

DOROTHY DARNIT

the second Monday night in each month was set as the date for meetings. By-laws and regulations will be discussed at the next meeting which will be held in January.

After a little discussion a motion was made to adjourn. A very enjoyable evening was had by those present. The following "stags" were in attendance: C. A. Swope, John Williamson, Orville Oglesby, H. D. Weese, C. E. Amsherry, Wm. E. Moses, R. S. Howard, Geo. W.

Johnson, Batty Cooper, Frank McCarthy, H. C. Hummel, C. M. Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, D. W. Pugh, J. S. Adams, Wenatchee, Wash., J. B. Giesy, Thos. Brown, John Hawk, C. R. Muston, and George Wenderoth.

Attend Symphony Concert Mrs. S. Levy and Miss Elizabeth Levy were among those in the audience for the Symphony orchestra concert on Monday night at the municipal auditorium in Portland. Miss Margaret Fisher was a guest over the weekend of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robbin Fisher in Portland, returning home on Monday.

Corvallis—New Cress 3-story building will cost $100,000.

Grants Pass—Rich gold quartz found near old Greenback mine after six-year search.

George Wenderoth and Batty Cooper, who are on the city of Salem's pay roll, and live between 1760 and 1780 on N. Water street, started a "stag" party at their homes on Monday evening for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the city.

But being the widow and George the orphan. The evening was spent in playing Progressive 500, in which George Johnson carried off high honors and C. R. Muston carrying off the "booby" prize. At 10:45 an announcement was made by Mrs. Cooper to the effect that supper was being served at the Wenderoth home, at which place the "stags" proceeded to go. If the writer is not mistaken, Thos. Brown was one of the first "stags" at the table and Mayor Giesy for some unknown reason loitered along the way and was the last to be seated. The luncheon consisted of sandwiches, cake, jello, pudding, nuts, candy, coffee, cigars and cigarettes. George Wenderoth, acting toastmaster, called upon all present for a little talk, in which all responded. Much credit was given Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Batts' and Mrs. Wenderoth for the sumptuous "spread" and those present proved their enjoyment. At the conclusion of the "spread" C. R. Muston, delighted those present with one of his famous solos, after which talks of forming a club were discussed. George Wenderoth was elected president, Batty Cooper, vice president, Mayor Giesy, secretary; Thos. Brown, treasurer, C. E. Amsherry, official reporter, and Orville Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, Ralph Howard and C. E. Amsherry "eats" committee. Mrs. Batts, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Wenderoth were made honorary members of the club and the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

the second Monday night in each month was set as the date for meetings. By-laws and regulations will be discussed at the next meeting which will be held in January.

After a little discussion a motion was made to adjourn. A very enjoyable evening was had by those present. The following "stags" were in attendance: C. A. Swope, John Williamson, Orville Oglesby, H. D. Weese, C. E. Amsherry, Wm. E. Moses, R. S. Howard, Geo. W.

Johnson, Batty Cooper, Frank McCarthy, H. C. Hummel, C. M. Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, D. W. Pugh, J. S. Adams, Wenatchee, Wash., J. B. Giesy, Thos. Brown, John Hawk, C. R. Muston, and George Wenderoth.

Attend Symphony Concert Mrs. S. Levy and Miss Elizabeth Levy were among those in the audience for the Symphony orchestra concert on Monday night at the municipal auditorium in Portland. Miss Margaret Fisher was a guest over the weekend of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robbin Fisher in Portland, returning home on Monday.

Corvallis—New Cress 3-story building will cost $100,000.

Grants Pass—Rich gold quartz found near old Greenback mine after six-year search.

George Wenderoth and Batty Cooper, who are on the city of Salem's pay roll, and live between 1760 and 1780 on N. Water street, started a "stag" party at their homes on Monday evening for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the city.

But being the widow and George the orphan. The evening was spent in playing Progressive 500, in which George Johnson carried off high honors and C. R. Muston carrying off the "booby" prize. At 10:45 an announcement was made by Mrs. Cooper to the effect that supper was being served at the Wenderoth home, at which place the "stags" proceeded to go. If the writer is not mistaken, Thos. Brown was one of the first "stags" at the table and Mayor Giesy for some unknown reason loitered along the way and was the last to be seated. The luncheon consisted of sandwiches, cake, jello, pudding, nuts, candy, coffee, cigars and cigarettes. George Wenderoth, acting toastmaster, called upon all present for a little talk, in which all responded. Much credit was given Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Batts' and Mrs. Wenderoth for the sumptuous "spread" and those present proved their enjoyment. At the conclusion of the "spread" C. R. Muston, delighted those present with one of his famous solos, after which talks of forming a club were discussed. George Wenderoth was elected president, Batty Cooper, vice president, Mayor Giesy, secretary; Thos. Brown, treasurer, C. E. Amsherry, official reporter, and Orville Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, Ralph Howard and C. E. Amsherry "eats" committee. Mrs. Batts, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Wenderoth were made honorary members of the club and the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

the second Monday night in each month was set as the date for meetings. By-laws and regulations will be discussed at the next meeting which will be held in January.

After a little discussion a motion was made to adjourn. A very enjoyable evening was had by those present. The following "stags" were in attendance: C. A. Swope, John Williamson, Orville Oglesby, H. D. Weese, C. E. Amsherry, Wm. E. Moses, R. S. Howard, Geo. W.

Johnson, Batty Cooper, Frank McCarthy, H. C. Hummel, C. M. Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, D. W. Pugh, J. S. Adams, Wenatchee, Wash., J. B. Giesy, Thos. Brown, John Hawk, C. R. Muston, and George Wenderoth.

Attend Symphony Concert Mrs. S. Levy and Miss Elizabeth Levy were among those in the audience for the Symphony orchestra concert on Monday night at the municipal auditorium in Portland. Miss Margaret Fisher was a guest over the weekend of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robbin Fisher in Portland, returning home on Monday.

Corvallis—New Cress 3-story building will cost $100,000.

Grants Pass—Rich gold quartz found near old Greenback mine after six-year search.

George Wenderoth and Batty Cooper, who are on the city of Salem's pay roll, and live between 1760 and 1780 on N. Water street, started a "stag" party at their homes on Monday evening for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the city.

But being the widow and George the orphan. The evening was spent in playing Progressive 500, in which George Johnson carried off high honors and C. R. Muston carrying off the "booby" prize. At 10:45 an announcement was made by Mrs. Cooper to the effect that supper was being served at the Wenderoth home, at which place the "stags" proceeded to go. If the writer is not mistaken, Thos. Brown was one of the first "stags" at the table and Mayor Giesy for some unknown reason loitered along the way and was the last to be seated. The luncheon consisted of sandwiches, cake, jello, pudding, nuts, candy, coffee, cigars and cigarettes. George Wenderoth, acting toastmaster, called upon all present for a little talk, in which all responded. Much credit was given Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Batts' and Mrs. Wenderoth for the sumptuous "spread" and those present proved their enjoyment. At the conclusion of the "spread" C. R. Muston, delighted those present with one of his famous solos, after which talks of forming a club were discussed. George Wenderoth was elected president, Batty Cooper, vice president, Mayor Giesy, secretary; Thos. Brown, treasurer, C. E. Amsherry, official reporter, and Orville Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, Ralph Howard and C. E. Amsherry "eats" committee. Mrs. Batts, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Wenderoth were made honorary members of the club and the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

At the meeting of the literature class Rev. Martin Fereshethian continued the discussion on Emerson's essay, "Self Reliance."

the second Monday night in each month was set as the date for meetings. By-laws and regulations will be discussed at the next meeting which will be held in January.

After a little discussion a motion was made to adjourn. A very enjoyable evening was had by those present. The following "stags" were in attendance: C. A. Swope, John Williamson, Orville Oglesby, H. D. Weese, C. E. Amsherry, Wm. E. Moses, R. S. Howard, Geo. W.

Johnson, Batty Cooper, Frank McCarthy, H. C. Hummel, C. M. Oglesby, Theo. C. Amends, D. W. Pugh, J. S. Adams, Wenatchee, Wash., J. B. Giesy, Thos. Brown, John Hawk, C. R. Muston, and George Wenderoth.

Attend Symphony Concert Mrs. S. Levy and Miss Elizabeth Levy were among those in the audience for the Symphony orchestra concert on Monday night at the municipal auditorium in Portland. Miss Margaret Fisher was a guest over the weekend of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robbin Fisher in Portland, returning home on Monday.

Corvallis—New Cress 3-story building will cost $100,000.

Grants Pass—Rich gold quartz found near old Greenback mine after six-year search.

George Wenderoth and Batty Cooper, who are on the city of Salem's pay roll, and live between 1760 and 1780 on N. Water street, started a "stag" party at their homes on Monday evening for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the city.

But being the widow and George the orphan. The evening was spent in playing Progressive 500, in which George Johnson carried off high honors and C. R. Muston carrying off the "booby" prize. At 10:45 an announcement was made by Mrs. Cooper to the effect that supper was being served at the Wenderoth home, at which place the "stags" proceeded to go. If the writer is not mistaken, Thos. Brown was one of the first "stags" at the table