

COUNTY NEWS BRIEFS

North Howell

Mrs. Geo. Dunn who is in the Willamette Sanitarium at Salem after an operation is improving nicely and may be able to come soon.

The program and bazaar which was given at the Grange hall last Wednesday evening was enjoyed very much, the sale of all the articles, netted a goodly sum which will go toward buying a piano.

Mrs. Sylvia Baughman and three children, Melvin, Paul and June were Sunday visitors at R. O. Dunn's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vinton, accompanied by W. H. Baughman motored to Astoria, Ore., to see Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corby.

The community Christmas tree at the school house Wednesday afternoon with a real Santa Claus was enjoyed by the grown-ups as well as the school children.

Mr. and Mrs. George McIlwain left Monday for a visit over Christmas with Mrs. McIlwain's relatives at Tacoma, Wash.

Middle Grove

The Middle Grove school gave its Christmas program at the church on the evening of December 23. The primary and intermediate rooms alone furnished the entertainment. All were well prepared and spoke clearly. Deserving special mention was the Christmas play "Christmas Gifts" by the intermediate room, assisted by some from the Primary. Fairies, Brownies, Christmas Colors, Shepherds, Wise Men, and the Christmas Spirit and Bethlehem Star, all were there and rendered their parts well, showing careful drilling by the teachers, Mrs. Erskine and Mrs. Denham. A comfortably crowded house listened to the program.

Walter Fandrich and bride of Astoria were Christmas guests of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson and family of Portland were week-end guests of the T. Olson and W. W. Fisher families.

Mrs. Esther Perry of St. Helens spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Walter Fisher.

Mrs. Lloyd Reese of Hollywood entertained her son from Portland as a week-end guest.

Brooks

Children's Party

A pretty birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlavy of Brooks on Saturday, December 19, in honor of their son, John Jr.'s 11th birthday. The guests were entertained with many different games. Red and green was the color motif used in the living and dining rooms. A delicious luncheon was served, and a large birthday cake decorated with red rose had candles was the table centerpiece. John received many nice presents. Those present were: Earl Ramp, Knald Ashbaugh, Charles Mc Knight, Elliot Fuller, John Leshor, Everett Ramp, Ellis Jones, Milton Roth, Regge Jones, George Coombes, Ira Ashbaugh, Leo Ramp, Fred Mulkins, Chester Roth, John Dunlavy Jr., Miss Ellen Hackit, Marje Dunlavy, and the hostess, Mrs. John Dunlavy.

Brooks School Program

Unique and interesting was the program and Christmas tree given by the pupils of the Brooks public school on Wednesday evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and a splendid program was given and enjoyed, after which a treat of candy, nuts, and oranges was given the children of the school.

Mrs. McAllister is principal and Mrs. Nyhart and Mrs. Robins are assistant teachers.

The Brooks Evangelical church held their Christmas program and tree on Sunday evening in the church. Almost everyone in the Sunday school had some part to take and with the help of the older ones a very fine entertainment was given. Speeches by the smaller ones were especially good and the music by the school was entered into with the true Christmas spirit. A pageant, arranged by Mrs. Wright was given by the older classes, showing the Christmas story of the shepherds and the wise men in their search for the new born Savior. Other musical numbers and the distribution of gifts completed the program.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Sturgis (Elsie Bechner), are showering them with felicitations over the arrival of a small son of December 22.
