

SIMPSON GROCERY

SUCCESSORS TO WELDER BROS.

Phones 48 and 49 156 North Commercial St.

No. 10 Buckeye Corn Meal	42c	HONEY
No. 10 Potlatch Pancake and Biscuit Flour	59c	Fancy White Mountain Honey large combs	25c
Catsup—Heinz Small size bottle, for this week, per bottle	15c	Fancy Strained Honey pint size	35c
Prunes—Fancy dried Italians 3 pounds	28c	2 for	65c
Petite Prunes 3 pounds	29c	Fancy Strained Honey quart size	65c
Fancy dried Peaches—2 pounds	35c	2 for	$1.25
Fancy dried Apricots 3 pounds	$1.00	No. 5 Libby's Jellies in tins all flavors, per can	$1.10
Choice Cooking Figs 2 pounds	25c	No. 10 A. & L. grated Pineapple per can	94c
Orange Marmalade large size glass	19c	No. 10 broken sliced Pineapple per can	98c

Phone your orders—save shopping in the cold wintry weather. It is much more convenient; more economical. We deliver without extra charge.

BEN SEZ
Here is a Real Bargain!
Ford touring, 1920, in good running condition, with starter and good tires. 1926 license furnished.
A REAL SNAP AT $85
VICK BROS.

New Year's Dinner
At Hotel Marion, $1.50. Served from 5:45 to 8 p. m.

Debaters Work
In preparation for the coming debate season this Christmas vacation the debate team of Salem high school is putting in good work. The affirmative team met at the school building yesterday morning and the negative team met Tuesday morning. The season will end late in the spring, with the coast-to-coast contest, when Salem, Oregon, meets Salem, Massachusetts.

A Few Boys' Overcoats
Left at $5. Boys' suits at $7. A real buy in men's suits at $16. Thos. Kay Woolen Mills Co. d31

L. C. Strand Passes
L. C. Strand passed away at San Diego a few days ago, according to word received at Silverton. Mr. Strand will be remembered as the husband of Mrs. L. C. Taylor who made her home here for a great number of years. While Mrs. Strand, then Mrs. Taylor, was at Silverton, she was president of the W. C. T. U. Mr. Strand was 92 years of age at the time of his death.

Local Firm Incorporated
W. T. Rigdon & Son was incorporated at $40,000 yesterday by W. T. Rigdon, Mattie J. Rigdon and Lloyd T. Rigdon.

At Elks Temple
Big dance, good music, New Year's eve. d31

Income Taxes In
Five counties in the state have reported 100 per cent collections of income tax delinquents through warrants sent out recently by the state tax commission. These warrants were sent to the sheriffs of the various counties with instructions to have them placed in the hands of the county clerks and entered in the lien dockets. Counties in which the delinquents have paid in full include Hood River, Linn, Deschutes, Marion and Umatilla. In a number of other counties all but one or two of the delinquents have called at the sheriff's office and liquidated their obligations.

New Years, New Home
Take this 4 rooms new with furnace, fireplace, hardwood, etc. We have three—north, south and east. $3600 to $3800. Terms, $100 to $200 down, balance like rent. Immediate possession on 2. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street. d25f

On Business Trip
C. W. Doty, of the Terminal confectionery was in Eugene Tuesday evening on business.

We Are Putting
Our entire stock of all wool overcoats on sale at $12, $15 and $20. The price on many of these coats is less than the manufacturing cost. Thos. Kay Woolen Mills Co. —d31

Will Inspect Road
The Marion county court will leave this morning at 9 o'clock for Willamina where the will inspect the road from that town to the coast. The road has recently been oiled.

Property Owners
Have you troubles with your real estate or insurance? It's our business; bring them in. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High. d25f

Nurses Attend Conference
Miss Eleanor Thompson, superintendent of the Marion County Health Demonstration, Miss Grace L. Taylor, secretary of the Oregon state board for the examination and registration of nurses and Miss Astrid Holmseth, superintendent of the Salem hospital were called to Portland to attend a special meeting of the nurse educators connected with nursing education in Oregon. This body met at St. Vincent's hospital to consider a uniform system of students and school records for the state and affiliation for the student nurses whenever this might seem advisable. Directors of the schools of nursing from all over the state were present.

Correction
The grocery sale of the Cosmopolitan stores started Tuesday instead of Thursday as stated in Tuesday Morning's Statesman.

Watchnight Service
A watchnight service will be held Thursday at the First Evangelical church. Business meetings of auxiliaries and a social hour for old and young, will precede the final hour when Rev. Polling will discuss "Dispensations" as his topic.

JAMES J. CROSSLEY
Portland, Oregon
Candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator at the May 21, 1926, Primaries.
Will always be present when the Senate is in session looking after all the interests of all the people of Oregon just as loyally as he did when State Senator, U. S. Attorney in Alaska and a soldier in France. Represents no special interests.—Paid Adv.

JOE WILLIAMS
The Battery Man
Electrical Men Who Know
WILLIAMS
531 Court St. Phone 195

DISEASES
Treated by Osteopathy and the latest electrical therapy including Dr. Abram's electronic system.
No charge for consultation
DR. B. H. WHITE
Physician and Surgeon
506 U. S. Bank Building
Salem, Oregon

PAINTING KALSOMINING PARER HANGING
For the right kind of materials and the very best workmanship call us.
Gabriel
Powder and Supply Co.
178 S. Commercial Phone 728

F. N. WOODY
Salem's Leading AUCTIONEER
Pays Cash For Furniture Residences and Store
1619 North Sumner
PHONE 511
"Established Since 1918"

LADD & BUSH, Bankers
Established 1866
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Name Commissioner
Dr. C. W. Keene has been elected Silverton water commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of S. E. Richardson who recently went to California to spend a few weeks because of his health. At a meeting of the Silverton Business Men's Credit Association A. Albright was elected secretary for the association. The board of directors cast the vote for Mr. Albright.

Remember the Carnival Dance
At Crystal Gardens tonight. d31

Not the Aumsville Hay
E. T. Pierce, cashier of the Aumsville State Bank writes to The Statesman: "I have noticed in your paper two or three times statements relative to one G. W. Hayes of Aumsville who had been arrested for obtaining money under false pretense; and in this connection I desire to advise that this party is not George W. Hayes, who resides at Aumsville, but is one G. W. Hayes or known as Lewis Hayes of near Maclay, Oregon. In justice to our local George W. Hayes, I will be pleased if you will correct this news item."

Remember the Carnival Dance
At Crystal Gardens tonight. d31

Watchnight Service
There will be a watch night service at the Market Street Free Methodist church, corner of North Winter and Market streets, beginning at 9 o'clock tonight. The first part of the service will be devoted to a praise service. There will be three short addresses given at intervals during the evening. The speakers are to be Rev. C. H. Hopkins, Rev. Carl Miller, and Prof. E. A. Sayer of La Grande. There will be the singing of some of the old hymns as well as some special music. The last moments of the old year and the first of the new will be spent in prayer. A splendid evening is promised and all are invited to attend.

Save Your Radiator
From freezing, at O. J. Wilson's garage, 388 North Commercial—prompt service. d-29f

Undergoes Operation
Marion Ketch, a linotype operator for The Statesman Publishing company, underwent a major operation at a Salem hospital yesterday. The operation was declared successful.

Success Studies
Stenography, bookkeeping, typing and kindred subjects are sure stepping stones for young people to reach business success. The office of the Capital Business College is open each day this week. Any interested should call to talk matters over. d31

Speaking Tour Planned
County YMCA Secretary B. F. Kimber said yesterday that for January 7 to Marion county a speaking tour of schools is being worked out. A speaker from some college will be secured. A rally of all the Pioneer clubs in Salem and Marion county is planned for January 15. Thrift week, which begins January 17, will also be observed.

Good Dry Mill Wood
$4.50 per load. Phone 1879. d31*

River Falling
Yesterday the Willamette river had reached a point 2.7 feet above normal. Rivermen feel that in the near future the river would not go down very much.

Cash Prizes
At hard time dance Mellow Moon Sat. night. j2

Use Power Lines Soon
The eight high power lines which were strung across the Willamette river lately on three towers will be ready for use in January.

Old Clothes
Is the style at Mellow Moon Saturday night. j2

Wins Prize
W. J. Morphew, salesman for the Newton Chevrolet company, won the spinnet desk and chair offered as first prize for the highest record by the Chevrolet company. The desk and chair are now on display.

Remember the Carnival Dance
At Crystal Gardens tonight. d31.

Home on Vacation
Richard E. Ryley of the USS West Virginia, now in harbor at Seattle, is pending a week at his home, 1529 Chokecheta street, being on his Christmas vacation. He is a son of Mrs. Bertha E. Ryley.

License Issued
The first combination fishing and hunting license for 1926 is said to have been issued from the Anderson Sporting Goods store to Clifford Ratcliffe yesterday.

Obituary
Hurley
At a local hospital, December 26, Frank Hurley at the age of 49 years. He is survived by a brother in Seattle. Funeral announcement later by the Webb funeral parlors.

Beyond
Beyond the frost chain and the fever
I shall be soon;
Beyond the rock waste and the river
Beyond the ever and the never
I shall be soon.
Love, rest and home!
Sweet hope!
Lord, hurry not, but come.
—Horatius Bonart

W. T. Rigdon & Son

Radio Poles
Woodward's Service Station
Corner Market and 17th.

NEW YEAR PARTIES
FILLING CALENDAR

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 30.—(Special).—Almost as many New Year parties are being planned as there were Christmas affairs. Like the Christmas celebrations a number of these are private and a number are for the public. Among the latter the largest will be the big New Year's Eve dance which the American Legion will give in the new armory. Special features are being planned for this. At least two of the churches will hold watch parties. At the Christian church a watch party will be held at 8 o'clock.

Remember the Carnival Dance
At Crystal Gardens tonight. d31.

Watchnight Service
There will be a watch night service at the Market Street Free Methodist church, corner of North Winter and Market streets, beginning at 9 o'clock tonight. The first part of the service will be devoted to a praise service. There will be three short addresses given at intervals during the evening. The speakers are to be Rev. C. H. Hopkins, Rev. Carl Miller, and Prof. E. A. Sayer of La Grande. There will be the singing of some of the old hymns as well as some special music. The last moments of the old year and the first of the new will be spent in prayer. A splendid evening is promised and all are invited to attend.

Dr. Marshall, Osteopathic
Physician and surgeon. d31

Dr. Miller Talks
"If a man breaks the prohibition law, he can hardly expect protection from other law breakers," declared Dr. Carl F. Miller, pastor of the South Friends church of Salem, in addressing Rotarians at their luncheon yesterday. "It is strange that a man will break one law then yell his head off when he sees another man do the same." Dr. Miller spoke on New Year's resolutions. He advocated loyalty to the city as an excellent resolution.

Special Table D'Hote Dinner 75c
The Elk dining room New Year's day from 12 noon till 3:30 p. m. d31

Wesley Fry Visits
Wesley L. Fry stopped in Salem Tuesday evening for a short visit at the O. W. Emmons home. Mr. Fry is a junior in the law college at the state university of Iowa. He came from San Francisco where he played in the East-West football game last Saturday.

Are Released
Lester Needham and Fred Miller, who were held for investigation, were released by local police.

Home From Hospital
Clifford Naden is again home having partially recovered from two major and one minor operation performed about two weeks ago. He is declared to be doing nicely.

Arrested for Speeding
Carl Nieske, of Salem, was arrested by Officer Edwards for speeding. He was cited to appear today for hearing.

Will Settle Here
O. W. Emmons of Manning, Iowa, is returning to Salem about the 15th of January, and is planning on permanently locating here in the law business. Mr. Emmons brought his family here in September and then returned to Iowa to close business deals. He is returning by way of El Paso, Texas, and is stopping in Los Angeles to try a divorce case.

Leaves for California
Robert E. Emmons, a student of Stanford University was a caller last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Emmons. He left Salem Wednesday for San Diego, California, where he has an outlook on a job.

Gulf Suit Ends
J. A. Wilson was granted a judgement of $125 in the justice court yesterday in his suit against R. G. Thomas of Jefferson for alleged misrepresentation in the sale of a calf. According to the complaint, Wilson bought three calves from Thomas, under the stipulation that they were of registered stock. Later, he says, he found that one of the calves was not registered. He paid $50 a head for the stock. In the judgement granted, $50 was said to be a refund on the purchase price and $75 for feeding and raising the calf.

Grand Jury Adjourns
The Marion county grand jury adjourned Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, although no report was made at that time. The report will be made this afternoon when Circuit Judge Percy R. Kelley will arrive for his term of court in department No. 2.

"Charleston" Easy for Her

When Bessie Love has a few free moments at the movie studio she gives Charleston lessons. Adolphe Menjou and Director Monta Bell are two of her pupils.

will also include the annual business meeting of the church. At Trinity church the Young People's society is in charge of the New Year's Eve watch party. A program has been arranged and refreshments will be served during the evening.

A special New Year's service will be held at St. Paul's parish. This is known as "Forty Hours of Adoration." The service will be held on New Year's day at 8 a. m. and continue until 7:30 in the evening. The services will be held on January 1, 2, and 3. Assisting the Rev. Joseph Shering, who has charge of the local parish, will be the Rev. Jerome, O. F. H. of Mount Angel, Father Francis Scheerling of Shaw and Father H. E. Kelley of Portland.

Baker's boy Full of joy! Loaf so showy, White and snowy.

Mistland Bakery

A Rudderless Ship

THE man who does not save is like a rudderless ship. His destination is uncertain; his future insecure. And luck may desert him. Heed the warning—SAVE.

State Savings & Loan Association
Chas. Wiper, General Manager
Hellig Theatre Lobby 189 N. High

IT'LL TICKLE THE WORLD!

TODAY and FRIDAY

CONSTANCE

ALMA

HER ADG

SISTER FROM PARIS

With RONALD COLMAN

OREGON

Our Weather Man

Cloudy; normal temperatures; light southeast winds. Max. 52; Min. 28; River 2.8, falling; Rainfall none; Atmosphere clear; Wind east.

1926 Calendar Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers. d22f

Pined on Liquor Charge
J. Wesley Taylor, arrested here recently on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and of possessing liquor, pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday and was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and to serve 60 days in jail. He intimates that lack of funds will force him to serve out his fine as well. This would confine him to jail for 160 days, as fines are worked off at the rate of $2 a day. This is the first 60-day jail sentence imposed for this charge.

Save Your Radiator
From freezing, at O. J. Wilson's garage, 388 North Commercial—prompt service. d-29f

Released to County Judge
Burdette Hadley has been turned over from the city jail to the county judge.

Brother Elks
If you don't dance you'll be sorry. New Year's eve. d31

Crazy Visit
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crary will leave this afternoon for Creswell where they plan to spend New Year's day with friends. They have been spending the Christmas holidays with their son, J. B. Crary, who is secretary of the boys' division of the Salem YMCA.

Exclusive Distribution
For W. W. Kimball pianos, A. B. Chase, Dayport & Tracy, 13th & Gerts; Moore's Music House, 409-415 Court. d20f

Birth Is Reported
Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sprout of 588 Knapp's Place, Salem, received on Dec. 29, according to report filed in the office of the city health officer Wednesday. The boy has been named Edward Cecil.

Marcell's Miracle
Mineral for your better health. For free interview write G. H. Gazeley, special representative, Box 339. j3

Eastman Brothers
Furnaces
Salem Office 168 S. High
Office hours: 11 A. TO 1 P. M.
Factory, Silverton, Ore.

Wood Wood TRACY'S FUEL YARD
167 D Street Telephone 2313

Pomeroy & Keene
Jewelers and Optometrists
Salem, Oregon

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER CO.
Direct Factory Branch
519 Court Street Phone 928
Typewriters Rebuilt, Sold, Repaired
Special rental rates to students

H. F. WOODY & SON
Furniture and Furnishings Dealer
See call for Used Furniture, Auto and Radio Sales
Office Phone 75 or Res. Phone 1645-V