

Capital Buildings and State Institutions Lend Prestige To Salem

These Stately Buildings, Carrying the Importance of the Legislative Seat of a Great Northwestern State, Add Their Beauty to the Attractiveness of the City Itself—Grouped in Expansive Squares, Always Maintained in Excellent Condition, Their Importance in the Building of the City of Tomorrow Cannot be Underestimated—Known as the "Cherry City," Salem is None the Less the "City of Roses," Which Bloom, Save For a Few Weeks in the Year, in Liberal Variety and Abundance, Upon Grounds of Institutional Buildings—Many Millions of Dollars Invested

Oregon State Capitol Building
Supreme Court Building

Administration Building State Home for Feeble Minded Salem

Cottages for Feeble Minded—Care of Dr. J.N. Smith, Supt. State Home for Feeble Minded

Oregon State Penitentiary

Oregon State Hospital at Salem

Dr. Bellinger Supt.

Administration Building

At Right State Training School for Boys

Z.M. Gilbert Supt. Training School

State Training School and State Hospital

Dr. R. Leo Steiner Supt. Oregon State Hospital

Grounds of the State Hospital