

Salem Society News

By AUDRED BUNCH Phone 198

Annual Guild Meeting

The January meeting of St. Paul's Episcopal Guild was held at the home of Mrs. N. C. Kafoury on North Fourth street yesterday afternoon and officers for the ensuing year were elected. The report of the treasurer showed one of the most active and interesting years the Guild has had.

The meetings are held at the home of the different members on the first Monday of each month, with tea served at the conclusion of the afternoon. The retiring officers of the Guild are Mrs. Rex Sanford, president; Mrs. William Niemeyer, vice president; Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, treasurer and Mrs. Robins, secretary.

The new officers elected for the season are: Mrs. William Niemeyer, president; Mrs. C. C. Page, vice president; Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, treasurer and Mrs. Robins, secretary.

Business and Professional Woman's Club

The members of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club are anticipating an interesting meeting this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Mrs. W. H. Burghard will speak following the dinner. Later in the evening a business meeting will be held.

Miss Stanfield Chooses Attendants

Washington, Jan. 5.—Miss Barbara Stanfield, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Robert Nelson Stanfield, whose wedding to Henry Dunn will take place Thursday, January 21, Monday announced that she will have as her attendants Miss Elizabeth Hamlin of New York, who will be maid of honor, while the bridesmaids will be Miss Elise Bristol of Portland, Miss Marian Dunn of Jacksonville, Fla., a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Anne Covington and Miss Beatrice McLean.

Mr. Dunn will have as his best man, his brother, Richard Dunn, of Jacksonville, and the ushers will be Thomas Hopkins, Jr., Francis Winslow, James Nolan, Garvin Brackenridge of New York and Karl Day of Florida. A reception will follow the ceremony at the Washington apartment of Senator and Mrs. Stanfield.

War Mothers Plan Sale

The Salem chapter of the American War Mothers made plans for a sale of delicious pies, cakes and home made candies which will take place on Saturday, January 16, at the meeting yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The matter of planting "memory trees" along the highways was also discussed at some length during the afternoon.

Next Wednesday, January 13, the members are asked to meet again for a special meeting arranged through the call of the president. Dues that are still unpaid will be payable at this time.

Invitations Issued for Reception

Invitations have been issued by the state board of control and the faculty of the school for the deaf for a reception next Monday evening, January 11, in the main building of the school, honoring Superintendent and Mrs. F. Lyman Steed. The hours will be from eight to ten o'clock.

The personnel of the state board of control through which the invitations are extended includes: Governor Walter M. Pierce, Secretary of State Sam A. Kozer, State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay, and secretary of the board, Col. Carl Abrams.

Vocation in Spokane

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Evans and daughter, Joan, have just returned from Spokane where they were guests during the Christmas holidays, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Calkins and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Fruit. At Hermiston they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lambert.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary

The members of Hal Hibbard Auxiliary will meet on Friday afternoon in the Armory. A 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon will be followed by an installation service, when officers for the New Year will be installed.

Social Evening at Fruitland

A community business and social meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the church at Fruitland. All are cordially invited to attend.

Yomarco Club

The members of the Yomarco club will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grant Day, 645 Chemeketa street, for the regular meeting.

Return to College

Miss Elizabeth Tuff and Miss Louise Pierson left on Saturday to re-enter the Oregon Agricultural college for the winter term.

Mrs. Eastman Is Honored

Mrs. Merle Eastman of Marysville, California, who will be remembered as Veva Morrison, was the inspiration for a delightful afternoon tea on Monday at the home of Mrs. Walter B. Minier who entertained in her honor. Holiday decorations were festive about the rooms. The guests of the day were all former friends of Mrs. Eastman. Refreshments were served at the tea hour, with Mrs. J. T. Cooper presiding at the urn. Mrs. L. Michelson also assisted the hostess.

The group for the afternoon included: Mrs. T. M. Hicks, Mrs. Warren Poble, Mrs. Hall Cane, Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. Charles Fuller, Mrs. H. W. Eigh, Mrs. L. Michelson, Mrs. J. T. Cooper, the honor guest, Mrs. Merle Eastman, and the hostess, Mrs. Walter B. Minier.

Hofers at Agate Beach

Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer and their house-guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer of San Francisco, left yesterday morning for Agate Beach where they will spend several days at the Hofer home, Madinore.

Royal Neighbors Sewing Society

Mrs. Anna Lewis will be hostess at her home, 2085 Maple avenue, for the members of the Royal Neighbors society for an all-day meeting today. A pot-luck dinner will be served.

New Year at Spaulding Home

Outstanding among all the affairs which welcomed the New Year, not yet a week old, in Salem was the community party last Thursday night when Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding were hosts. The house was strikingly lovely with decorations of white, green, and red, all achieved with Christmas foliage, attractive ornaments, and artificial snow and icicles.

The group participating in the evening of events, with a delicious dinner preceding, included: Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss L. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Max Page and Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding.

Christmas Cantata to Be Repeated

So many requests have been made for the repetition of the Christmas cantata, "The Holy Nativity" which was sung at the Central Congregational church on December 27, that Rev. H. C. Stover, the pastor of the church, has announced that the choir will repeat this sacred music on Sunday evening, January 10.

This same beautiful cantata,—"The Holy Nativity,"—was sung at the Portland Auditorium last Sunday by the choir of the Central Presbyterian church with a result that every number was encored.

Women's Relief Corps Installation

With Mrs. Helen Southwick as installing officer and Mrs. Norma Terwilliger as installing conductor assisted by Mrs. Louise Koon, chaplain, Emma Thompson, musician, Bessie Martin, Rose Voris, Hattie Kennen, and Gertrude Remington as color bearers.

The following officers of Sedgewick Woman's Relief Corps, No. 1 were installed at the regular meeting on Saturday, January 2: President, Clara Adams; senior vice president, Mary Ackerman, chaplain, Nettie Schram, conductor, Sarah Peterson, secretary, Florence Shipp; patriotic instructor, Louise King, press correspondent, Bertha Loveland; musician, Jessie Crossan; assistant conductor, Susanna Botts; color bearer No. 3, Frances Thompson; color bearer No. 4, Lulu Boring.

The following officers were absent and will be installed at the next meeting: Junior vice president, Jennie Martin; treasurer, Hattie B. Cameron; guard, Fannie Fisher, assistant guard, Mrs. Emma Simons, color bearer No. 1, Della Clearwater, and color bearer No. 2, Ada Simpson.

Delegates to the department convention to be held in Marshfield in June were named as follows: Delegate No. 1, Emma Thompson, No. 2, Susanna Botts, No. 3, Louise Shipp, No. 4, Mary Noyhart, No. 5, Mabel Lockwood, No. 6, Alta Schneider, No. 7, Louisa Koon, No. 8, Ina D. Koon, No. 9, Nettie Schram, No. 10, Lulu Boring, and No. 11, Jessie Crossan.

At the close of the installation services Mrs. Adams, the newly installed president, in well chosen words, presented Mrs. Southwick with a recognition pin, a gift from the new officers. Mrs. Southwick made a gracious response in acknowledgement of the gift.

Mrs. Mary Watson, retiring secretary, next presented Mrs. Jones the retiring president, a past president's badge in addition to the recognition pin, both of which were accepted as gifts from the Corps in an appreciative manner. Various committees made their annual reports which showed that each group had faithfully carried out the duties of the past year. The accepted reports were placed on file.

New Year's Luncheon

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elfstrom was the scene on New Year's day of an attractive three-course luncheon at 1 o'clock.

(Continued on page 7.)

AFTER THE STORM There Comes A Calm

And we find just a multitude of items that represent the last one of the stock, broken sets, odd pieces, etc.

So for those who didn't get something for Christmas that they really wanted we offer

Heavy Discounts

AT OUR

CLOSING OUT SALE

Everything must go and everything has been reduced including even Rogers Silverware, Elgin and Hamilton Watches and all other contract goods.

If you received money for Christmas now is the time to multiply its value for in many cases it is worth twice as much as ordinarily.

Pomeroy & Keene

State at Liberty

Next to the Spa

"LISTEN IN"

Free to Radio Fans

Dinner Concerts

6-7—KGW (491.5), Portland.

6-7—KGO (301.2), Oakland.

News

7:30—7:45—KGW (491.5), Portland. News items.

Special

7:20—KOAC (280.3), Corvallis. Musical selections; 7:30, "Color and Design in House Decoration." Margaret Morehouse; 7:45-8, "Mid-Winter Hints for the Sick." Katherine Heigh.

7:30—KWSO (348.3), Pullman, Wash. String trio, Margery Segessomana, pianist; Gladys Fraser, violinist; Raymond Howell; Allie Price, vocalist; "The Washington Lamb." Howard Hackedorf; "Light and Electricity—Waves." Dr. H. B. Briggs; book reviews, Allee Lindsay Webb; "Pyrotol, a Cheap but Effective Farm Explosive." B. N. Miller.

Stories

6:30-7:30—KHJ (405.2), Los Angeles. History story, Prof. Hertzog.

Entertainments

6:30-11—KFI (487), Los Angeles. 6:30, vest pocket concert; 7, detective stories; 7:20, varied program, Frank Berry, tenor; William MacDougall, Scotch comedian; Stark Sisters, harmony duetists; 8, program; 9, program, L. A. Examiner; 10, Patrick Marsh orchestra.

6:11:30—KHJ (405.2), Los Angeles. Leighton's orchestra; 6:30-7:30, history story, Prof. Hertzog; Dick Winslow, juvenile reporter; Camilla Johnson, Mickey McBa, screen juveniles; string trio; 8, Dr. Mars Baumgardt, scientific lecturer; 8:30-10:30, program; 10:30-11:30, Clark's dance orchestra.

6:40-11—KFO (428.3), San Francisco. 6:40-7, Lind orchestra; 7:20, Seliger orchestra; 8-9, Ernest Ingrid, director; 9-10, dance music; 10-11, Lind orchestra.

UNCLE BILLY

DOROTHY DARNIT

WANTED

City Property Salesman
Farm Property Salesman
Exchange Salesman

YOU MUST HAVE A CAR
Opportunity for Advancement
We Have 3000 Exchange Listings

OUR OWN OFFICES IN PORTLAND AND SALEM

Average salesmen develop into $500 a month men under our system

See Mr. Gaskill personally, Parker Realty company, 408-499 United States National Bank Bldg., Commercial at State. Telephone 2242, Salem, Oregon.