Taffeta and Sati

Salem Society News

By AUDRED BUNCE

Woman's Society of Bantist Church

o'clock the Woman's Society of were: worthy matron, Miss Leila for the First Baptist church will hold Johnson; worth patron, Rev. H. disc their regular program meeting in D. Chambers; associate matron, the church parlors. All ladies of Mrs. Mahel Minto; conductress, the congregation are urged to Miss Guesie Niles; associate con-

The missionary topic will be in charge of Mrs. T. A. Rafferty, treasurer; Mrs. Kathernie Berassisted by several of the ladies. musical numbers will include; Johnson; marshal, Mrs. Lana Mrs. Charles Davies, Mrs. J. M. Smith; Adah, Margery Minton; Ringo, Mrs. E. H. Shanks, and Beechler; color bearer, Albert C. Miss Mina Cille.

Music Teachers Mest. . erts were hosts on Tuesday even- M. P. Rasmussen. ng at their home on Summer street for the regular meeting of Carnation Club the Salem branch of the Oregon | The members of the Carnation State Music Teachers' association, club will be the guests today of Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby had Mrs. George Shultz at her home charge of the evening's interesting on Marion street. Mrs. Cordelia program on operas and oratories. Ehmen of Portland will be the Illustrative selections were heard day's honor guest. on the orthophonic Victrola. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. In the group were: Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Allie Chandler, Mrs. Walter Deuton, Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Miss Lenn Dotson, Miss Rima Weller, Miss Murgaret Pisher, Miss Elizabeth Levy, Miss Henry Lee, and the hosts, Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts,

Miss Johnson Is Matron of Chadwick Chapter

Miss Lelia Johnson was formal ly installed matron of Chadwick chapter. Order of the Eastern Star, at a memorably impressive installation service on Tuesday evening in the chapter rooms of the Masonic Temple. Mrs. W. P. Babcock was the installing officer. of the evening, with her three assistants including Mrs. Belle Ulles Brown, musician, Mrs. Cordelia Cupper, officiating chaplain, and Mrs. Charles Pratt, mar-

Mrs. Frank Crawford and Mrs. Charles McCarter were in charge of the lovely deporations which filled the halls. The tribute bouquets were distributed as the officers were led to their stations. four attractive maids of the of the floral tributes were Mrs. Aubrey Johnson, Miss Constance Kantner, Miss Margaret Hauser and Miss Amelia Babcock.

One of the most impressive de tails of the evening was the preentation to Mrs. Babcock, the out-going matron, with the past matron's lewel, and the giving of the formal tribute by Miss Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mrs. Bernice Blodgett, and

Special music of the evening was given by Miss Mabel Kuland-

Refreshments followed the installation with those in charge in the banquet hall being Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Dayld Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs.

THE Happiest Resolve you can make is to be rid once

James Imlah, and Miss Grace

Babcock. On Friday afternoon at 2:30 Those installed at the service ductress, Mrs. Anna F. Kantner; secretary, Mrs. Ida M. Babcock; nardi; musician, Miss Edna Mc-Those assisting with special Elhanny: chaplain, Mrs. Mary E. Ruth, Harriet Mercen; Esther, Winifred Jones: Martha, Lillian King; Electa, Dora Wallace; Professor and Mrs. T. S. Rob- warder, Nellie Taylor; sentinel,

Attractive Bridge Party At Krause Home

Mrs. Al Krause was hostess on Tuesday afternoon for the pleasure of a group of friends whom she entertained at bridge. The rooms of Krause home on Fairmount Hill were lovely with decorations of forns and earnations. Frances Virginie Melton, Mrs. On the table a basket of for-get-Powers Miss Lens Waters, Mrs. me-nots and forn was used with pleasing effect.

Mrs. Louis Lunsford won the high bridge score of the afternoon and also assisted the hostess in serving the delicious refreshments.

The group for the afternoon included: Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. Chester Cox. Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr. Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. John Brophy, Mrs. P. M. Gregory, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, and the hostess, Mrs. Al Krause.

Professor Zane's Class Many in Salem are anticipating the opening at 7:15 o'clock this evening of Professor N. B. Zane's second University of Oregon extension course under the auspices of the Salem Arts' League. Two classes of work will be taken up, o'clock. one in block printing and the interested may register by calling Dr. Mary C. Rowland, president-

BOCIAL CALENDAR Prof. N. B. Zane's class. City

library. Block printing. Home Piety Hill club. Mrs. Reuben P. Hoise and Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, hostesses. Boise home, 619 Court

mportant discussion. WCTU prayer meeting.

2:30 o'clock. Rapheterian club. Mrs. Carle Abrams, 1465 Chemeketa street, S. Peisal, Mrs. N. W. Cauthorn,

Kensington club. Mrs. I. L. Doughton, 1465 State street,

Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood. Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, 1197 South High street, hostess. Carnation club. Mrs. George

Schuftz, hosters. Woman's Missionary society, First Presbyterian church. Church parlers, 2:30 o'clock. Missionary meeting of Congregational church with Mrs. A. N. Moores, 355 Chemeketa, Friday, 2:30 o'clock. Hal Hibbard Auxiliary. Armory o'clock covered dish luncheon. Yomarco club, Mrs. Grant Day, 645 Chemeketa street, hostess. Mies Cornelia Marvin's class in current thought. State Hbrary. 7:30 o'elock.

Woman's society of the First Baptist church. Church parlors. 2:30 o'eloek:

Salem Woman's club. Club souse, 2:30 o'clock.

Christmas cautata, "The Holy Nativity." Central Congregation al church. Evening service.

Receptoin at State School for the Deaf, honoring Superintendent and Mrs. F. Lyman Steed, 8

Lincoln National Life Insurance Company

Juvenile or Educational Trust Fund Policy-they make their college training sure, at a nominal cost

VICTOR SCHNEIDER, Special Agent

Famous Prima Donna Appears In New Role

Pamed for the rare quality of her lovely voice, Miss Dorothy Francis, prima donna of "Love Song" in which she appeared as the Empress Eugenie, is equally famous as a skillful culinary actist. As a singer it is necessary for her to exercise considerable discretion in her choice of food and to avoid dishes that are too rich or heavy. And as an ama-teur chef her preference is for light delicate dishes that are very easily prepared. She is particularly fond of salads in which gelatin is a princi-pal ingredient, for by experience she has learned that not only are they most appetizing to look at but that by the introduction of even a small amount of gelatin into any food its nutritive value is increased and it is more easily

One of the salads, often the important dish at her funcheon, is made fro mthe following recipe: 'Cheese Salad

1 tablespoon granulated gelatin we cup cold water 2 cream cheeses 14 cup American cheese cut in small-pieces 1 cup heavy cream beaten stiff teaspoon salt a teaspoon paprika minutes and dissolve over hot garnish with mayonnaise.

of the Salem Arts' League, or by of the Kappa Gamma Rho fratern- interested the guests in a package attending the opening meeting of lity, educational room of the city

Chapter G of PEO

tertained this afternoon as the good order, except for the marks guests of Mrs. A. T. Woolpert of age, is the interesting keepat her home, 1197 South High sake which has been given to Mrs. Boise home on Court street for street. Mrs. W. M. Hughes will J. T. Hart, 1460 Market street. the regular meeting of the Piety have charge of the program sub. The Bible was brought to the Hill club. ject, "Ladies of the White United States from Germany.

Needlecraft Club The members of the Needle-hostess, Mrs. L. Bechtel. Lunch- Annual.

with Mrs. George Martin the hos-

First Congregational Missionary Meeting Mrs. A. N. Moores, assisted by a group of women of the church, will entertain members of the First Congregational church missionary society at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Moores home, 855 Chemeketa street. Mrs. Sons of Veterans' auxiliary. C. A Park has been asked to take Armory, 1:30 o'clock. Drill and charge of the program for the day. Special musical numbers Hall, have been arranged.

Moores are Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. H. Mrs. Elgin, Mrs. T. A. Landaker and Mrs. Trover.

Miss Owen Announces

Engagement interesting news in Willamette university circles was received in Salem Tuesday night when Miss Dorothy Owen of Portland announced her engagement to Donald Ryan. Both Miss Owen and Mr. Ryan are graduates of Willamette university, Miss Owen with the class of '25 and Mr. Ryan with the class of 24. Miss Owen is a member of the Bera Chi so-rority and enjoyed much popularity on the campus. Mr. Ryan, also a popular student, is a member smooth, add American cheese, Ruth Fargo read cards of whipped cream and sonked gela-greeting from absent members tin. Season with salt and paprika and told of a leter received ask-Soak gelatin in cold water five chill. Serve on lettuce leaves and life.

the classes this evening in the News of the engagement was class. Outside the realm of the Ancient Bible Is Keepsake The members of Chapter G of | An old Bible of German print Piety Hill Club the P. E. O. sisterhood will be en- which is $25 years old and in raft club were delightfully enter- Writers' section of the Salem Arts' League, will meet at 7:30 tained on Tuesday afternoon at Arts' League was held on Tuesday o'clock tomorrow evening at the the home of Mrs. L. Bechtel. The evening at the home of Dr., and state library. Miss Marvin has visitors of the day included Mrs. Mrs. F. G. Franklin with Miss A. I. Frantz, Mrs. C. J. Anderson, Maude Covington the assisting book "Tolerance" in the class. and Flora Evans. The members hostess. The program opened in the group were Mrs. L. C. with a descriptive poem by Mrs. Brotherton, Mrs. J. W. La Bare. Ora F. McIntyre, entitled "The Display at Miss Swart's Shop Mrs. E. E. Gilliam, Mrs. A. J. Trail's End City." the lyric having Those who have passed by Miss Basey, Mrs. F. G. Starns, and the appeared in the Seaside Union of the meeting of the Northwest Price, is the author.

JAMES J.

Will always be present when after all the interests of all the people of Oregon just as loyally as he did when State Senator, IJ S. Attorney in Alaska and a soldier in France. Represents no special interests.-Paid Adv.

Planning Your Future

Needs

This is the dawn of a New Year and is the time to lay plans for the fulfillment of your larger future re-

With added and enlarged facilities, the United States National cordially invites you to link up your success with this institution, believing that our cooperation will play a large part in your making 1926 a year of Tuesday.

of which her sister, Mande A statue, which he is writing.

water. Work cream cheese until Wars."

then turn into individual molds ing if the characters from one of first dipped in cold water and her stories were taken from real

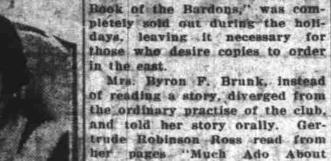

Writers' Club at Franklin Home

will be on Tuesday, January 19th, Paine. Mrs. Franklin, the hos-Poetry society in Portland and also read a letter and quatrain from Edwin Markham, Oregon's poet laurente. In addition she displayed a copy of the book, "The Brotherhood in Browning."

Professor Morton E. Peck read a vivid fragment from a new poem based on the Circuit Rider Miss Maude Covington and Mrs.

J. C. Nelson discussed from two authoritative viewpoints the pub-

Candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator at the May 21, 1926, Pri-

Nothing" from the Lariat, while Miss Edna Garfield contributed an original poem, "Alaska Luck." Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith chose as her contribution a pleasing review of J. M. Barrie's "Margaret Ogilvey." Charles J. Lisie read his editorial from Colliers, "Splendid Leavings," following it with a very short story. "The Pardoner." "Things" was the title which Mrs. J. C. Nelson gave her offering.

necial attention was called to the fact that the available supply of

Professor Peck's new Book, "The lication and sale of books. Es- Smart Freck of Blocked

Dr. F. G. Franklin delighted the group by discovering for them the dedicatory poem, "To Alice, Three Years Old," in John G. Niehardt's new book, "Song of Indian

Dr. Mary C. Rowland was a special guest of the evening, and of sketches from Profèssor Zane's made known at both houses on literary, but interesting nevertheless, was the carved ministure ship exhibited by Elmer Ross.

Mrs. Reuben P. Boise and Mrs. Frank W. Spencer will be joint hostesses this afternoon at the Class in Current Thought Miss Cornelia Marvin's class in current thought, one of the most An interesting meeting of the interesting sections of the Salem been using the extremely popular

Interesting Art Work on

Those who have passed by Miss Renska-Swart's Specialty Shop at play in the background of the 453 Court street, especially at window. con was served at four-thirty Dr. James Lisle, a guest of the night, have expressed considerable evening, read a paper concerning appreciation over a panel on dis-

Kodak Keeps the Story

Right around home, almost any day, there are chances for Kodak pictures you don't want to miss - one is illustrated

"Easy and entertaining" decribes picture-making the Kodak vay as we're here to shew you. Let us fix you up with an outfit

Kodaks $5 up Brownies $2 up

United States

National Bank Salem, Oregon

Mayer feature player, wears in Sally, Irene and Mary."

The dress, created for her by Andri Ani, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer fashion creator, is of navy blue blocked taffeta and satin. There s an under dress of cloth of gold and the skirt is luxuriously trimmed with black lynx. The hat, fashioned of the same material as the frock, is tri-colored and untrimmed.

The center of the panel is of of Miss Swart's own, and best-known, original poems, done in and-lettering on a blue-oil background. On either side of the poem, and in the same panel, two Christmas scenes have been fixed in the decorative frame. Both are from famous paintings of W. L. Taylor, the one on the left entitled "A Little Town of Bethlehem," illustrating Phillips' immortal Christmas poem, and the one on the right being "When I Consider Thy Heavens." One can readfly see the appropriateness in this setting of Miss Swart's poem, which is entitled "Stars." The frame, an interest-even to the radiant stars and the shepherd motif which have been skillfully modeled and will be painted later. The oil work in the panel was done by Miss Swart's sister, Mrs. W. B. Winslow, while her brother, H. S. Swart, did the printing. Miss Swart's poem has been interestingly compared to one of Margaret Widdemer's of practically the same title which was not published until the year after the appearance of Miss Swart's, the sides of the continent. Corvallis-Jesse Hanson's hen No. 43 broke American record and tied world record, by laying 337 eggs in one year.

Lebanon has largest agricultural department of any Oregon high school.

Falls City-State will open lime quarry on Muck property near

OUR PLUMBINGS AS SOLID AS OLD MOTHER EARTH WE CHARGE YOU EXACTLY WORTH!

NELSON BROS

decorated by Miss Swart herself, 855 Chemeketa

The gently, healing Poslam is se CONCENTRATED that it stops itching instantly. It penetrate: every tiny pore, and quickly drives away eczema and other torturing eruptions when other remedies are worse than useless. Costs only 50c-at all drug ists.

To Retain Your Youthful Beauty We recommend the daily use of

NERO FIDDLED WHILE ROME BURNED

BECKE & HENDRICKS

Heilig Theater Lobby, 189 North Righ

Insurance of All Kinds. Tel. 161

CHANCE - BE PREPARED THE TIME TO INSURE IS BEFORE SOMETHING HAPPENS -TOMORROW MAY BE TOO LATE

TAKE OUR NOVISE DONT

PROPERTY, TAKE NO

FIDDLE - INSURE YOUR

YOUR LAST CHANCE

TO SECURE COPIES OF THE

NEW YEAR'S EDITION OF The Oregon Statesman

This splendid edition is a chronicle of progress of the Salem district which you will be proud to send to your friends elsewhere.

HURRY! HURRY! HURRY!

While They Last Ten cents a copy, postage prepaid, to any point in the United States. Fifteen cents a copy outside the Un States.

Circulation Department, Oregon Statesman,

Salem, Oregon Gentlemen: Enclosed find $ ......to defray cost of mailing copies of New Years edition of The Oregon Statesman to the following addresses:

NAME	STREET	CITY	STATE
and the second of the second of the
			A PARTY OF THE PAR
			爱特别的图图