

Lincoln Hi Squad Out to Trim Salem, Conqueror of Franklin Foes

GAME TO START AT 7:30 O'CLOCK

Bob Kitzchen, Local Manager, Books Strong Schedule for Players

Salem high hoopers are resting now, awaiting their clash this evening with Lincoln high school of Portland. The game is to be played on the Salem high school floor, and is to start promptly at 7:30. There will be a fast preliminary starting at 6:30 between the Quinby athletic club and Ashby's Sousters.

Lincoln high is coming to Salem for the purpose of returning to Portland with the long end of the score. Salem recently defeated Franklin high of Portland. Lincoln enjoys the ephemeral reputation of having the best team this season in the Portland league. In order to merit this, she is planning to take into camp the Franklin victors.

Coach Hollis Huntington reports that his boys are keyed up for the game this evening. In spite of Lincoln's formidable reputation, Salem is doped by local fans to win tonight.

Salem has taken on a strong schedule for the coming season. Teams of the caliber of Eugene, Dallas, and Corvallis will have to be given the small end of the scores, if Salem is to win championship of this section, and represent the Willamette valley in the state tournament to be played here some time in March.

Following is the schedule as arranged by Bob Kitzchen, manager.

MAURUS-JONES GO BOOKED AT ALBANY

California Grappler to Take on Western Welterweight Champion

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 7.—Johnny Maurus of Oakland, Cal., who though defeated in each instance gave Robin Reed four of the best matches the Corvallis man has ever had, will be given a chance at the western welterweight championship belt at Albany next Friday night when he meets Henry Jones of Provo, Utah, who retained the belt from Reed last Friday night.

Maurus has also been defeated by Jones, but met him at the high altitude of Jones' home town. Here the two will meet on an equal footing and Maurus is conceded to have a good chance against his former conqueror. The Oakland man has left the lightweight division and has been putting on weight. As a result, he claims, he is far stronger now than when he wrestled in the north before.

Should Maurus defeat Jones, Reed would seek to take the title belt from Maurus.

Jones Meets Lampert at Salem Elks Temple.

Henry Jones, holder of the western welterweight title, met George Lampert at Elks temple last night in a 30 minute match. There were no falls. Jones meets Maurus in Albany tonight.

ALBANY FIVE OUT FOR VICTORY HERE

Strong Aggregation Sends Warning; Rathbun Expects Hard Game

Albany college is sending its basket ball army to Salem Saturday night with the avowed purpose of taking the Willamette quintet into camp. This is the report reaching the Willamette alumni now living in Albany.

"This college has a real college team," is the opinion written to the athletic council by one of the alumni. "They are coming after your scalp. They have the weapons."

A report coming directly from Albany college states that several "stars" have returned for the present season, and in addition, some new men have come in with the freshman class. According to this report, Toehill, ex-guard on the southwestern Washington all-star high school team, is working out with the Albany aggregation. Dale Perry and Harold Fiske, luminaries of last season are also back with the team.

In the meantime, the Bearcats are working out regularly. Scrimmage was held last night with the rook team. The Bearcats, according to students who have been watching practice, appear to have hit their stride.

While Willamette is doped to win in Saturday night's contest, which begins on the dot at 8 o'clock, Coach Rathbun reports no chances will be taken that might allow the Albany boys to "slip it over."

"We are training for this game as strenuously as we will for our conference contests," declared Coach Rathbun. "And we expect to meet with as strong opposition as we will get in some of our conference games."

"If they are coming after our scalps, we might be forced to draft the services of the school's librarian. They can't take his scalp. For a last resort, we might solicit the aid of Dean Clark, as general clean-up man."

As for Linfield, whom the Bearcats meet next Tuesday evening in the first conference game this season for either team, Willamette is not looking for an easy task.

PARRISH TACKLES STAYTON TONIGHT

Local Schedule for Season Shows Ambitious List, Team Going Well

Parrish junior high school team will play the Stayton high school hoopers this evening. The game will be played on the Parrish gymnasium floor.

The boys from Stayton are said to have it over the locals in weight and in height. The Parrish men, however, are pointing for the game. It is expected that the score will be close.

Siegmund, Kelly and Andressen are counted upon to bring in the bulk of the score for the Parrish team. The game will start sharply at 7:30 o'clock.

This game is but the fourth of a full season for the Parrish boys. Altogether, they will play 21 games this season. Three, with Turner, Perrydale and Dayton, have already been played.

Following is the remainder of the schedule:

This evening, Parrish vs. Stayton at Parrish.

January 13, Parrish vs. Scio at Scio.

January 15, Parrish vs. T. C. C. at Parrish.

January 16, Parrish vs. Dallas at Parrish.

January 22, Parrish vs. Stayton at Stayton.

January 27, Parrish vs. T. C. C. at Portland.

January 29, Parrish vs. Silverton at Silverton.

January 30, Parrish vs. Toledo at Toledo.

February 2, Parrish vs. Monmouth at Monmouth.

TO PICK TRI-CITY TEAM ON SUNDAY

Salem Rod and Gun Club Members Eligible for Inter-City Contest

Every member of the Salem Rod and Gun club is eligible for the try-out shoot, to be staged Sunday morning when first elimination will be made in an attempt to name the best ten shots for the team to represent Salem in the tri-city shoot to take place soon.

No date has been definitely set as yet for the three-city competition, local authorities having offered to meet the convenience of Eugene and Corvallis.

If time allows for the naming of the final team, a second tryout may be staged following Sunday. This Sunday's elimination will start at 9:30 o'clock. Ranking of shooters will rest upon the number of birds smashed out of a possible 100.
