Tales of his adventures, his courage, his humor, his keen intelligence, collected by Major George V. Benson, "The Deputy from Faval County." How with subtle wit and logic he brings swift and sure justice to offenders.

STAGE HOLD-UP

Everything had been quiet around Bisbee for several weeks. The regular term of superior court was soon to open at Tombstone, the county seat, 26 miles away, and the approach of trial time usually acted as a sobering influence on those tempted to warp the law a little, in the adjacent mining camps.

Two days before court was to open, a tip came, late in the afternoon, that an attempt would be made early the next morning to hold up the stage line at Danger Point, on Mule mountains, just a few yards from Continental Divide.

SALEM BOY GETS ROOK CAGE BERTH
 Wesley Ellis, Last Year's All State Forward, Named on Frosh Team

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 7. — The freshman basketball squad has been strengthened by Wesley Ellis of Salem, who was all-state forward last year. Forty-five men have turned out for practice each night, and the team is rapidly being rounded into shape for coming contests.

The first game of a strong schedule will be played Saturday night against the Oregon state normal school. A preliminary game being made for four games against the University of Oregon frosh instead of two, as has been the custom in previous years.

WEBFOOTERS DEFEAT PRATUM, 31 TO 11
 Salem Champs in Age Limit Ride Evenly Over Opponents in Contest

Pratum bowed to defeat at the hands of the Webfooters Thursday night, the score being 31-11. The Webfooters are Salem city champions of teams in the 19-year age limit class.

Pratum players were taller and heavier, but lacked team work. They also took long shots, seldom working the ball up under the basket for close ins.

What they lacked in weight and height, the Webfooters made up in team work and short passing under their basket. They also excelled in making quick break-aways. Five-men defense was featured by the Webfooters.

Whenever Pratum got the ball the Webfooters made a bee-line for their own territory, and so covered the ground that the visitors were unable to make headway.

At no time were the Webfooters in danger of losing the contest. Starting out with a volley of three baskets in the first few minutes of play, they continued to pour in shots through the hoop with regularity. Numerous fouls were called on the Webfooters, and it was through these that the Pratum team bagged most of its points.

Lineup for the game follows:
 Webfooters — Pratum
 Miller — RF — Girard
 Simpson — LF — Carpenter
 De Harport — C — De Vries
 Schaeffer — RG — Silke
 Keeney — LG — Smith
 Referee: Bill East; umpire, Suring; timekeeper, Miller.

DEATHS OF SEVENTEEN PERSONS INVESTIGATED

WHOLESALE PLOT TO DESTROY FAMILY INDICATED

Fortune of Two Million Dollars Said Stake; Grand Jury Opens Probe

GUTHRIE, Okla., Jan. 7. — (By Associated Press.) — A United States grand jury, after two delays, today opened its inquiry into the deaths of 17 persons in the Osage country.

The first witnesses were those who found the body of Anna Brown, rich Osage woman, whose death early in 1922, is the first over which the shadow of mystery has settled. They were followed by the physicians who conducted an autopsy and the undertaker who prepared the body for burial.

There was every indication that the jury was starting at the beginning of the strange tale of an alleged conspiracy aimed at the destruction of an entire Osage family with a fortune estimated at $2,000,000 as the stake.

The only expression of the day came from Roy Lewis, United States district attorney, who said that "unexpected developments" had increased the hope of federal authorities for a successful termination of the last phase of the long investigation until today carried out through the secret channels of government agencies.

It was noted, however, that Ernest Burkhardt, charged with murder in connection with one of the deaths under investigation, had been taken to Mr. Lewis' office not long before. Mr. Lewis

O'Brien Boy Thin and Pale

In a Little Over Two Months Gained Eleven Pounds

As a body builder, an appetite creator, and to make weak, skinny boys and girls sturdy, strong and full of energy there is nothing like Cod Liver Oil — any physician will tell you that.

But it's vile, horrible stuff to take, and is apt to upset any stomach, so now doctors are prescribing, and wise parents are buying, McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets — sugar coated, and as easy to take as candy.

The son of George G. O'Brien of Mahwah, N. J., was thin and pale and did not get enough nourishment from his food. In a little over two months, he gained eleven and one-half pounds, and feels and looks one hundred per cent better.

Mothers, if any of your children are weak, thin or puny, give them these tablets, as directed for 30 days, and watch them gain flesh and health from day to day — they seldom fail — but if the unusual should happen, and you are not supremely satisfied with results — your druggist is authorized to return your money.

Be sure — always — to get the original and genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets — 60 tablets 60 cents at J. C. Perry, Central Pharmacy, D. J. Fry, or any druggist in America. Thousands of boxes sold daily. — Adv.

Vaudeville Today

Five excellent acts of Association vaudeville will be presented by the Heilig theatre management today. In addition to the vaudeville, a moving picture program will also be offered.

would not say whether he had talked with Burkhardt.

An explanation of the delay yesterday in starting the inquiry was seen today in the arrival of Oliver Pagan, an indictment attorney for the department of justice, and O. H. Loring, special assistant attorney general in charge of prosecution, both from Washington.

BRIDGE IS PLANNED

SEATTLE, Jan. 7. — (AP.) — The board of King county commissioners was today considering plans for a two mile pontoon toll bridge across Lake Washington from Seattle to Kirkland. Plans for the bridge which would cost about one million dollars, were broached by a group of Seattle and King county capitalists.

TRIANGLE Service Stores
 FOOD IS NOT A DETAIL
 It is a thing of prime importance. Your good health—good disposition—and the chance to live your allotted time depend largely upon your Food. Some people will have good Food no matter what the cost. Others will pay willingly for anything excepting Food. There is usually so little difference between the cost of absolutely good Food and that on which you take a chance, that it isn't worth considering. These stores specialize on good food and what is equally interesting—they also specialize on prices that are as attractive to the shopper with a limited income as to the one to whom price is a secondary consideration. These stores are at your very threshold—as near as the receiver on your telephone—why not utilize their many advantages.
