New Deaf School Officials Honored at Formal Reception

More than five hundred invitations were issued for the outstandingly successful reception which took place last night at the State School for the Deaf, honorarium Superintendent and Mrs. F. Lyman Steed, recent arrivals in Oregon from Pennsylvania. Reception hours were from eight to ten o'clock.

The affair was sponsored under the joint auspices of the State Board of Control and the Faculty of the School for the Deaf.

Introducing to the receiving line was Mr. H. K. Armstrong. In the line were the officials of the State Board of Control and their wives and the honor guests, as follows: Governor Walter M. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Ozer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Col. and Mrs. Carl Abrams, and Superintendent and Mrs. F. Lyman Steed.

Many delightful musical numbers were contributed during the evening by students of the Sacred Heart Academy. Various numbers were given by Miss Nancy Thibault, Miss Maria Boye, Miss Mary Jean Porter, Miss Thelma Porter, Miss Lorraine Lebold, Miss Margaret Miller, Thompson and Miss Agnes Molsan. Vocal numbers by Leonard Chadwick and orchestra selections contributed still further to the pleasure of the occasion. The music was in charge of Miss Esther Morris.

Miss Bertha Thomas and Mr. Carpenter were in general charge of the event which was attended by throngs of leading business men and their wives, state officials and the city's most prominent people.

Out-of-town guests in attendance during the evening were Superintendent and Mrs. Lloyd and Miss Helen Northrup of the Washington State School for the Deaf at Vancouver.

In charge of the receiving last night were Mr. and Mrs. Werner, Mr. Carpenter, Mrs. William Entress, and Miss Moffet Bell.

The main building was beautifully decorated for the occasion, palms, great masses of early pussy willows, and red lighted candles being used in the hallways and receiving rooms.

Refreshments were served from an attractively appointed table centered with a lovely basket of narcissi, pink carnations, and maidenhair fern, with pink tulle bow on the handle of the basket. Delft blue candles burned in Dutch silver holders at each corner of the table.

Presiding at the urns were: Miss Leola Carver, Mrs. A. I. Suter, Mrs. Sylvia Smith, and Mrs. E. F. Smith. A group of teachers from the school assisted in the serving. In the group were: Miss Ada Rankin, Miss Annette Dinamore, Miss Gladys Adams, Miss Dorothy Smart, and Miss Martha Raney.

William Lindstrom and Robert Carpenter, in clever costumes, served as pages throughout the evening.

IRENE RICH

Over a silver cloth foundation, black Chantilly lace embroidered in silver creates a rich gown of bizarre line. The black chiffon scarf on the left arm gives a subtle touch to this costume which Irene Rich wears in "Lady Windomere's Fan."

Long strands of pearls combined with lustrous black velvet form the princess gowns that Miss Rich wears in "Lady Windomere's Fan." Shorter pendants of pearls form a deep border around the hem, while the sleeves are entirely fashioned of pearls.

Dull gold metallic cloth draped in long, flowing lines is the theme of this unusual evening gown that Irene Rich wears in "Lady Windomere's Fan." A long train of black chiffon velvet also forms a jabot in the front to reach the girdle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson were hosts for the event.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Carl Nelson, and the hostess, Mrs. Orris Fry.
