Troops tonight were guarding the doors of the town's undertaking parlor, questioning all those who sought to enter. A small group stood in front of the estab lishment waiting to see if the body of a friend or relative was brought in

The date on which the judiciary committee will reconsider the nomination will depend upon the convenience of McCamant in coming here from Oregon. Johnson will renew his opposition before the committee and will have the support of a number of committee members, including Senators Norris, republican, Nebraska and Reed, democrat, Missouri, who argued against confirmation in executive session last night.

McCamant, who nominated Calvin Coolidge for vice president in Chicago in 1920, and party leaders had pledged to put through the name of Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, will face charges when he appears in Washington. The principal charge is that he violated his supporting Major General Wood for the presidential nomination instead of Johnson who was out on the Oregon president prefer-

Another issue connected into the fight is the connection of Mc-Camant as stockholder and counsel for the Spruce Corporation, which took over the assets of the United States Spruce corporation, a federal war time concern. It is charged that under contract of sale the title rested with the federal corporation until full purchase price was paid and that consequently the private corporation was thus relieved of local taxes in
