Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Spends Attractive Silver Tea

More than 50 prominent members and friends of St. Paul's Episcopal church called yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. U. S. Shipley, on East Washington street, for the outstandingly attractive silver tea sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

Little Miss Eleanor Perry greeted the guests at the door, with Mrs. Shipley receiving. The rooms were lavishly with the early spring flowers, narcissi, jonquills and pussy willows. On the tea table a bowl of jonquills and narcissi made the centerpiece. Yellow candles were used in silver holders.

Mrs. H. D. Chambers was in charge of the tea table during the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. N. C. Kalfoury and Miss Sarah Lansing.

Mrs. Baumgartner and Mrs. Kalfoury were hostesses with Mrs. Shipley during the afternoon.

Annual Church Election

The attendance of Tuesday evening at the annual business meeting of the First Congregational church was extraordinarily large and many gratifying reports were heard. The chief business of the evening was the election of officers. John Orr, Dr. Harold Brown and R. Cooke Patton—Mr. Patton being re-elected—will serve as trustees. Those who already hold office as trustees of the church are A. N. Moore, H. W. Bross, F. W. Stensloff and Frank Neer.

The deacons of the church, the first three being newly elected, are now as follows: R. N. Hoover, Simeon Phillips, Elmer Reitz, T. S. MacKenzie, Mark McCallister, John Bayne and Benjamin Morris. The church deaconesses are: Mrs. H. L. Clark, Mrs. R. N. Hoover, Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., and Miss Luella King.

The following music committee will serve: Albert H. Gille, Miss Julia K. Webster and Mrs. John J. Roberts. During the evening C. E. Albin was elected to succeed E. M. Hoffnall, who has filled the office in a successful manner for the past 11 years. F. W. Hazard succeeded himself as church treasurer. Richard Slater will serve the church as financial secretary, while Miss Oda will be treasurer of benevolence. W. I. Staley will fill the office of church and/or, while the superintendent of the Sunday school will be Mark McCallister, with T. S. McKenzie as assistant superintendent. Frank Neer will act as chairman of the committee on men's work. John Bayne was elected as superintendent of ushers.

Gratifying reports were given
