Attractive Banquet at Leslie Church

A unique meeting was held on Wednesday night in the Leslie M. B. church when the official board were the guests at a banquet given by members of the high school girls and high school boys' Sunday school class. The young people "did themselves proud" as entertainers and providers.

The teacher of the high school boys' class is Clyde French, who acted as toastmaster and chairman of the meeting. The teacher of the high school girls' class is Mrs. M. C. Leavenworth.

In the opening remarks, Mr. French stated that very probably a change in the personnel of the official board would be forthcoming soon, and he took that opportunity to introduce the members of the coming official board—the boys and girls.

The address of welcome was given by Maxine Ulrich. Addresses of an impromptu nature were given in a very creditable manner by the various members of the two classes.

The banquet table was loaded and sponsored by the two classes, with good things to eat, provided. The personnel of the classes includes young folks that are active in school and social circles of their age. The members of the boys' class are: Teacher, Clyde French; members, Ronald Hubert, Wilbur Burton, William Linfoot, Frank Graves, Gould Mosehouse, Henry Hart, Alfred French, Virgil Morehouse, Harold Tomlinson, Paul Boyce, Curtis French, Everett Wheelon and Donald Baker.

Members of the girls' class are Teacher, Mrs. H. C. Leavenworth; members, Helen Hertzog, Margaret Morehouse, Henrietta Bishop, Pauline Hart, Ellen Jean Moody, Maxine Ulrich, Ethel Cotton, Alice Linfoot, Ellen Forster, and Loretta Mathis.

Dinner Dance at Vancouver Barracks

The Oregonian gave yesterday's society lead to the announcement of the large dinner dance which took place at the Vancouver Barracks in Portland last night when officers of the Seventh Infantry were hosts. The affair, a large dinner dance at the post gymnasium, commemorated the 125th anniversary of the founding of the regiment.

A number of Salem folk were included in the invitations.

Mrs. L. M. Fraer of Marshfield is visiting her mother Mrs. A. B. Rudelson.

Neves Club

The members of the Neves bridge club, with Mrs. Wilbur Daily a special guest, were entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Armstrong with an attractive bridge tea. Carnations and pussy willows were used charmingly in the decorating.

Mrs. Lawrence Imlah won the high score of the afternoon. At the next meeting of the club, Mrs. Edwin Armstrong will be the hostess.

Club members in the group were: Mrs. E. C. Purvine, Mrs. Edwin Armstrong, Mrs. William Gossey, Mrs. Lawrence Imlah, Mrs. Mrs. Otto Hoppe, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, and the hostess, Mrs. Carl Armstrong.

Guest in Woodburn

Mrs. Chester M. Cox was the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Cowles, in Woodburn on Tuesday. Mrs. Cox assisted at an attractive affair honoring the Woodburn Episcopal guild.

Attractive Juvenile Party

One of the most attractive juvenile parties of recent weeks took place on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Woody when their little daughter, Nona Belle, celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary between 3 and 6 o'clock.

Nona Belle's honored guest was Mrs. Mary Fox, who graced the party with her presence. Mrs. Fox has passed her seventy-ninth birthday.

Mrs. Woody, the hostess, was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Evelyn Travers, Mrs. Roy Woodill, Mrs. E. E. Wiggins, and Miss Katherine Schaefer.

Twenty guests celebrated the day with little Miss Woody. Games and contests were particularly enjoyed. Donald and Clayton Williams, Rosalie Nushaum, and Warren Coward being successful in winning prizes. The birthday cake carried out a color scheme of red and white.

In the group for the anniversary party were:

Nona-Belle Woody, Mrs. Fox, Robert and Charlotte McKee, Gladys Van Eyden, Rosemarie McGill, Theodore Shafer, Ruthie Hines, Donald and Clayton Wiggins, Sarah Louise Baker, Betty Duchein, Virginia Vick, Jimmy Woodell, Vera and Warren Coward, Rosalie Nushaum, Ora McDowell, Maxine and Harold Stout, Charles Wrenke, Eugene Beal, Benjie Burbshire and Glen and Donald Woody.

Pledged to Sorority

The Salem friends of Miss Virginia Dorcas will be happy to hear that she has been pledged to the Delta Gamma national sorority in Eugene, having entered the University of Oregon this term. Miss Dorcas is the daughter of Mrs. Lottie Axley.

Anniversary of Prohibition

The sixth anniversary of national prohibition will be celebrated on Tuesday at the local hall at the corner of Ferry and South Commercial streets. Unions from throughout the county will meet together at this time.

Group Meets

Interesting among the recent club meetings was that at which Mrs. W. E. Crews entertained in her home. An attractively planned 1 o'clock luncheon preceded the afternoon of cards. In addition to the club members, Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. Charles Weller, and Mrs. George Forgo were guests of Mrs. Crews.

Mrs. George Coddling won the high score of the afternoon.

Covers were placed for Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. George Forgo, Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. V. N. Diaz, Mrs. George Coddling, Mrs. Fred Powell, Mrs. Will Mullin, and the hostess, Mrs. W. E. Crews.

Lausanne Hall "Open House"

Interest in Willamette university circles is centering this evening around the annual "open house" at Lausanne Hall, the women's dormitory on the university campus. Calling hours for the event will be from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. All friends of the university are cordially invited.

Home From California

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin have returned to their home after a month's absence in southern California.

Guest From Independence

A house guest this week at the homes of Mrs. B. L. Darby and Mrs. F. G. Bowersox has been Miss Myra Montgomery of Independence.

Recent Bride Is Honored

Mrs. Eston Williamson entertained on Monday evening with a kitchen shower and an evening of five hundred complimenting Mrs. La Doyt Davies (Bernice Kirkwood), a recent bride. Mrs. Davies, the honor guest, won the evening's high score. Refreshments were served following the playing.

In the group were Mrs. La Doyt Davies, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Roy Jacobson, Mrs. Tom McGilchrist, Miss Jessie Gibson, Miss Marjorie Blake, Mrs. Lawrence Imlah, and the hostess, Mrs. Eston Williamson.

Hollywood Club

The ladies' social club of Hollywood met on Wednesday afternoon for an informal afternoon at the home of Mrs. Victor La Due. Music and conversation were the diversions of the evening. Musical numbers were given both by Mrs. Earl and Mrs. Fisher. Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. At the next meeting of the club, on January 27, Mrs. A. E. Hedine will entertain.

Those present on Wednesday were Mrs. John Gunaley, Mrs. A. Rowland, Mrs. A. Munson, Mrs. J. Barie and daughter, Mrs. A. E. Hedine and daughter, Mrs. W. W. Fisher and daughter, Mrs. Jake Klemm, Miss Florence Klemm, Miss Grace Klemm, Mrs. T. A. Gire, and the hostess, Mrs. Victor La Due.

Willamette's Three One Act Plays Please

Ample Audience With Effective Acting
Public Speaking Class Produces Pieces for Second Time in the History of the School; Response is Strong

Before a good and enthusiastic audience the public speaking class at Willamette university produced for the second time in the history of the school an evening's entertainment of one-act plays. The last play, "Suppressed Desires," by Susan Glaspell, proved most popular of the three.

A feature of the evening was the fact that the three characters to appeal most heartily to the audience were those of men. And

Film at Church

"The Sky Pilot," probably the best known of all Ralph Connor's books, will be shown tomorrow night at the First Congregational church as the feature at the evening service. The film tells of the pioneer missionary work in the west.
