EVENING

By Blanche Jones

Against the evening sky the fir-clad peaks extend their crests to meet the setting sun— Slowly and imperceptibly it sinks, Leaving behind a scarf of vivid fire Stretched brightly back of fading hills of blue. Serene and clear the river runs below, Its shallows mirroring crags where a scarred pine Stands guard to point the boatman where to land.

Second Attraction in Civic Music Club Series Announced

Misha Gagna, cellist, will be presented in joint concert with Susie Michael, pianist, as the second musical attraction given by the Civic Music Club. The concert will be given at the Helig theater Tuesday evening, February 9.

Miss Michael brings to her art the youth, vivacity and charm of the American girl that she is. Her program knows no national boundary line since her extensive repertoire includes compositions from all the richest sources. Misha Gagna has an international reputation as a cellist of remarkable power. While only a student at the Petrograd university, he became a member for four years of the Philharmonic orchestra of that city under the direction of the famous Glazounoff. Later he played a year in the Leipzig orchestra under Welsch. Despite his youth he has concertized extensively in Europe and in America, has toured with Tetrazzini, Mary Garden, Caruso and other famous stars.

The Michael-Gagna concert is a fortunate choice to supplant the Hodnett Sisters, who have been obliged to cancel their proposed northwest tour this spring. The other concerts to be given by the Civic Music Club are Carol Robinson, pianist, March 29, and Lawrence Strauss, tenor, April 19. All the programs will be given at the Helig.

Fortnightly Club Meets

The home of Professor and Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatte, "Kwakhoh," at 230 Richmond, was the scene on Tuesday evening of a delightful meeting of the Fortnightly club, the personnel of which includes a group of Willamette University faculty members who meet on alternate Tuesdays for dinner and a social evening.

The Gatte home was decorated in a particularly effective manner with pussy willows and river rushes. An evening of instructive conversation followed the dinner.

In the club group are Professor and Mrs. Horace Williston, Professor and Mrs. E. T. Brown, Miss Frances M. Richards, Miss McGill, Miss Lois Letimer, Miss Pauline Gabriel, Professor Horace G. Rahakopf, Professor Leroy Delling, Professor Burroughs, and Professor and Mrs. R. M. Gatte.

Mrs. Wilson Entertains Club The members of the Monday afternoon bridge club were hostesses last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson when they entertained for the pleasure of their husbands, at the dinner hour. A lovely combination of daffodils and golden acacia decorated the rooms. Bridge was the diversion of the after dinner hours. Mrs. D. M. Crouse was a special guest for the occasion.

In the guest group were: Mrs. D. M. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Polsson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson.

Guests of Dr. Rowland

WRC Ladies' Aid to Meet

A social meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps will be held this afternoon at the home of Reta Pemberton, 1443 South Commercial street.

Amicitian Club

Mrs. C. A. Downs entertained in a delightful manner on Monday afternoon at her home, 2121 South High street, for the members of the Amicitian club. Mrs. John H. Scott was a special guest for the afternoon. Bowls and baskets of pussywillows were attractive about the rooms. At the tea hour refreshments were served, with Mrs. White assisting in the serving.

The next meeting of the club will be in Eugene.

Lausanne "Open House"

One of the most attractive of all events marking the past weekend was the annual open house at Lausanne Hall, attended by a large throng of townspeople from throughout the city.

Miss Oma Emmons introduced the guests to the receiving line which was headed by Miss Mildred Tucker, president of the hall; Miss Frances M. Richards, dean of women; Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, wife of the president; Dean and Mrs. Frank M. Erickson, Miss Edith De Nise, and Miss Pauline Gabriel.

The Japanese motif was used with pleasing decorative effect in the second floor living room which was transformed into a Japanese pagoda. Wistaria and Japanese lanterns were used in creating the Oriental illusion as well as a miniature lake spanned by an ornate bridge. A Buddha was a conspicuous figure on the mantel.

MILLER'S STORE Will be closed 2:30 to 3:30 today on account of the funeral of Mrs. F. M. Sisson, mother of B. E. Sisson.

MILLER'S Good Goods Salem's Leading Department Store

Attractive Japanese lanterns were distributed to the guests as favors. The sophomore girls, in dainty be-flowered costumes, served. Presiding at the urns the first hour were Mrs. Ada Miles and Mrs. Helen Winter, both of whom were residents of old Lausanne. Pouring during the second hour were Mrs. Charles Sherman and Miss Marian Lian.

Delightful musical numbers were heard throughout the evening, both upstairs and down. Upstairs Miss Ruth Lent, Miss Edna Mae Drake and Miss Rose Wetherall gave numbers while in the parlors Miss Helen Bridgman, Miss Ruby Davis, accompanied by Miss Adelia Gates, Miss Helen May Lockwood, accompanied by Miss Louise Kaufman, Miss Carolyn Parker, Miss Ethelwyn Kelly, Miss Dora Brown, Miss Bungea Cubertson, Miss Nell Brunn, and Miss Dorothy Barker contributed the program.

In the guest group were: Mrs. D. M. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Polsson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson.

Columbine Club

The members of the Columbine club were entertained on Tuesday evening with a delightful pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Ralph Howard on North Maple street. An evening of games followed the dinner. A special musical number was the solo by Mrs. Charles Davis. Mrs. Davis played her own accompaniment.

In the group for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. William Downing, Mr. and Mrs. William McCarron, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pemberton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, Miss Annabelle Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith, and the hostess, Mrs. Ralph Howard.

Outstanding Recital

Two pupils of Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Miss Dorothy Browning and Francis Grote, were presented last Saturday in an outstanding piano recital at Mrs. Styles' home. A group of friends were present for the musicale.

Guests in Hollywood

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Arenz and children, Jean and Edward, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hofma of Salem were guests at luncheon on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher in Hollywood.

Eastern Star Card Party

Outstanding among all recent lodge events was the twenty table card party on Tuesday evening at which members of Chadwick Chapter of the Eastern Star were joyfully entertained in the lodge rooms. Bridge and five hundred were in play during the evening. Mrs. Eleanor Steiner won the high bridge score of the evening while the high award at five hundred went to J. W. Marzany.

The committee in charge of the event included: Mr. and Mrs. Newmyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bohannon, Mr. and Mrs. Bosshart, Mrs. Cora Boyer, Mrs. Jennie Brown, Mrs. Iva Bushy, Mrs. Grace Buel, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford.

Of special interest to Eastern Star members is the announcement that Chadwick chapter plans to sponsor an assembly of the Daughters of the Rainbow for girls.

Mrs. S. Willis will lead the devotions. After a short business session Mrs. Harry Harms will give a group of vocal solos, and Mrs. C. P. Huber a group for the piano.

Refreshments will be served at the tea hour. Mrs. Roth will be assisted by Mrs. G. Ed Ross, Mrs. J. Christensen, Mrs. W. F. Foster and Mrs. G. C. Crawford.

Chapter G of PEO

Members of Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood, with the members of Chapter J of Woodburn as special guests, will hold a particularly interesting meeting today at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher, 515 Market street, when Founders' day will be observed. Mrs. B. J. Miles and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., are in charge of the program for the afternoon.

Yomarco Club

Members of the Yomarco club of the First Methodist church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. M. Hicks, 1946 State street.

Miss Swart Entertains

An enjoyable meeting of the Writers' Section of the Salem Arts' League was held on Tuesday night when Miss Renska Swart entertained at her shop on Court street. Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, leader of the section presided. The program opened with a poem by Professor Morton E. Pock, "At the Foot of the Statue." Mrs. Blanche Jones read a lyric entitled "Evening" which appeared in the Sunday Oregonian.

Viola Price Franklin introduced a copy of an extremely interesting thesis, "The Brotherhood of Browning," which was written by Mrs. Franklin's sister, Maude A.

Miss Barbara Stanfield Will Be Married Today

Of interest in Salem, as well as in Portland, is the marriage to be in Washington, D. C., of Miss Barbara Stanfield, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, to Mr. Henry Teasdale Dunn of Jacksonville, Fla.

The wedding will be solemnized at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the historic St. John's church on Lafayette Square, almost directly opposite the White House. Dr. Robert Johnson, the rector of St. John's, will officiate.

Mrs. W. H. Lytle of Salem, an aunt of the bride, has reached the national capitol where she will be in attendance at the ceremony.

The following interesting details have been sent west: The bride has selected as her maid of honor a former schoolmate, Miss Elizabeth Hamlin of New York city. Her bridesmaids will be the Misses Eloise Bristol of Portland, Anne Covington and Beatrice McLean of Washington, and Marian Dunn of Jacksonville, the latter a sister of the bridegroom. Mr. Dunn has picked as his attendants his brother, R. P. Dunn of Jacksonville, who will be best man; Gavin Brackenridge, Harold F. Gibson of New York, William L. McLean, Jr., of Philadelphia, Karl S. Day of Cadillac, Mich.; Francis Winslow, James P. Nolan and Thomas Hopkins, Jr., of Washington as ushers.

A number of entertainments have been given for the bride by her younger friends in the Washington social set during the past week. Senator and Mrs. Stanfield will give their dinner for the bridal party on Tuesday night at their apartment, at which Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Dunn, the bridegroom's parents, and Mrs. William H. Lytle of Salem, Or., a sister of Mrs. Stanfield, also will be present.

Mr. Dunn will give his bachelor dinner at the Raquet club on Wednesday night, while Miss Stanfield's attendants will be entertained at the Club Chanteclair.

Miss Stanfield is a native of Oregon. She was born at Pendleton where she attended the public schools there, and Miss Catlin's school in Portland. She completed her education at Holton Arms in Washington, at Miss Madeira's school in New York city, and Miss Rissler's school in Rome, where she studied music. Following her debut in Washington last year she attended the Institute of Musical Art in New York, conducted by Dr. Frank Damrosch.

On her mother's side Miss Stanfield is of Kentucky ancestry, her great uncle having been David T. Terry of that state, one of the great criminal lawyers of his day. Her father is a native of Oregon. Mr. Dunn is a native of Florida. His grandfather was Major Henry Richard Teasdale, a pioneer of that state, while his great grandfather was Pedro Benet, one of the early Spanish settlers of St. Augustine. He is a graduate of Princeton, class of 1917, where he was a member of the Cottage club. During the war he attended the marine school at Quantico, Va., and became a marine corps flier attached to the northern bombing group in France. He is a member of the Princeton club of New York city, Raquet club of Washington, Semholo, Yacht and Florida Country clubs of Jacksonville. With his father and brother he is engaged in the real estate business at Jacksonville.

Woman's Benefit Association Members of the Woman's Benefit association will meet at 8 o'clock this evening in the Fraternal Temple for installation of officers. Following the installation a pot-luck supper will be served.

Literature Section to Meet The literature section of the American Association of University Women will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the home of Professor and Mrs. E. C. Richards, 956 Center street. All interested are urged to be present as plans for the last half of the year will be discussed and decided upon. Professor Horace Williston is instructor of the class.

Return From California Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson and children, Margaret and Otto, Jr., have returned to Salem after a three week motor trip into California and Mexico. They were guests during the Christmas season at the home of Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. H. T. Babcock, at Eagle Rock, a suburb of Los Angeles. They spent some time in both San Francisco and San Diego, motoring as far south as Tia Juana. In addition they visited relatives in both Palo Alto and Presnall.

Club Meets at Waters' Home A most attractive event of the week among the younger set was the meeting of the Amo club with Mr. and Mrs. John Waters' Tuesday evening. Five hundred featured the evening's entertainment, with favors for high score going to Mrs. Biddy Bishop and Mr. Russell Mudd.

The living rooms of the Waters home were colorfully decorated with flowers, and all appointments were suggestive of the Valentine season.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. Al

Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Biddy Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. E. Price, Mr. and Mrs. D. Daniels, Miss Leta Waters, Mr. Carroll Waters, Mr. and Mrs. John Waters.

KIWANIS SPEAKER STAYS ON TRAIN

Interested in Magazine, He Suddenly Finds Himself in Albany

Members of the local Kiwanis club were wondering Tuesday noon if Salem through some mysterious force had shrunk to the size of the famous Oregon city that can not be seen from the highway because of the big red barn in front of it.

Rabbi Max Merritt of Portland was scheduled to deliver the main address at the Kiwanis luncheon. As the luncheon progressed, Rabbi Merritt failed to make his appearance. Presently Ed Schunke, Kiwanis president received startling news.

Rabbi Merritt had made the journey from Portland on the Oregon Electric train. He became interested in a magazine. The first thing he knew the train had stopped and he was apparently in a city.

He detoured. To his surprise, he found himself not in Salem, but in Albany. He phoned that he was on his way back.

Whereupon one Kiwanian suggested that a committee of three be detailed to meet the train and Rabbi Merritt. The Rabbi failed to appear for the meeting, and singing was substituted.

Another member suggested that the name of the magazine read by Rabbi Merritt be secured.

No man really begins to grow until he realizes his deficiencies and starts in eliminating them.

PIONEER LEADERS TALK PRIZE TEST

Determine Points on Which Trophy Will Be Given in Contest

The adult leaders of the Salem Pioneer clubs held a meeting last Tuesday at the YMCA building to discuss the various points upon which the bronze trophy should be awarded in the all-round contest which is to be participated in by the Pioneer clubs of Salem.

The Bronze Pioneer plaque trophy has been presented by the Boys' Work committee of the YMCA. The points decided upon and the value of each toward the contest are as follows: 1—100 per cent attendance at mid-week meetings of the club, 100 points per week. 2—100 per cent attendance at Sunday school, 100 points per week. 3—Minimum of 10 minutes devotional period at mid-week meeting (ritual not included) gives club 25 points per week. 4—Minimum of .10 minutes devoted to practical talk by leader or outside speaker gives club 25 points per week; also taking the club on an educational visit to factory or institution gives same. 5—Club rendering a definite piece of service to church or community gives 100 points per project. 6—100 per cent attendance at a county or city Pioneer Rally or Roundup gives 100 points. 7—Club taking part (without forfeit) in inter-club athletic contest or tournament gives club 100 points per project. 8—Notches: Average of one notch per member per month gives club 100 points. There is a possibility of getting from 1400 to 2200 points per month.

Reports are due to be in the hands of the Boys' Work secretary by the 8th of each month, and therefore each club will have to check up its members at the first meeting of each month. The shield trophy will be given each to the high score club to keep for one month, and at the end of four months will be awarded permanently to the club having the highest score for the entire period.
