February 2, 1926 DANGER BRINGS HUMILITY—And Jacob said, O God of my father, I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, which thou hast showed unto thy servant. Deliver me, I pray Thee, from the hands of Esau. Gen. 32:9-11.

A HEMP INDUSTRY WILL BE DEVELOPED

We hear a good deal these days about the development of the flax and linen industries of the Salem district. And, though it has taken a long time to get this development under way, it is now proceeding in good order, on safe and reliable foundations, and with a healthy public opinion and understanding behind it.

That will make the Salem district the linen industry headquarters of North America.

But the Salem district produces a fine quality of hemp, as good as can be grown in the best hemp districts of Italy.

And a great tonnage can be produced here on a comparatively small acreage.

Then why not a hemp industry, as a complement to the linen industry? Why not? The Belfast district, the world's greatest linen district, uses vast quantities of hemp.

It will be the same with the Salem district. Should be. There are nearly as many articles of manufacture using hemp as using flax fiber. The foundation of most rubber boots and shoes is hemp cloth, as a sample.

Watch Salem develop a great hemp industry.

PORTLAND JOURNAL, TAKE NOTICE

In this column on Sunday a Portland Journal editorial article was quoted, that attempted to ridicule the American protective tariff, partly because there was last year a 10 per cent cut in the wages in some of the New England textile mills.

When the fact is, that cut was made because of the inadequate protective duties on certain lines of cotton goods coming into competition with the output of English mills that are kept going through artificial means, including the dote system of that country.

A few days ago the Washington Post, one of the leading advocates among the newspapers of this country of the protective tariff, printed the following, as proving the benefits of our tariff system, under the heading, "Doing Our Bit:"

- Today the United States is producing: 55 per cent of the world's iron ore; 51 per cent of the world's pig iron; 66 per cent of the world's steel; 51 per cent of the world's copper; 62 per cent of the world's petroleum; 43 per cent of the world's coal; 52 per cent of the world's timber output; 65 per cent of the world's naval stores; 42 per cent of the world's phosphate; 80 per cent of the world's sulphur; 68 per cent of the world's mica; 62 per cent of the world's lead; 64 per cent of the world's zinc; 60 per cent of the world's talc and soapstone. 45 per cent of the world's barytes; 55 per cent of the world's cotton; 95 per cent of the world's automobiles.

No other country in the world's history can show such progress and such a large share in the production of leading commodities.

The Portland Journal please take note of the above Washington Post—might also note the fact that the conditions of the people of the United States are more nearly ideal than ever been in any country in any time in the history of the world.

The tariff is a wise revision of the present tariff which is low in a number of cases; too high in a number of cases.

It should be extended to American ships, to a great American merchant marine, and to our own ships, and keep it built up; and do it with a tariff.

States, and becoming more so every day.

If you know onions, please help the slogan editor. Today or tomorrow, Salem is the big onion center, and must become more so.

long to win one of the big prizes. The contest will be a very short one. And, at the close of the contest, the votes will be counted by a committee of prominent business men. Those who have obtained the greatest number of votes will be formally presented with the handsome prizes that are won simply by collecting votes in spare time, and subscriptions.

Now, right now—today—is the time to begin.

If you want any one of the three splendid new cars so that you can ride when you wish and take your friends or your family driving, there is no reason why you can not win it. Think of having a car like this for your very own to go where you wish and stop as long as you like—a car that has a reputation for reliability and all the way through, luxurious, comfortable and powerful. That's just what you can have if you are willing to put forth a little effort and a little hustle and energy during your spare time.

Nearly every candidate will say: "Oh, I may try, but I know that I can't win." All will be of about the same opinion. But the man or woman, boy or girl who first decides that he or she is going to win, and has the confidence to do his or her very best, is very likely to be proclaimed among the winners of the very biggest prizes.

SEVEN AUTOS RAID INTERNATIONAL FIGHT

(Continued from page 1.) the fight which means death to them or to their opponent. When thrown into the pit each bird is armed with a razor-like barb or gaff, strapped to each leg in place of the natural spur. With these blades the cocks cut and slash at each other till one, or sometimes both, are dead. The birds fight for the sheer love of fighting, the victor, if he is physically able, invariably stepping on the body of his vanquished foe and crowing in triumph. When training the birds miniature boxing gloves are attached to the spur to prevent injury.

There were no windows in the hophouse in which the fight was staged and only one door. An elaborate electric lighting equipment had been installed with a large light over the pit. In previous events, some lasting for two or three days, concessions were sold for coffee and sandwich stands. The fights are said to have been going on for many years.

Yesterday the district attorney's office was searching the statute books for a law governing the situation. A diligent survey of the code reveals, however, no statute covering cock fighting except the general law pertaining to cruelty to animals. One possibility for prosecution is said to have been found, however, in the general statute providing penalties for indecent and immoral acts not otherwise described in the code.
