AN ANNOUNCEMENT

Great Interest to Every Family in Salem

Beginning with today, Feb. second. All foods purchased from any department of this store will be delivered to your home free of charge. This is of more importance to the housewife than any new feature in reducing the cost of supplying the family table since the opening of our first cash store in 1916. This new service brings right to your door the finest products of field, garden, orchard and factory from practically every state in the Union at prices much lower than is usually engaged with this service.
