Gen. Robert Lee Bullard, at a recent A. E. F. celebration, was alking about China. "Practice," he said, "has im-proved the Chinese soldier. I friend of mine attended a Chinese review in the days before the Chino-Jap war. Two regiments were very much applauded. And they went through a very cur performance, certainly. With litlong bamboo fishing rod things in the left, the men rushed at or another yelling and making the queerest gestures and grimaces. "'What's the idea?' Ask my
