Parrish Juniors win from Hubbard tossers with one sided score 23 to 2

SCORING STARTS IN OPENING PLAY

Many Substitutes Get Workout, When Strength of Locals Is Seen

Parrish junior high school defeated the Hubbard high school team last night, 23-2. The game was played on the Parrish gym floor. The Hubbard lads did not make one field goal, gaining both their points on free throws.

The game was not as fast as the Parrish-Woodburn game, although there was good playing in spots. Passing was poor on the part of both teams. Parrish made practically every shot from under the basket, while the Hubbard five insisted on taking long chances.

R. Kelly started the scoring in the first minute of play with a short field goal. He repeated with two more baskets in rapid succession. He was high point man of the game with 10 points to his credit. Green, who was in the game only part of the time as a substitute, followed second with six points.

While Parrish was running up 10 points in the first quarter, the visitors were unable to tally once. They made their only point of the half on a free throw with but a minute of play left. During the second quarter Parrish made three points.

When Coach Brown saw that the game was not a crucial battle, he released a host of substitutes, giving most of his men a chance to get into the play. The third quarter Salem made but one point, but in the third quarter the locals rallied, cleaning up nine points.

Following is the line-up:

Parrish		Hubbard
Siegmund	RF	Guthrie
Suing	LF	Bloom
Andresen	C	Lindbo
R. Kelly	RG	Zaner
Keppinger	LG	Rasneck

Substitutions: Parrish, Nash, C. Kelly and Green. Referee, Pug Ross of Salem.

not appearing each day. I don't know whetrer they have overlooked this matter or not. This is one of the most important things to do. Get on the honor roll and show your friends that you are out to win. If they see your name at the top of the list, then they will know that you are in earnest and are more willing to help you. So, let me see you come in from day to day from now on. You have until Saturday night, at 9 o'clock, February 27, to get in on this diamond ring and big special offer, and you are entitled to just as many subscriptions as you can secure.

Mrs. Ivan Martin is getting her campaign organized, and has had several interesting experiences. Mrs. Martin is a real go-getter, and once she gets really tuned up to the work, she will make a very interesting race for any candidate in the contest.

Helen Philips writes as follows: "Dear Mrs. Plinkie. I am pleased to know that I have been nominated to run in The Statesman contest, and I will try and do the best I can to win the first prize, with the help of my friends."

Mrs. Leo Gronke is a very consistent worker, and she believes that steady, consistent work every day will win the race in the long run. Mrs. Gronke is putting her theory into practice, and is a serious contender in the contest.

Evelyn Beath is the youngest candidate in the contest, but she is a go-getter, and has many good friends. Her pleasant smile, and winning way is making a lot of new friends for her. Hardly a day passes but some of her friends call into the office and registers a subscription for her, remarking that she is the cutest little girl that they know.

Mrs. Leo Huddleston found so many of her friends were taking an interest in her nomination that she decided that if her friends had faith in her she should have faith in herself, so she has entered the contest, and is going strong.

Mrs. Abigal W. Watt has a host of friends in her locality and is up and coming every minute. She is a real booster, and her booster friends are lining up behind her.

Vera Kellogg is a real live wire, and by the reports that come in to the contest editor, she is going to sign up a lot of "Strawberries" for subscriptions for the contest in the very near future.

University Cagemen and OAC tossers clash for conference honors tonight

BOOK FIRST GAME ON CORVALLIS GYM

Return Bill at Eugene Set for February 19, Ticket Sale Is High

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Feb. 13.—(Secial.)—The first of a two-game series for the championship of the northern section of the Pacific coast basketball conference will be played Saturday at Corvallis when Oregon meets Oregon Agricultural college. All other conference teams are out of the race.

On paper, Oregon seems stronger, but that means nothing when these schools meet. Whatever advantage Oregon may have is probably offset by the fact that the Aggies play on their own court. The game with Corvallis and a return game with OAC at Eugene, February 19, will wind up Oregon's schedule. If the Webfooters win one of the Aggie encounters, the worst they can do then is to end in a tie with OAC for first place. If they win both, they will cinch the championship.

Okerberg of Oregon is the leading scorer in the conference. He has dropped 30 field goals and converted 15 foul throws for a total of 75 points. Burr is the premier scorer for the Aggies. In half as many games as Okerberg played, he made 16 baskets and converted six fouls for a total of 38 points. His average per game is 9.5 to 9.4 for Okerberg. Season's scores of the contestants follow:

Oregon 40; Montana 19.
Oregon 34; Washington 20.
Oregon 35; Montana 17.
Oregon 34; Idaho 24.
Oregon 34; Wash. State 22.
Oregon 26; Washington 21.

Oregon 35; Wash. State 23.

STRIKE IS ENDED; MINERS REJOICE

tality" in bringing an end to the strike and performed a wonderful service. This statement was echoed by the operators.

Mr. Grant was quite modest in explaining his activities. After caustic reference to "many champions of the people with political hopes" who capitalize situations for their own benefit, Mr. Grant gave unstinted praise to President Coolidge for his non-interference.

"I call attention to the great commonsense and wisdom of President Coolidge," said Mr. Grant. "It is my firm conviction that if he had yielded to the great pressure upon him and had tried to intervene, this contract would not be signed today. The American people are entitled to know this solemn conviction of mine and to honor this great president of ours who has shortened the strike by his wisdom."

It was computed that the mine workers lost more than $158,000,000 in wages during the strike and that the coal production was curtailed about 35,000,000 tons tonight. It was figured that the miner received $5.52 a ton for his labor and that the average retail selling price of coal around the country was $15 a ton. The loss of 35,000,000 tons of production this resulted in a loss of $366,800,000, to mine owners, railroads, retail dealers and all elements entering into the handling of coal between the mines and the consumers' furnace, or a grand total of $524,000,000 when the miners' wages were included.

made separately to include the name of each of the little family were plain on that point. In the case of Audrey, the youngest girl, the jury decided: That her death came "by asphyxiation by illuminating gas; we, the jury, further find that said asphyxiation was caused by her own hand, with suicidal intent, while despondent with grief and remorse over the fact that she had been outraged by Chief of Police Llanos of Tijuana, Mexico, said outrage having taken place in Tijuana."

The verdict in the case of Clyde Peteet was similar. Luis Amador, a Tia Juana saloon keeper, was charged in the verdict with having attacked her. The words "grief and remorse" appeared in the verdicts on the death of the parents.

Coroner Kelly today received the following telegram from Secrery of State Kellogg at Washington:

"Again referring to your telegram of the 7th. American consul at Mexicali reports that he is in daily touch with the Peteet case and that local authorities have promised thorough investigations and assured him that the culprits will be punished."

KARASICK RETURNS FOR TUSSLE HERE

Will Meet Thornton, Former Canadian Champ, in Heilig Theatre Go

William Thornton, who meets Al Karasick at the Heilig theatre on Tuesday night, has been wrestling in the northwest only a few months, but has met some good men. His is known as a good, fast, grappler and has shown himself capable of providing many a thrill.

Karasick has been having his hands full in the Portland ring, where he has been forced to drop humor and exert the gigantic power he undoubtedly is capable of producing. Throughout the past weeks, he has varied from favorite to the underdog, but is constantly drawing houses which testify amply to his ability and skill.

Though both will be on a theatre stage here in Salem, they will present a wrestling show that is genuine. The performance two weeks ago was both mirth and hiss producing, with a climax that made up real interest.

Bearcat Seconds Face Springfield Tossers

Rooks of Willamette university will clash with the Springfield high school aggregation this evening. The game, which is to start promptly at 7:30, will be played in the Willamette gymnasium.

Springfield is not thought to be extremely strong, although it is believed they might be able to overturn the game. While the Bearkittens have not been showing very well this year, they have been improving steadily. Report is that they will rely on team work, passing and short shots, to take the game away from the visitors.

ILLINOIS MAN WINS

SENATORS PASS TAX BILL BY LARGE VOTE

maximum surtax rate in return for greater reductions on the lower incomes, the minority members stood by the agreement. Senator Simmons, North Carolina, ranking democrat on the committee, vigorously defended the action.

A last minute effort by Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, to increase the surtax rates on incomes of $100,000 from the maximum of twenty per cent provided by the bill to a maximum of 25 per cent, which would apply on incomes of $1,000,000 and over was defeated 44 to 22. On this vote 1' democrats stood by the agreement for the twenty per cent maximum rate which was kept.

The final vote did not come until 11 o'clock tonight after 12 continuous hours of work on the bill, during which more than a dozen roll calls were taken as amendment after amendment was voted upon. Few important changes were made in the measure, however, during the day.

As a parting shot, Senator Norris, who has led the opposition in the more than two weeks of strenuous debate on the bill, described the measure as a "gift to the millionaires."

Senator King, democrat, Utah, after the bill was passed, announced that while he voted for it he was bitterly opposed to some of its provisions.

The main changes made by the senate in the house bill were:

Repeal of the inheritance tax.

Repeal of the taxes on automobile passenger cars.

Admissions and dues.

Increased reduction in the surtax rate applying on incomes between $24,000 and $100,000, involving an additional saving of $23,000,000 on these taxes.

Repeal of the capital stock and the one per cent increase in the present 12½ per cent corporation tax.

Increased reductions in the stamp and cigar taxes.

Both the senate and the house agreed on the following general provisions which therefore are sure to become law:

Repeal of the law allowing publication of the amounts of income tax payments.

An increase in the personal exemptions from the income tax from $1,000 to $1,500 for single persons and from $2,500 to $3,500 for married persons will relieve 2,300,000 federal taxpayers of all taxes.

Reductions of the normal income tax rates from two to 1½ per cent on the first $4,000 of taxable income, from four to three per cent on the next $4,000 and from 6 to 5 per cent on the remainder.

Reduction in the maximum surtax rate of 40 per cent, applying on amounts of income in excess of $500,000 to 20 per cent on the amounts of income in excess of $100,000, with corresponding reductions on the lower rates of the graduated surtax schedule which now starts at one per cent at $10,000.

An increase from $10,000 to $20,000 in the amount of income which the 25 per cent reduction on account of "earned income" may be applied.

Repeal of virtually all of the miscellaneous excise and occupational levies.

The first subscription is always the hardest one to get, and many contestants have found it difficult to muster up nerve enough to ask for this first subscription, but having once got a start they can then go on and win any prize on the list. Getting the first subscription is like making the first speech in public.

The race for the diamond ring is just starting—nobody has any of the prizes cinched yet and the candidate that does the best work between now and February 27th will undoubtedly win this splendid additional prize.

All In The State Of Mind

If you think you are beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you would like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world you'll find
Success begins with a fellow's will.
It's all in the state of mind.

Full many a race is lost,
'Ere ever a step is run
And many a coward fails,
'Ere even his work is begun.

Think big and your deeds will grow,
Think small, and you'll fall behind;
Think that you can, and you will—
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are,
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
For sooner or later the man who wins,
Is the fellow who thinks he can.
