Miss Hanna Returns From Buying Trip to

New York Miss Affie Hanna, known to many Salem women by the experlenced manner in which she fills her place on the Miller Mercantile buying staff, has just returned from a month's buying trip in New York City where she had the opportunity to select from the widest choices in ready-towear garments, which are of pre-dominate esteem in New York's fashionable ward robes.

Miss Hanna found the big metropolitan style shows of particular interest, and reports that harmonization of the ensemble is of great importance.
