

WORLD WIDE FEATURES PORTRAYED BY LENS OF PRESS CAMERA

Marines Welcome Butler Back to Fold

His tenure as Philadelphia's chief of police suddenly ended in a blaze of pyrotechnics, Brig. Gen. Smedley Butler is preparing in Washington to take command of the Marine Corps base at San Diego, California. He is seen being welcomed back to duty by (left) Gen. John A. Le Jeune, commander of the Marines, and (right) Curtis D. Wilbur, secretary of navy.

Psychology Her Aid in Assisting Wayward Maid

Eleanor R. Wembridge of Cleveland, Ohio, is psychologist for the Cleveland Woman's Protective Association. She psycho-analyzes wayward girls and has written a book, "Other People's Daughters," which tells some of her experiences.

Honeymooners Have $2,000,000 Gems, Wedding Presents, to Worry About

Honeymoon joys of Earl E. T. Smith and bride, the former Consuelo Vanderbilt, daughter of The Mrs. Vanderbilt, leader of "400," are coupled with worries over safety of $2,000,000 in gems given the bride as wedding presents. Photo of couple taken at ceremony in New York.

Woman Curator of London Zoo Fond of Bugs

Miss L. E. Cheesman, curator of the London zoo has no fear of the crawlingest of bugs. She makes pets of them and recently returned from a trip to the South Sea Islands with 1300 rare new specimens.

France's New Envoy and His Wife Taken Into Official "Family" Quickly

Senator Victor Henri Berenger, newly named ambassador to the United States from France, and Mme. Berenger, but recently arrived in this country, have proved to be charming personages and have been eagerly welcomed into Washington official circles and society. The photo shows them since their arrival. M. Berenger succeeds Emile Daeschner.

Padlock Shadows Monster Hotel

Efforts are being made by prohibition enforcement officials to obtain a court order for the padlocking of the $10,000,000 Morrison Hotel, Chicago, on a charge of having disobeyed the abatement of a nuisance clause of the Volstead act. Harry C. Moir, owner, declares the whole affair is "a climax to conspiracies, entrapments and briberies," and is preparing to fight the case. E. C. Yellowley (inset) is enforcement director in Chicago.

Montana Is Proud of Its "Small Grain" Victories

The state of Montana is mighty proud of its victories in "small grain" growing contests. The state won a majority of trophies in that division at the last International hay and grain show in Chicago. The photo shows C. E. Smith, Corvallis, Montana, who for the past two years has won more prizes than any other exhibitor at the International. W. H. Jones, Columbus, county agent of Stillwater county, Montana, in which was grown the winner that won the world's championship, and L. E. Peterson, Victor, Montana, twice holder of the Sweepstakes oats trophy from the International show and also winner of the barley sweepstakes this year. The background of the picture is a photo of a sample of the oats raised by L. E. Peterson.

1,000 Troops Guard Kentucky Slayer of 4 From Mob

Soldiers are seen guarding Fayette county courthouse, Lexington, Ky., scene of trial of Ed Harris, negro, confessed slayer of Mrs. Mary Bryant, her husband and two children. Kentucky governor called out 1,000 militiamen, equipped with machine guns and tanks, to frustrate plans of mob to lynch Harris. In 1920, while Will Lockett, negro, was on trial for attacking and killing a white girl, a mob stormed this courthouse, then under guard of militiamen, and began a riot in which several were killed and many injured, but Lockett did not fall in to its hands.

Threatened, K. C. Cops Bring in 30 Stills in 2 Days

Tired of complaints that bootlegging was rampant in certain sections of Kansas City, Mo., Chief of Police William A. Shreeve told the patrolmen patrolling those beats that they must either "clean up" or quit the force, with the result pictured above. Thirty stills were brought in by officers in two days.

Four Youths, Under 25, to Die On the Same Day in Georgia

Above: F. W. McClelland (left) and Ted Coggeshall. Below: Gervas Hoodworth and Willie Jones. Friday, January 29, witnessed the execution in Georgia of these young men, all under 25, who were convicted in pairs for crimes almost identical. McClelland and Coggeshall sought a ride from a motorist, then robbed and murdered him. Hoodworth and Jones also asked a motorist for a ride, and when he stopped his machine for them to board it shot him dead and took his money.

Leo Frank Case Governor Tries Poll Comeback

John M. Slaton, above, twice governor of Georgia, whose commutation of the death sentence of Leo Frank in 1915 aroused a national controversy, is again a candidate for the office. He was absent from the state for some years after taking the action.

Movie Actress Accident Victim

Seena Owen, well-known film actress, is in a Hollywood hospital suffering from severe injuries she received when she fell between a ship and a dock while making a picture. Two ribs were broken and her body otherwise badly bruised.

Durkin May Have Master Lawyer

W. J. "Beat the Rope" McAlcer, above, who, it is claimed has beaten the death penalty in all of the countless murder trials in which he has participated in 35 years of practice, is considering a request from Martin J. Durkin, two-gun "shiek bandit" and killer, to defend him in his approaching trial in Chicago. McAlcer, whose fees are said to be highest exacted by any criminal lawyer in country, lives in Hammond, Ind.

New Plane Promises 18-Hour U. S. to London Service

A company is being organized in New York to operate an 18-hour transatlantic passenger service with planes of a type developed by Dr. Arnim De Muth, noted German aero designer. Photo shown from the plane of a type developed by Dr. Arnim De Muth, noted German aero designer. Photo shown from the plane of a type developed by Dr. Arnim De Muth, noted German aero designer. Photo shown from the plane of a type developed by Dr. Arnim De Muth, noted German aero designer. Photo shown from the plane of a type developed by Dr. Arnim De Muth, noted German aero designer.