Ash Wednesday Services
The Ash Wednesday services at St. Paul's Episcopal church will be held at 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock in the morning and at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Today—Shrove Tuesday—there will be a social in the Parish house. The children are invited to come at four o'clock in the afternoon and the older ones at 5:30 o'clock and seven. Pancakes and waffles will be served.

Hickey-Gustavson Nuptials
Reverend Charles E. Ward was the officiating clergy man at the ceremony which united in marriage Mrs. Lucille Hickey of Puyallup, Washington and Mr. O. E. Gustavson of Tacoma, at 5:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Congregational church parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Guefroy were the only witnesses.

Mr. Gustavson and the Guefroys are friends of long standing. Mr. Gustavson was connected with the Imperial Furniture company where Worth's store now stands fifteen years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gustavson will make their home in Tacoma where Mr. Gustavson is in the furniture business.

Gregorys in California
Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gregory are enjoying a several weeks' tour trip into California.

Miss Kitchen Entertains With Valentine Party
Miss Ruth Kitchen was hostess on last Friday evening at a delightful Valentine party, with five hundred the diversion, and Valentine novelties attractive in the rooms. Anna St. Clair and James St. Clair won the high scores of the evening, while consolation prizes went to Anna McIntyre and Virgil Starr. A delicious supper was served during the evening. A lovely centerpiece of red carnations, pussy willows, and fern was used on the table where Valentine favors marked covers for:

Misses Annabel St. Clair, Alberta St. Clair, Margaret St. Clair, Ann McIntyre, Lena Spaulding, Jessie Starr, and Ruth Kitchen, and Messrs. Cecil Gardner, James St. Clair, Ivan Meeks, Virgil Starr, Robert Kitchen, Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen, and Lorne Kitchen.

Last Card Party in Series
The last card party in the series being sponsored by St. Vincent's church will take place this evening in the Parish house, with Mrs. Adam Engle and Mrs. E. A. Thompson the committee in charge. This will close the social activities of the church since the Lenten season opens tomorrow.

Woman's Club Observes Oregon Day
An attractive "Oregon Day" program, featuring Oregon music, pictures, and literature, was given at the Woman's club house on Saturday afternoon by the Salem Woman's club following the regular bi-monthly business meeting. At the business meeting Mrs. A. M. Chapman reported authoritatively on the better film interest in Salem; Mrs. Ronald Glover gave a comprehensive and well-tabulated report of the home survey which took place in Salem last Sunday; while three prominent members of the press committee, Mrs. W. C. Dibble, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, and Mrs. W. D. Clarke reported in the interest of the Federation News. Mrs. Chester C. Clark made announcement of the film, "As No Man Hath Loved," which will be shown at the Heddig theatre on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week for the benefit of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The program of the afternoon opened with the club song with Miss Evangeline Hall at the piano.

MARVIN SHEPARD

One of the leading candidates in The Oregon Statesman's contest, Mr. Shepard is an ambitious young man of good ability who is using his spare moments in securing subscriptions to win an automobile. He wants his friends to know that he is in the race and solicits their co-operation.

which were written by Rev. W. C. Kantner and the music by Clifford Kantner, in celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the admission of Oregon to the Union. The song was sung by Mrs. Merle Rosecrans and Mrs. Gayle, Roberts Findley. Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, as the leader of the Writers' section of the Salem Arts League, presented a number of Oregon poems typifying Oregon literature.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Robert C. Paulus contributed the Oregon travelogue consisting of forty-eight interesting scenic slides loaned by the University of Oregon. In addition some of Mr. Paulus' own examples of color photography were shown to an appreciative audience.

Two solo numbers, "Spring Song" and "Bird Song" were delightfully sung by Mrs. Gayle Roberts Findley, with Miss Dorothy Pearce at the piano.
Mrs. J. A. Churchill was in charge of an exceedingly interesting exhibit of Oregon books, while Oregon pictures were arranged for the afternoon by Miss Kathryn Gunnell and Robert C. Paulus.

Etotka Club to Meet
The members of the Etotka club will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher, 515 Market street, for the regular meeting. After the transaction of the club business the ladies will enjoy a visit to the Miles linen mill.

Guest From Los Angeles
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brant are entertaining as their house guest from Los Angeles Mrs. Brant's sister, Mrs. A. Roberts, who made the trip north by motor. Over the week-end Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Brant and Miss Dorothy Brant motored to Seattle. On Thursday Mrs. Roberts will return to her home in Los Angeles and will be glad to make arrangements for a motor companion for the trip back to California.

Junior Music Club Meets
The Junior Music club of which Miss Lena Dotson is the adviser met for a delightful costume and valentine party on Saturday evening at the home of Mabel Harrison. Games and valentine contests were enjoyed by the group, with the valentine motif used in decorating the rooms. A valentine box was a special feature. A lovely centerpiece of spring flowers centered the attractively appointed table. Delicious little heart-shaped cakes ornamented with small candy hearts were served. Mrs. Baker assisted Mrs. Harrison in the serving. Those in the group were: Olive Shurtz, Ruby Oray, Vivian Marris, Henrietta Hutcheon, Helen Ralph, Pauline Orey, Jane Kuhnke, Miss Mabel Dotson, and the hostess, Mabel Harrison.

Mrs. Rand Is Honored
Mrs. John L. Rand, who with Judge Rand of the state supreme court was in Eugene for a brief stay last week from Salem, was the honor guest for one of the week's notable affairs given yesterday by Mrs. Lawrence T. Hat-gardens. Proceeds received will go into the scholarship fund maintained by the Salem O. A. C. club.

The following are acting as patrons and patronesses for the affair:
Governor Walter M. Pierce, President and Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Koser, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay, Prof. and Mrs. E. B. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. George Hug, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckebach, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cupper, Colonel and Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Luper and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown.

Miss Vivian Masters, club president, appointed Miss Sylvia Woods to take charge of the committee.

Pickett-McAllister Wedding
Of interest in this vicinity was the marriage of Miss Ruth A. Pickett of Roseburg to Mr. L. Dexter McAllister, at the home of Mrs. C. B. McAllister of Shaw. The ceremony was performed on Saturday in the presence of only the immediate friends. Rev. H. Stover officiated.

The bride wore a lovely gown of cream georgette over pink satin. Her shower bouquet was of sweet peas. Fern, early spring flowers and fir boughs decorated the living room where the impressive

One Day brings the end to A Cold do the right thing

You can end a cold within 24 hours if you will. Not only that, you can open the bowels, check all the discomfort, eliminate the poisons, tone the entire system.

That way is with HILLS—the only way. It is so efficient that millions have come to employ it. It is so supreme that we paid $1,000,000 for it.

Don't trust to lesser methods. Do the best you can. Take HILL tablets—take them now. Every hour of delay means delayed results. At your drug store.
