Vanishing Tea at Pearce Home

Interesting in the series of vanishing parties being sponsored in Salem in the interest of the Albany College fund was the attractive affair which took place yesterday afternoon from three to five at the home of Mrs. George J. Pearce when she entertained, following in the lead started by Mrs. Charles Weller.

Pussy willows gave a festive spring touch to the rooms where music was enjoyed by the fifteen guests who assembled for the event. Miss Lucille Ross and Miss Dorothy Pearce gave a group of two-piano numbers while Miss Thelma Davis and Miss Josephine Albert gave vocal solos.

Assisting Mrs. Pearce were Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Mrs. W. G. Allen and Mrs. Lillian Parvise.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sniffling, blowing, headache, dryness, no straggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, soothing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly. It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

"Oh! I thought you were Mr. Jones"

IT'S a bad moment—when you realize you've spoken to someone you don't know. Everybody makes mistakes, of course, but no matter how much poise you have, you feel a bit silly anyhow.

The chances are you didn't know Mr. Jones really well—or you'd never have made the blunder. You've never seen anyone you'd actually mistake for your brother or sister or husband or wife, have you? It's casual acquaintance that leads to errors.

People look alike; so do razor strops and flower seeds and hats and pianos. If you want to buy a Jones hat, you're not likely to blunder and get some other hat. The same is true for a Jones piano or a Jones razor strop.

The easiest way to know everything there is to know about such things is to read advertising. The advertisements in this newspaper are here to tell you quickly and truthfully the main facts about the things you buy and use. They are here to prevent you from making mistakes. Mistakes that may be costly.

Read the advertisements faithfully They will repay the time

West Central Circle
The West Central circle of the First Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. B. F. Crowther at 507 Center street this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Walter Winslow, and Mrs. Emma Brasher.

Voters' League Treasurer Coming
Miss Katherine Ludington of New York City, treasurer of the National League of Women Voters will be a guest of the Oregon branch of the league Wednesday, March 3. Miss Ludington will speak before the Men's Advertising club at noon of that day and also before the Women's Advertising club. Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., who will entertain Miss Ludington as her house guest, will give at tea at 4 o'clock in honor of members of the league. At 7 p. m. Miss Genevieve Park will entertain the members of board at dinner in honor of Miss Ludington. —Portland Journal.

Large Audience Hears Garner Jubilee Singers
One of the rarest treats afforded a Salem audience was the appearance of the Garner Jubilee singers in concert on Monday night at the First Congregational church under the auspices of the choir.

A gratifying and responsive audience filled the church to the doors.

The evening opened with the Bridal Chorus from "The Rose Maiden" followed with a group of Negro spirituals.

Professor George Garber, of Chicago, the leader of the company sang "The Bitterness of Love," and "Oh, Didn't It Rain" with abounding ease and beauty.

Unforgettable chorus numbers included: "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Oh, Peter, Go Ring Dem Bells," "Everytime I Feel the Spirit Moving in My Heart Den I Pray," "Roll Jordan Roll" and "Everybody That Talks About Heaven Ain't Going There."

Other favorites were "Way Down Upon the Swannee River," the tremendous bass solo, "Invictus" and "Old Black Joe." Probably the most clamorous applause of the evening was awarded the male quartet in their rendition of an "Imitation of a Calliopo Used in a Barium and Bailey Circus." Mrs. Garner accompanied at the piano. Professor Garber in introducing his wife, added that they were the proud parents of a small daughter who celebrated her second birthday on Valentine Sunday.

SAYS RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS PAIN IN FEW MINUTES

Rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, strains, sprains, achings, joints. When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into pain and congestion relief comes as once.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the sore spot is warmed through and through and the torture is gone.

Bowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, costs little at any drug store. Get a jar at once. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Bowles on every package.
