Mrs. Robins and Mrs. Tooze

Entertain Chapter G
Two members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood who meet with, but are unaffiliated with Chapter G, were hostesses for the chapter yesterday afternoon when Mrs. A. E. Robins, assisted by Mrs. Fred J. Tooze, entertained at the Robins home on Mill street. Daffodils and silver pussy willows were used effectively in the rooms where a program and social time were enjoyed. Special guests for the day were Mrs. Arthur Beatty of Chapter P of Oregon City and Mrs. Temple of West Salem.

Mrs. P. J. Kuntz gave the paper of the afternoon on "Our National Songs." Mrs. Kuntz dealt with her subject in a splendid manner. Chapter members and guests present for the afternoon included Mrs. Arthur Beatty, Mrs. Ellen Godfrey, Mrs. Temple, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. F. E. Churchill, Mrs. E. M. Fisher, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Miss Annora Welch, Mrs. A. T. Woodport, and the hostesses, Mrs. A. E. Robins and Mrs. Fred J. Tooze.

Colonial Tea In March
Interesting plans are being made for the Colonial tea which Chemeketa Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will sponsor sometime in March. The affair will take place at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, 148 E. Washington street.

Return From Arizona
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marsters, who were accompanied south by Lou Marsters of Forest Grove, will arrive home today after a two months' motor trip into California and Arizona. In California they made stops at San Diego, Los Angeles, and Sacramento.

Salem Height's Woman's Club

The members of the Salem Height's Woman's club will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the community hall for a social meeting. A program has been prepared for the day, after which tea will be served.

Mrs. C. W. Sawyer is chairman of the committee for the day with her assistants including Mrs. Ed Souder, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Craig, and Mrs. John Douglas.

Cooked Food Sale

The women of St. Paul's Episcopal church will sponsor a cooked food sale tomorrow at Neimeyer's Drug store.

Chadwick Chapter Social Evening

Tuesday evening about two hundred members and visitors of Chadwick Chapter enjoyed their regular social meeting. The lodge rooms were beautifully decorated with Valentine suggestions and pussy willows.

At the close of the chapter an auction sale, of articles, which has been brought there for the purpose, was held, and occasioned a great deal of fun and merriment for all. A substantial sum was realized from the sale, and will be used to buy things needed by the chapter.

Delicious refreshments were served in the banquet room, where the tables were beautifully decorated with red hearts, potted plants, and lighted red tapers in crystal candlesticks.

Mrs. J. A. Bernardi was chairman of the committee assisted by Mr. J. A. Bernardi, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. W. M. Bushey, Mrs. O. E. Cashatt, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Pratt, Mrs. H. H. Corey, Miss Minnie Mohler, Mrs. W. V. Johnson.

Mollie Brunk Sells Article

An interesting interview, written by Mollie Brunk, and featuring Ella Schulz Wilson, Secretary of the State Fair Board, appears in the current issue of "The Horsemen," a weekly sport journal of national circulation, which goes into the hands of prominent horsemen, sportsmen, and state fair people all over the country. Since "The Horsemen" is the biggest journal of its kind, it is a particularly noteworthy fact that Mrs. Brunk's article is used as a distinctive, full-page feature.

The spring issue, in which the interview appears, arrived in Salem yesterday. Mrs. Wilson has filled her position, which is a unique office for women of the generation, for the past two years.

Entertaining Program At First Presbyterian Church

At the concert to be given tonight at the First Presbyterian church, many of Salem's best soloists and entertainers will be heard. Last year a similar entertainment was given and elicited much favorable comment. This concert will be bigger and better. The "Carjensher" Trio composed of Carmen Jennison, Cello, Leon Jennison, baritone and Marvin Shepherd, violin will give songs and instrumental numbers.

Mr. Cooke Patton will give about twenty minutes of mystifying magic. Miss Edith Findley

GARNER JUBILEE SINGERS

The Garner Jubilee Singers, under the leadership of Prof. George Garner, are a group of high-class colored American artists who demonstrate the artistic possibilities of that people and reflect credit upon their race. Their voices blend in perfect harmony and the old plantation favorites, negro spirituals, and songs of the cotton fields are sung as only the Garbers can sing them. Their repertoire also includes some of the finest selections from the library of classics, and the groups presented by the male quartet, a feature of the company, are well received by audiences everywhere. The success of this Jubilee company is a true mark of popularity.

will give some delightful melodies on the marimba.

Louise and Richard Robertson assisted by Lucile Ross at the piano will sing some new and old ballads.

The Klash and Klatter Khorus is just what its name implies, and is a novelty given by several young ladies of the church.

The Apollo Four, composed of Glaisyer, Robertson, Gille and Hansen will entertain with some favored numbers.

Jean Rahn and Ruth Emory Riddle, billed as high class duetists will sing classical numbers.

Guy Rathbun will swing the illuminated Indian Clubs, and the Pied Piper's Orchestra, a group of clever young ladies will close the program.

A. A. U. W. Meeting Tomorrow

President John F. Dobbs of Pacific University, who will be the principal speaker at the luncheon meeting of the American Association of University Women tomorrow at the Elks' club, has chosen as his subject, "The Content of the High Education of Tomorrow."

Reservations for the luncheon are being made with Miss Lelia Johnson, secretary.

ham Lincoln" will be shown especially for the young people. Their elders will see the same film on Sunday evening at 7:30. On Sunday evening it is requested that no children attend except those accompanied by their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Seitz Are Hosts At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hans Seitz, (John R. Sites) entertained with a delightful twelve-covered dinner party on Wednesday evening in their home, with several pleasant hours of music and conversation following. A spring-motif in yellow was used on the table where daffodils were arranged in a crystal bowl. Yellow tapers were used in crystal holders and dainty place cards and favors matched.

Covers were arranged for: Dr. and Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Arietta M. Page, Professor and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen, Professor and Mrs. E. C. Richards, Professor and Mrs. G. Ebsen, Miss Evangeline Hall, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hans Seitz.

Woman's Union To Sponsor Film

"When a Man's a Man" adapted from the novel by the same name by Harold Bell Wright, has been chosen for presentation at the First Congregational church at 7:30 o'clock this evening by the members of the "Woman's Union of the First Congregational church, as the first film in a series planned.

"When a Man's a Man" is one of the very small number of pictures that has been photographed in the same locale about which the story is written. Harold Bell Wright wrote this popular novel of his while camping in Prescott, Arizona. When Sol Lesser decided to film the picture he hired a special train and shipped the director, cast, staff, props, electrical apparatus, etc., etc., to the "high city," as Prescott is called.

Eastern Star Social Afternoon

Cards will be the diversion of the afternoon when the members of Chadwick Chapter of the Eastern Star meet next Tuesday in the Masonic hall for their regular social afternoon. Only members of the order will be guests.

Attractive Valentine Party At Henderson Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Henderson at 340 S. 14th street was the scene of one of the attractive Valentine parties of the season on Saturday night when they entertained for a group of twenty-five friends. Streamers of red hearts gave a festive note in the rooms where cards were in play. The first prize in "Hearts" went to B. J. Woolke, while Wade Cowan won the second prize.

Light refreshments were served late in the evening. For favors, comic Valentines were presented to the guests.

Guests for the affair included: Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barker, Mrs. Don Worden, Mrs. L. A. Keser, Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
