Hal Hibbard Auxiliary Meets at Bertelson Home

One of the most enjoyable events of the season occurred at the Bertelson home last Friday afternoon where 25 ladies of Hal Hibbard auxiliary, U. S. W. V., were delightfully entertained by Mrs. John Bertelson.

A short business session was held after which an interesting program was given. Mrs. Roy Hewitt gave a talk on President McKinley; Mrs. J. H. Arnold on Lincoln; Mrs. Charles McKinley read Edwin Markham's poem on Lincoln; Mrs. Charles Brant gave the views of George Jones on "Ideas of the Philippines"; Mrs. Percy Pugh gave a talk on the battle ship Maine; Mrs. C. T. Harrington explained about the Maine Memorial Tablet; Mrs. H. O. Miller recited two excellent poems, followed by all singing "America." Mrs. La Moine Clark gave an interesting talk on Patriotic Societies.

After the program the ladies participated in a jolly contest, the prize going to Mrs. Glen Frum. The colors of the auxiliary were used in the decorating. The living rooms were beautiful with bowls of yellow jonquils, red Japonica and yellow candles in silver holders. In the dining room the table had a lovely centerpiece of yellow jonquils, red candles in silver holders, and a large sunshine birthday cake covered with red candles in red rosebud holders. This was in honor of Mrs. Hewitt's and Mrs. Woodward's birthdays.
Mrs. Fred Thompson and Mrs. Chester Baker assisted the hostess in serving.
Mrs. Bertelson's guests were the following: Mrs. Tyler Woodbert, Mrs. Missa A. Estes, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Charles Brant, Mrs. Chester Baker, Mrs. Carrie Abrams, Mrs. La Moine Clark, Mrs. John Seymour, Mrs. Lulu Humphrey, Mrs. Benjamin Walcher, Mrs. C. T.
