THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

This map shows business conditions in every state in the Union as of The Nation's Business, the official publication of the Chamber States.

Dregon Leads Northwest In Business Prospects

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27. were inclined to lag. The same -Trade and industry in January was true in the shoe trade, in ubstantially better than the ame months in 1925 says Frank reene in his monthly review of business conditions in the part. urrent number of Nation's Busi-Magazine, published by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. As evidence that business as a whole is in a healthy condition,

Mr. Greene cites the following rec-ords or near records established in January.

"Bank clearings for the entire ountry reached the second highat total ever recorded, being exceeded only by those for Decemr, 1925, while clearings at New York were the Largest in history. "Failures for January were the fewest for that month since 1921, ad liabilities the smallest since 1920.

"Car loadings, it is true, were slightly below 1925, in which a record was established for the month of January, the decrease this year being caused by singly this year being caused by smally. movements of coal, lumber and grain, with a much lighter movegrain, with a much handler move-grain, with a much handle goods than cerns were reported to be extendtakings by increase their output. st ever taburoduction showed a stocks left over from the holiday trade, with fair success. Furniture, especially the cheaper grades sold moderately well, with most which demand was active for new purchases made on the installment lasts and leathers, with the reguplan. The same was true of ralar stock patterns playing a small dios and musical instruments, sales of which in some cities were "The luxury lines, such as furs the heaviest ever known. and jewelry, sold much more free-"Industrially, the month was ly than usual in the post-holiday good one.

month, and some wholesale jewel-"Building was very active for a ers reported . sales 40% larger winter m and the total of exthan in the like month of 1925. penditures for January was the "As a natural consequence of largest over recorded for that he very heavy holiday trade, col-ections showed some improve-usual seasonal decline from Dethe very heavy holiday trade, collections showed some improvecember. The distribution of new ment after the first of the year.

and, while they could not b' called work was very irregular, however, the middle Atlantic, southern and good, they were much better than in the latter part of 1925 and southwestern states recording somewhat easier than in the first good increases over the previous month of that year. year, while the central western,

"Automobile production, as al-ready noted was high and automonorthwestern, and farwestern groups showed declines." bile shows were the most successful, in the total of sales concluded, FORMER PLAYER KILLED

> CLYMER, ONCE MAJOR STAR DIES IN CRASH

ST. PAUL, Feb. 27 .- (By the Associated Press.)-Otis F. Clymer, 50 of Hudson, Wis., former ing their plants and preparing to major league baseball star was killed here tonight when his an- Mrs. Wembridge in a recent magtomobile collided with another azine article.

"Retail trade suffered the usual post-holiday slump, but was well 90 feet to the railroad yards b becember, but ahead of last year. Cold weather low.

and try to understand the cause of Women's incomes are raising her waywardness-whether it rerapidly, according to tax officials, ults from wrong home training or The increased income of women mental unfitness to grasp the dif- is explained as due to the fact that mold and are, therefore, as alike ference between right and wrong new lines of business constantly as the proverbial peas, we en-Mrs. Eleanor, Rowland Wem- are being opened to them, and thusiastically recommend a visit bridge, psychologist for the Cleve, women have been quick to take to the Oregon theater where "The

to show her the error of her ways, her companionship.

WITH THE WOMEN

The problem of the wayward daughter is Mrs. Wembridge's girl whose parents "cannot do a most promising subject, and she thing with her" is one, like the says she will not promise how

An adorable year-old baby

tion, applies mental tests to girls who have strayed from the path of to be published shortly, which records the stories of some of the cases that have come to her for solution. The book is titled 'Other People's Daughters." At Radcliffe College, from

Mrs. Eleanor R. Wembridge.

but now we psycho-analyze her which she was graduated, Mrs in the latter part of the month beined sales of heavy clothing, Wembridge specialized in psychology. Later she taught that subblankets, and footwear, which had ject in Mt. Holyoke, Mass., and in been very quiet. Numerous clear-Reed College, Oregon. Then she ance sales were held, to reduce married and went to live in Cleveland Ohio. Life at home was delightful but she felt she was wasting a good deal of time, and when a chance came to spend part of it in helping the Protective Association wrestle with its many problems, she was glad to do so. In her estimation the waywardness of girls is not so much the result of a mother who is too busy helping earn the family income to bother with her daughter. It is rather the result of the ignorant mother, the quarrelsome mother, the silly mother-the mother who does not understand. Mothers who do not read or study, play the piano or do anything worthwhile themselves expect their daughters to do all of these things.

> And then there is the problem of the subnormal girl, not the 'sheer imbecile." but the one the total of whose "aptitudes and defects is just a trifle too meager for the complex demands of modern life, and who cannot be made to develop further. In her we confront the moron or the border-line feeble-minded, or the dull or the retarded. All these terms designate different varieties of weak but often likeable individuals. They are doomed to carry loads too heavy for them." says

Mrs. Wembridge's stories

Airplanes and Machine Guns poor, that we have always with us. much time she will give to the But our methods of dealing with Protective Association's prob-Exemplify Moderness of her have changed. We used to lems when Mary Althea gets a "Enchanted Hill" beat, imprison and otherwise try little older and demands more of

To those doubting Thomases, who believe that all western productions are cast from the same land Woman's Protective Associa- advantage of their broader oppor- Enchanted Hill" is now playing.

This picture, based on Peter B. Kyne's latest novel, not only blazes a new trail in outdoor photoplays, being possessed of a plot that develops along novel and original'lines, but it is as modern and up to date as the newest Paris legislature, a fill authoriving such gown, dealing as it does with the convention was defeated by a nar-west of today and employing such startling innovations as airplanes and machine guns.

State Terminal Company, · A story of action, romance, Through W. W. Chadwick, Outlines Move

The Stage Terminal Hotel comcenters, has been built on a very pany which operates hotels in Salem, Eugene and Roseburg, yeshigh hill commanding a magnifiterday closed a deal for the opencent view of the country for miles ing of a fourth hotel in Medford. around.

Porter J. Neff and J. H. Cooley Purdy, a bold, brave and romantic ex-army aviator who comes to New Mexico, buys a cattle ranch, and makes two discoveries. The first is that Gail Ormsby, owner of the adjoining ranch, is just about the most beautiful girl he has ever laid eyes on, and second, that for some mysterious reason a gang of raiders are very anxious

W. Chadwick, president and general manager of the State Terminal Hotel corporation. The hotel will be located Central avenue at Eighth street.

PROTEST FLAG SALUTE

RELIGIOUS CULT DECLARES ACT IS FALSE WORSHIP Guessing

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 27 .- Saluting the American flag as an outward display of patriotism is merely a form of "idol worship," which is forbidden by the Bible, the Jehovites, a religious cult here declared today in announcing they would take an appeal to the state board of education from a recent ruling by the county superinten-dent of schools, requiring pupils to salute the flag.

Denver school children are re- [OOKS like new, workslike new, quired to salute the stars and of Royal Typewriters, Everyand helped along by the skillful feated the Cheney normal playing of a stellar ast that in- 2 to 1 here tonight in a cludes Jack Holt, Flyence Vidor, on the question of entrance of the Noah Beery and May Brian. Ir United States in the world court with the Harding-Hughes reserve vin Willat, who dire ted, deserves a large share of the credit, and tions. Bellingham upheld the a word of praise is also in order for James Hamilton the scenarist, firmative.

Salem running for office on the republican ticket. MEDFORD, Ord. Feb. 27,-- (By, the Associated (ress).-At a meeting of the Jakson county republican central committee and precinct committemen, March 30. was named as the date for the holding of a preprimary convention, to recommend candidates to he voted upon at the May primaries.

The pre-prinary convention the first to be held in the state. At the last session of the Oregon row margin,

NORMAL SCHOOL LOSES

CHENEY, Wash., Feb. 27 .--

Bellingham normal debaters de- guarantee it .- Adv.

'Pape's

Take two tab-ets overy three

Cold Compound"

Breaks a Cold Right Up

mystery and intrigue is "The Enchanted Hill," which gets its title from the fact that the ranch house, around which the action

The building will be erected by The central character is Lee and will cost approximately $125,-000, exclusive of the furnishings which will represent an outlay of $30,000. The structure will be four stories high, of concrete fire proof construction and will contain 72 rooms. Stage terminal facilities will be located in rear of the building. The new hotel will be completed on August 1, according to the terms of the contract. Announceto get rid of him and get control ment of the deal was made by W. of his land. Lee's fight to hold his property and his efforts to win the lovely Gail provide no end of excitement and not a little fun. It is spirited entertainment all the way through

Almost impossible to tell the difference bea brand new

