Salem Rainbow Girls Meet

The first and third Saturdays of each month will mark the regular assembly dates of the Rainbow Society, the newly organized club for girls, which is being sponsored under the auspices of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star.

A preliminary meeting was held last Saturday evening to determine this fact, with 65 girls in attendance. The first regularly scheduled meeting will take place on Saturday of this week.

Guests at Farrar Home

Mrs. Edyth Farrar, Wilkerson and daughter Margaret, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived on Thursday last for an extended visit with Mrs. Wilkerson's mother, Mrs. A. N. Farrar, and her brother, Postmaster John Farrar. They came over the Sunset route, visiting in San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Mrs. Burghart Is Guest

Mrs. W. H. Burghart was a guest in Portland on Tuesday last at the attractive luncheon at which Mrs. D. A. Shindler was hostess at her home on Vista avenue, honoring Mrs. Norman Murray Smith (Genevieve Thompson).

Judge O. P. Coshaw

Meeting for the first time in the newly decorated club house, a large group of members of the Salem Woman's club had the pleasure of hearing Judge O. P. Coshaw speak in a clear manner last Saturday afternoon on the World Court. The program opened with the club song, with Louise Plummer at the piano.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk, in her report as chairman of the calendar committee, called attention to the fact that the club is this year presenting two programs each month, and at less cost than before, for the first time in its history. Mrs. W. H. Byrd introduced data on the cost of a public incinerator.

An announcement of particular interest was that made by Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, asking for donations of jam and jelly for the Salem hospital. Each club member who has a glass of jelly she will donate is asked to telephone Mrs. Spaulding, or a member of her committee—Mrs. Erwin Smith, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Lester Barr and Mrs. William Busick.

The presentation of a new table lamp by a group of the members was announced at Saturday's meeting. This attractive feature will be for use on the platform. Mrs. C. P. Bishop presented a lovely basket of daffodils for the afternoon. These were given a place of honor on the president's table. The club auditorium was particularly attractive with its decorations of daffodils and Japanese quince—placed by the house committee of which Mrs. Roy Burton is chairman.

The hostess committee for Saturday's meeting made the tea hour decidedly attractive feature. A long low basket of pussy willows and daffodils centered the table, around which was a ring of glowing yellow tapers. Mrs. B. E. Carrier and Mrs. U. G. Boyer presided at the urns. Mrs. C. E. Bates was social chairman for the day, her assistants including Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Mrs. H. L. Stiff, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. W. H. Duxby, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mrs. Otto J. Wilson and Mrs. U. G. Boyer.

Business Women to Meet

The Salem Business and Professional Women's club will meet at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow evening for the regular monthly dinner meeting.

Art Division Meeting Called

The art division of the fine arts department of the Salem Woman's club will hold an important meeting at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at the city library, with Mrs. Althea H. Dodd, chairman, presiding. In the group are Mrs. Homer Smith, Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. B. J. Clements, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. John L. Rand and Mrs. John J. Roberts.

Johnson-Taylor Wedding

An attractive wedding took place at the home of D. B. Taylor, 1915 South High street, Sunday, February 23, at 3 o'clock, when Miss Fern Johnson became the bride of Sol B. Taylor. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Victor Hovsen of Eugene, in the presence of the immediate families. The young couple was attended by the groom's sister and brother, Miss Isabel Taylor and Charles Taylor. The living rooms were bright with early spring blossoms.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are graduates of Salem high school, and the bride was employed until recently at the state house. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Salem.

Birthday Surprise

The birthday anniversary of M. P. Dennis was the occasion for a thoroughly enjoyable surprise party last Saturday evening when a group of friends gathered for the evening, taking the honor guest unawares. Five hundred was the diversion of the early evening. Later Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenson pleased with a group of old-time songs. The birthday luncheon followed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Herrin, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Herrin, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fandrich, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenson, Mrs. Elva Estes, Dr. Fandrich, brother of Ed Fandrich, H. Stoecker, Miss Elizabeth Waters, Miss Pauline Herrin, Mrs. Dr. Gueffroy, Mrs. Jane Williams, Mrs. Frances Williams, and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dennis.

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Eva Roberts, bride-elect, was the inspiration for the attractive miscellaneous shower on Sunday afternoon at which Mrs. Ed Savage was hostess. The luncheon table was lovely with daffodils and candles.

Mrs. Savage Is Entertained

One of the most enjoyable afternoons of the week was that on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 25, when Mrs. Walter L. Fuller was hostess to a surprise birthday quilting party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Elliot Savage of Salem. Those invited to share the pleasure of the afternoon were Mrs. Elliot Savage, the honor guest, Mrs. Susan Ferrall, Mrs. B. E. Ramp, Mrs. Emma Sturgis, Mrs. George Ramp, Mrs. Ralph Sturgis and the hostess, Mrs. Fuller and children, Lewis, Eleanor and Clarita Fuller, all of Brooks. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, with a beautiful birthday cake with candles centering the table.

Sewing Society to Meet

The Royal Neighbors Sewing society will meet on Wednesday afternoon, March 3, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Hunt, 955 Marion street.

Book and Thimble Club

A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the Book and Thimble club Thursday afternoon, Feb. 25, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Swartz on Kingwood Heights road. Following a short business session those present were entertained with a quiz, the answer to which brought out many interesting events relative to the early history of our country.

Mrs. L. F. Brown and Mrs. Swartz rendered a pleasing duet. The hostess was assisted at the refreshment hour by Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Brown.

The club was delighted to have with them a former member, Mrs. Manning, who has not been able to attend before this year since moving to Salem. Other members present were Mrs. Trot, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Swartz, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Elmer Cook, Mrs. Van Sauten, Mrs. Roy Ferguson.

Moroni Olsen Players to Present "Friend Hannah" Tonight at Heilig

"If Salem people realized half the charm of 'Friend Hannah,' the romantic comedy which will be given tonight by the Moroni Olsen Players, the theater would not begin to accommodate the crowd," said Carol S. Dibble, a member of the dramatic board sponsoring the appearance of this famous company in Salem, after seeing the play last Saturday evening in Moamouth.

Miss Dibble was rewarded high above her expectations, which were not small to start with, when she witnessed the gorgeous and human costume drama on the stage. Salem people will have the same memorable experience tonight.

The following committee members are the active sponsors of this outstanding dramatic project: Miss Carol S. Dibble, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Mrs. George H. Aldon, Paul B. Wallace, Albert Richard Wetjen, Prof. M. E. Peck, Prof. Horace Williston, Prof. E. T. Brown and Prof. Horace Rahskopf.
