

SANTIAM TEACHERS JOIN IN PROGRAM

Mary L. Fulkerson Gives Principal Talk on Primary Reading Aids

The Santiam Teachers club met with a regular meeting at the school house Thursday evening. The program for the evening was opened by the singing of "America" and "Wearing of the Green." For roll call the members responded by giving Irish jokes.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, Marion county superintendent of schools, gave the principal talk which was on primary reading. Mr. Miller, of Pringle, also spoke on advanced arithmetic. After this everyone retired to the basement for refreshments.

Place cards with a shamrock and green candle on them were very attractive. The rest of the table was decorated in yellow and white. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, wafers and coffee. While everyone was eating, Irish songs were played on the victrola.

Those present as invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, Jefferson, Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, Mrs. Fox and daughter, Virginia of Salem, Miss Hickey, Mr. Keeler, Mrs. E. J. Wheelbee, Mr. Hall of Salem, Mrs. F. A. Gallegley.

Members of the club present were Mrs. Gullivan, Mr. Powers and Mrs. Stollard of Marion; Mrs. Freeman of Looney district; Mrs. Kelper of Talbot, Miss Atkinson, Miss Verna Cooley, Miss Laverne Sechale, Miss Cleona Kurtz, Miss Bessie Trulove, Mrs. Agnes Brown and Mr. F. A. Gallegley all of Jefferson. Mr. Fox of Salem and Mr. Miller of Pringle.

The club will meet on the first Thursday of April at Marion for its next meeting.

CHARLESTON DANCE CONTEST IS NOW ON

Hellig Offers Prizes; Brilliant Picture Program Is Also Listed

A Charleston dance contest will be held at the Hellig theatre every night this week with $10 in prizes offered for the best dancer each night. The big finals will be held Saturday night. Prizes for the final will be: First, a $25 trophy cup; second, $15, and third, $5.

"Sally, Irene and Mary," a picture taken from a musical comedy, will also be shown for a four day run.

It is a picture that's different. And it has a box-office kick for a variety of showman's reasons.

Enormously successful as a musical comedy on Broadway, it played to capacity business in practically every big city of the country.

All its rare, racy flavor of backstage life has been faithfully transplanted to the screen. And what a story it is! Exhibitors and fans who thought that in "Pretty Ladies" the romance of theatrical life had been done for all time, will be amazed when they see this one.

"Sally, Irene and Mary" has the most decorative bevy of beauties in the roles of chorus and show girls that have ever been assembled for a picture. And the costumes will positively fascinate the feminine portion of your population.

SOME SUNDAY SERMONS FROM SALEM PULPITS

Drifting—Heb. 2:1
Sermon by Rev. N. K. Tully, First Presbyterian church:

"Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift away from them." With these words the New Testament warns us against the danger of drifting away from the truths of revealed religion. The passage of time tends to cause religious practices to degenerate into mere appearances; familiarity makes even sublime truths commonplace; our daily work, with its pressure of other affairs, crowds out the spiritual; the prevalent opinion about us converts our devotion; paganism has revivals as well as Christianity, and our age is experiencing a revival of paganism.

Our security against drifting is to give more earnest heed to work up steam. First, meditate upon God's truth; this means the honest occupation of our minds with the Gospel. A man's best defense against the world is to have God always in his thoughts. Second, we must practice what we know. This means diligent effort to apply the principles of the Gospel to our every-day actions.

There are several reasons for this. New Testament exhortation to be taken seriously: First, the dignity of the speaker, Christ, the heir of all things; second, His agency in creation, having made the worlds; third, His likeness to the Father, having in Himself God's express image; fourth, His relation to the universe, sustaining all things; His redemption purpose, coming to make purification for our sins; and His exaltation to the right hand of the Father, now occupying the place of first importance and highest honor in the universe. Such an One is entitled not only to respect but also to obedience when He exhorts us to beware of drifting and clinging to the Gospel. The Gospel truths are steadfast though the heavens and earth should pass away, they will abide. They constitute our great salvation. To drift is to miss them; to stem the tide is to embrace them. Let us act now. Let us choose the Gospel now, and decide to serve the Author.

NOTABLE CAST IN 'UNGUARDED HOUR'

Milton Sills and Doris Kenyon Head Imposing Roster at the Oregon

First National presents an exceptionally strong cast in support of Milton Sills in "The Unguarded Hour," which opens at the Oregon theatre today. Sills has the starring role with Doris Kenyon as the featured feminine player.

Heading the supporting players is Claude King, who gained his first American fame by his work on the legitimate stage as Rudolph Solomon, in Eitel Barrymore's success, "Deceit." King is an Englishman and has played with the finest of the British stage stars. Recently he had one of the principal roles in "The Making of O'Malley" and "The Knockout," both Sills' starring pictures.

Jed Prouty, for years one of musical comedy's best known comedians, has a comedy role. Prouty starred in musical comedy on Broadway for 15 years, leaving the big city only three times for productions in other cities.

Cornelius Keefe, at present playing one of the big important roles in the Broadway success, "The Poor Nut," has one of the big parts.

Lorna Duveen, who was leading woman for Sills in "The Knockout," is playing the part of Sills' sister in this picture.
