NOTED CHARACTER READER IN SALEM

To Lecture Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings at Woman's Club

Prof. H. Martinus Korstad, noted lecturer, teacher, lawyer and author, is in Salem, where he will give three lectures at the Salem Woman's club, 460 North Cottage street, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and will give character readings after the lectures.

Mr. Korstad will have for his subjects on the three evenings, "The Way to Health, Happiness and Prosperity," "Psycho-Vocational and Character Analysis," and "The Modern Miracle Worker," in their order as named.

Mr. Korstad declares that all who hear will enjoy these lectures, and many will profit—getting new ideas of the rules of success and happiness.

He considers his mission a great one, aiding in giving people their proper and best places in life.

There will be no admission charge to the lectures, and every one is invited to attend, and to bring friends.

GAME WARDEN TO SPEAK ON MONDAY

E. A. Averill Will Address Chamber of Commerce and Sportsmen

E. A. Averill, state game warden, will address members of the Salem Chamber of Commerce at their luncheon Monday noon. After the conclusion of the luncheon he will confer at the chamber rooms with members of the Salem, Dallas and Silverton rod and gun clubs.

Members of these clubs as well as the members of the chambers will be invited to attend the luncheon. Provisions will be made to handle a more than usual crowd. Mr. Averill will talk on "Recreational Resources."

Mr. Averill was born in Curry county, Oregon. He has spent several years in Salem, graduating from Willamette university in 1905. He has had newspaper experience in Pendleton. In 1911 he was appointed district game warden in eastern Oregon.

He was in the real estate business in Pendleton when he was offered the position of state game warden.
