Mrs. Prince Byrd Is Hostess for Bridge Club on Tuesday

The St. Patrick's motif was charmingly featured at the 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge at which Mrs. Prince W. Byrd was hostess yesterday for the pleasure of her club group and nine invited guests. The 1 o'clock luncheon was served at small tables, each made attractive with smilax and green candles burning in crystal holders. Mrs. Frederick Lampport won the guest prize of the afternoon. Invited to meet with the club were Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Mrs. Frederick Lampport.

At the next meeting of the club, on March 23, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer will be the hostess.

Covers at yesterday's luncheon were placed for Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Newmyer, Miss Thielsen, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. Kay, Mrs. Livesley, Mrs. Lampport, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd.

Clara Wiley Becomes Bride

Miss Clara Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiley, became the bride of Mr. Albert Girod at an attractive wedding performed at the home of the bride's parents at Aumsville. Miss Juanita Hockett attended the bride as maid of honor, while Henry Girod was best man. The groom is the son of Arthur Girod.

The ceremony was performed under a bower of spring blossoms and greenery, with Rev. Thomas A. Acheson officiating. The bride's gown was of terrapin satin back crepe, while her bouquet was of calla lilies and carnations. Yellow and green were the colors predominating throughout the rooms. Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Gladys Gilbert sang "I Love You Truly," with a violin obligato by Harold Rupert. Many attractive gifts were received and on display.

Seventy-eight guests were present for the wedding, which was solemnized at high noon. A reception followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Roy Fucon assisting the hostess.

Those assisting the serving were Alene Ritchie, Yelma Du Bois, Warmita Germond, Mrs. Janet Davison, Dorothy Van De Walker, Bessie Taylor, Ruth Davison, Eunice Lewis, Mrs. Roy Porter, Violet Bodman and Margaret Sturdevant.

Among the out of town guests present for the wedding were Mrs. Anna Bale of Toledo, Margaret Sturdevant of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cook of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Roam Knowles of Wendling, and Glenn Trussell of Portland.

Home From Hawaiian Islands

Mrs. Joseph H. Albert and Mrs. J. C. Griffith are being welcomed home by their many friends after a three months' absence in the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. Albert motored to San Francisco ten days ago to meet them.

Benefit Card Party

The fifth card party in the series of benefit affairs being sponsored by the Woman's Benefit association of the Ladies of the Macca-bees will be held Thursday afternoon in Fraternal temple.

Members of the association have recently organized an interesting luncheon club which meets every second Wednesday of the month. The first meeting was held at the Salem restaurant, with Elnor Thompson of the Child Health Demonstration, the speaker of the hour. The table was decorated in the colors of the order with a beautiful basket of carnations as the centerpiece.

Pupils of Lincoln School Hold Open House

An "open house" that was both educational and delightful was held from 7:15 to 10 o'clock on Monday at the Lincoln school, with a demonstration of the classwork of every grade on exhibition. Throngs of patrons visited the class rooms where the teachers, assisted by a group of hosts and hostesses, were in charge.

Numbers on the panopie contributed informal music throughout the evening. A number of extremely interesting special exhibits of cocoa, iron, flax, rubber, etc., were shown. W. A. Davenport is principal of the host school.

Faculty Women's Club

The Willamette University Faculty Women's club will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kirk. Assistant hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. N. S. Savage and Mrs. Roy Harding.

Trip to Puget Sound

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford are enjoying an interesting motor trip to Puget Sound points. In the very near future Mr. and Mrs. Clifford plan to settle in their new home in Portland. Mrs. Clifford has been particularly prominent in the work of the Salem Arts' league and will be greatly missed by a host of friends.

Mrs. Thayer Receives Membership

Mrs. Claudus Thayer, in appreciation of her recent hospitality to the club, has received word that she has been made an honorary member of the Northwest Poetry society of which Bob Swayze, editor of the Book page of the Portland Journal, is president.

The most interesting activity of the club this season will be the appearance in Portland on the last Monday of the month of Harriet Monroe, one of America's most prominent poets and editor of "Poetry, A Magazine of Verse."

Swedish-American Bell Ringers in Concert Tonight

An unusual and extremely interesting concert will be heard at 8 o'clock this evening at the First Congregational church when the Swedish American Bell Ringers will give a delightful program under the auspices of the Woman's union of the church.

Donna H. Aline will introduce some diversity in the program with her readings. The complete program has been announced as follows:

(a) "Under the Double Eagle" (Wagner); (b) "The Blue Bells of Scotland," (de Ville) with variations; (c) "Ring the Bells of Heaven," (Booth.)

Successful Program at Bethel
The Bethel school, which is located five miles east of Salem on the Penn road, gave a home talent play and dinner Friday evening, March 12.

The program consisted of folk-dances and a flag drill by the school children; solos by Claude Creasy and a farce comedy in two acts, entitled "A White Shawl." Following is the cast of characters: Dr. Adolphus Katz, Claude Creasy; Arthur Clayton, George Matten; George Ryall, Arnold Spranger; Katrine Steele, May Boles; Elizabeth Steele, Mary McElroy; Betsy Briggs, Georgia Johnson; Nellie E. Hammer, teacher of the Bethel school, coached the play.

Art Johnson added much to our new stage in the way of scenery. The ladies of the community served a splendid feed. Bethel is to be congratulated on its excellent home talent and wonderful co-operation. The proceeds were $82.

The same play is to be given in the West Salem church Friday evening, March 19.

Miss Hagman, Bride-Elect, Is Honored in Corvallis
Corvallis, March 16.—Miss Hulda Hagman of Salem was the incentive for a dinner party and miscellaneous shower Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. E. R. Hollister, 344 North Sixth street, for which Mrs. Lawrence W. Park and Mrs. Clair Wilkes were hostesses.

Covers were laid for 14 guests asked to honor the charming bride-to-be, the table being attractively appointed in its fellow decoration. A low bowl in the center held dainty yellow jonquils and green, and the nut-baskets were in the same color tone. Yellow candles, topped with yellow shades, added to the effective arrangement, dinner being served by candle light. Hand tinted "showers" place cards marked the positions at the table. The gifts were presented Miss Hagman between the dinner courses and were varied and useful. During the later evening hours the guests, each having previously been presented with a chapelein, fashioned a miniature bridal party from materials provided for the occasion.

Guests at the table were Miss Hagman and Miss Margaret Mades of Salem; Mrs. Carl Starker, Portland; Mrs. S. D. Atwood, Mrs. E. R. Hollister, Mrs. R. G. Atwood, Mrs. Cecil Hollister, Miss Elinor Wilkes, Miss Laura Turnidge, the Misses Ethel, Merle and Dagne Hollister, Mrs. Park and Mrs. Wilkes.

Miss Hagman's engagement to Harlow Atwood of Gresham was announced in Salem last year and the wedding is to be an event of
