Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Dodd Celebrate Anniversary; Sidewalk Bids Rejected; Grade School Pupils to Give Program; Facts Concerning Life of Lincoln S. Frink Reviewed; Came With His Parents to Polk County in Year 1869

Fortieth Anniversary

A. H. Dodd and Luella E. Lucas were married in Stanton, Mich., March 14, 1886. Last Sunday being the 40th anniversary of the event they had at dinner their children, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Miller of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Dodd, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dodd of Benton county, and Cleo Dodd of Monmouth; their grandchildren, Lovada Merle and Kenneth Dodd and Mr. Bern Schultz. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hopkins were also present. A feature of the dinner was a cake made by Mrs. Hopkins, like the one she made 40 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodd were among the first settlers in Falls City, there being but four or five persons here now who were here when they came.

Sidewalk Bids Rejected

At the adjourned meeting of the city council held Monday night there being no bids for all of the sidewalk project as a unit, the bids submitted were rejected. The council passed a resolution instructing the street commission, under direction of the city engineer, to purchase material and proceed with the construction of all wooden walks ordered. This work will be taken up immediately, and done in accordance with the provisions of the charter.

Grade School Program

Next Thursday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock at Victory Hall the pupils of the grade school will give an evening's entertainment that will be well worth while. It will consist of four one-act plays, drills, dialogues, piano solos, songs by the school chorus. They have furnished many evenings of pleasure for their parents and the patrons of the school, and this promises to be the best entertainment of its kind the children have given.

The admission will be 35c and 15c, no more than a movie. Funds will be used to finish paying for the victrola purchased by the pupils last year.

Mrs. Kate G. Boyd, instructor in music and art, has been teaching the children songs for this occasion, and they all enjoy their music so much they are anxious to sing for their parents.

Lincoln S. Frink Passes

Lincoln S. Frink was born in Nevada City, Cal., March 4, 1869. Died at his home in Portland, Or., March 13, 1926, at the age of 56 years and nine days. He came with his parents to Polk county in 1869, where he spent most of his life. The past six years he had made his home in Sellwood, Portland.

Lincoln S. Frink and Julia Tilton were married in Falls City in 1892, and to this union a son was born.

He is survived by his widow, of Portland, and son Ellis, of Lima, Peru, a sister, Mrs. A. E. Mayer of Salem, and a brother, Warren L. Frink of Falls City.

Mr. Frink was a true patriot, a good citizen and neighbor; a loving husband and father.

Admiration of Mr. Frink grew with years of acquaintance, his friends were all who knew him; to meet a person was to gain a friend.

For 30 years Lincoln S. Frink was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. He had always been a faithful worker in the church.

Mr. Frink was an instructor of vocal music, a beautiful singer. He had admirers who made many demands on his time and talent, to which he willingly responded. The high ideals of his life were his daily practice. For several years failing health limited his activities, but under the shadow of sickness his life was brought into deep devotion to his God. He passed on as he had lived—confident in his eternal abode.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Episcopal church in Falls City on Monday, March 15, at 2 p. m., in charge of the pastor, H. H. Miles.

Interment was in the Hill cemetery, where his father and mother and brother, J. C. Frink, are at rest.

MRS. BASSETT ALWAYS TIRED

Now in Good Health by Using
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lansing, Mich.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I needed it. When I first used it I was so bad I could hardly walk across the room without crying. I was tired all the time. I think my trouble was coming on me for six months before I realized it. I read of your wonderful medicine in the paper, and my husband bought me a bottle, and after the first few doses I felt better, so kept on taking it until I was well and strong. I take it at times when I feel tired and it helps me. I will always have a good word for your medicine and tell anyone what good it has done me. I recommended it to my neighbor for her girl, who is sixteen years old, and it was just what she needed. She is feeling fine now, and goes to school every day."

COL. COOLIDGE IS STILL UNIMPROVED

ture and lungs remained normal. There has been no recent recurrence of the rapid pulse which alarmed the physician last Thursday night. After spending nearly three hours with his patient, Dr. Cram issued about mid-day the following bulletin:

"There is nothing new to be said of Colonel Coolidge's condition this morning. His heart condition is fair and temperature and respiration nearly normal. He remains very weak as he is unable to take any nourishment."

"He is very comfortable when not disturbed and bears what pain and discomfort are necessary with great fortitude."

"No new developments are anticipated during the next 24 hours."

Dr. Cram let it be known that it was with the greatest difficulty his aged patient could take the necessary medicine. The inability of Col. Coolidge to take nourishment was responsible for the growing weakness, the physician said. A further complication has been the partial paralysis of the intestinal organs.

There has been little actual suffering of late days, it became known. In an effort to make Colonel Coolidge as comfortable as possible sedatives have been administered freely. When it was proposed today to plow a path through the snow to the Coolidge home, the neighbors hesitated because the noise of the tractor motors might annoy the sick man. But Dr. Cram assured the road makers that the colonel would not hear their din. After the physician's visit the patient was sleeping.

The work was carried out, and a big snow plow from the town of Hartford opened the road up to the Coolidge home and also to the door of the little union meeting house over "the way" at which Colonel Coolidge used to worship. Should the president decide to come here, he will be able to travel by automobile from the railroad at White River junction to the door step of his boyhood home in Plymouth.

cows and test the milk and everything—but they don't want to do that—they want to inject medicine into them."

"But it is the law," Mr. Small said quietly, "and you know you'll have to comply with the law or else—"

"or else they'll hang me!" the rancher cried.

"No, they won't do that—"

"or they'll shoot me down," Bouck interrupted again.

"Be careful now," Judge Small warned him, "you're in a court room now. Do you enter a plea of 'guilty' or 'not guilty'?"

"Well, if that's what you want, then I'll say guilty!"

"You probably do not understand what that means," Mr.

Small reminded him. "If you are convinced you are within your rights and the law is unconstitutional, you are of course entitled to plead not guilty and to have a hearing."

"I don't care what you do," the old farmer shouted, "you can turn me loose or you can put me in jail or you can shoot me down—I don't care—but I'm not going to have anyone running me on my ranch."

"But no one molested you," Judge Small said. "They asked politely, to test your title, in compliance with the law. They didn't threaten you, did they?"

"Well, they didn't go after me with a gun, if that's what you mean—but I'd just as soon have them shoot me as grieve me to death."

Bouck promised to appear in the justice court this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Brick and Tile are Permanent

PERMANENCE, which means economy of upkeep, is perhaps the greatest quality of brick and tile, the world's oldest building material. For that reason, it has been adopted in the new slogan of the Pacific Northwest Brick and Tile Association and embodied in the emblem shown above: "Perma-Bilt of Brick and Tile."

When you add to the permanence of the brick or tile home, its slight difference in cost over less durable materials, you have strong reason for building of brick and tile.

Perfectly Pasteurized Milk

for Cleanliness

MILK SUPPLY OF
SALEM IS RATED
HIGH IN PURITY

Butterfat content of milk being distributed in Salem ranges from 3.3% to 5.3%, according to word received here from the office of J. D. Mickie, dairy and food commissioner at Portland.

The bacteriological department of Oregon Agricultural college conducted a survey of the milk supply of Salem, making tests of the products of 11 different agencies distributing milk in this city. The survey is dated as of February 13. The report also declares that the milk tested all had the legal proportion of solids not fat.

The report reads in part as follows:

"Under sediment ratings, all range from clean to fairly clean with one exception. Under bacteria the lowest sample we find to run 700 per cubic centimeter while the highest runs 21,800 per cubic centimeter. When we consider that milk known as certified milk produced under the rules and regulations laid down by a certified milk commission it allowed a bacteria count of 10,000 per cubic centimeter, it will be noted that milk sold in Salem is of good quality."

Milk sold in Salem corresponds "very favorably" with milk sold in Portland, the report states.

"We are re-visiting those dairies shown the higher bacteria count," it continues, "with the idea of working with the producer and if possible assisting him to produce a still better quality of milk."
