

THREE PORTLAND OFFICERS RAISED

Promotions Announced by Order of Brigadier General White

Three Portland officers in the Oregon National Guard Saturday received promotions, according to orders issued from the offices of Brigadier General George A. White.

Major Alexander W. Cleary, 1473 East 34th street, was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel of infantry, while Second Lieutenant James B. Ward, 720 East 62nd street north was promoted to first lieutenant of infantry. Second Lieutenant John S. Hyatt received promotion to first lieutenant in the quartermaster's corps.

Lieutenant Colonel Cleary's promotion carries with it assignment to Oregon's historic world war regiment, the 162 infantry, which is commanded by Colonel Eugene Moshberger. Colonel Cleary is the senior regular army instructor of the Oregon national guard and authority for his promotion was received from the secretary of war by General White. Colonel Cleary's service extends over a period of more than 20 years.

Lieutenant Ward is a veteran of both the Mexican border expedition and the world war. He served on the western front in the year 1918 as a member of the Oregon Field Artillery and participated in many of the major operations of the war. His promotion carries with it the assignment of aide de camp to the commanding general and he also will become the plans and training officer for the 82nd infantry brigade.

Lieutenant Hyatt also is a veteran of the world war, having served in France with the Oregon coast artillery. He lives at 1200 Mallory avenue. He is employed in the Multnomah county assessor's office.

The bill opening today at the Bligh theater is filled with variety and calculated to please every type of playgoer. A novel headliner is

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Strongheart, the wonder dog of the moving pictures, comes again into notice in the latest picture in which he is featured, "The North Star," now playing at the Heilig theatre. The picture is to be shown today and Monday.

Lestra La Monte, known as the paper fashion plate, who demonstrates that paper may be neater than silks and satins. Lestra is a mannequin of fashions and all his attire is made of paper. He has an act that appeals to modistes and women who admire handsome frocks. Lestra is assisted in his fashion revue by Jack Gorman at the piano, and Hazel, a petite and dainty maid.

Charles Aster in "Art While You Wait," is a novelty picture artist, who makes pictorial representations from every conceivable kind of material.

Elsie and Jack Wicks present a smart talk with a rapid Clayton dance finish.

Two pretty maids, the Bren sisters, and three men compose the personnel in "Dance Diversions," one of the top-notch acts.

Cliff Clark is a character comedian, a versatile chap who sings, chats and dances. His act is called "Typical Types."

"The Prince of Success" is the title of the new Waldorf feature made by Columbia, now holding the screen at the Bligh. This drama of the business and social world has lovely Alice Lake for its star. In Miss Lake's support is a group of character actors such as Alma Bennett, Gaston Glass, Lee Shumway, Tom Ricketts, Spec O'Donnell and Florence Turner.

CLAYTON IS COMING

Mr. Bligh, manager of the Bligh theatre has just announced that he has secured the renowned and justly famous Mystic Clayton. Super-Crystal gazer for six days starting Sunday, March 28, in his theatre. This attraction comes direct from his greatest successes in San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Los Angeles and other cities in the west, and he feels sure that he is doing his patrons a favor by having Clayton here, his past record, not only for record business in the theatres, but for the great amount of good that he has accomplished, the help he has given thousands to forge ahead on the way to success, the hearts that he has eased from pain, the lost ones recovered and many other astonishing feats that he has accomplished—assures the patrons of Bligh theatre, that Clayton was brought here just for you alone. A special matinee for ladies only will be given so that they may ask personal and delicate questions when no men are present, and if you are worried, down-hearted—and feel that you are at the lane's end—Clayton can tell you—and help you make the success that is yours by just right—if you will but ask him.

BERT LYTELL TO BE SEEN IN FILM

"The Gilded Butterfly" to Be Shown at Heilig Starting Wednesday

"The Gilded Butterfly," the Fox Films production coming to the Oregon theatre Wednesday, is a fascinating story of the inside of society, featuring Alma Rubens and Bery Lytell in the two principal roles.

Alma is the lovely society butterfly, who almost sings her wings. She is typical of many of the daughters of today, raised in surroundings far beyond their parent's means, to expect the best things of life, unable to face reverses and disillusionment in a cool-headed manner.

Bert is a young American officer anxious for a berth in the diplomatic service. He is clean-cut and idealistic and different from any other man Alma has ever met. She falls in love with him and this love changes her whole attitude towards life.

Huntly Gordon is cast as the thoroughly likable heavy, who backs Alma after her father's death, in order that she may be in his debt. However, when the show-down comes, he finds himself genuinely in love with the girl and acts accordingly.

WOMEN TO MEET
