

King Alfonso Plans Flight to South America in Royal Air Armada

World Famed Plant King Plans University Gift

Private Capital Has Offered as High as a Quarter Million Dollars for Property Where Experiments Have Been Conducted for 50 Years

A new photo of Luther Burbank, and a view of him before his modest home.

SANTA ROSA, Calif.—Luther Burbank's "Garden of Eden" will not wilt and die after his passing. The gardens in which the world-famed plant scientist has conducted his experiments for 50 years, near Santa Rosa, are soon to pass into the hands of university scientists for maintenance and perpetuation.

Striking Young Inventor May Pass Wizard Edison

Invention of Radio Controlled Ship, Followed by Pioneering in Field of Unique Musical Instruments With Revelations Now Forecast

By MARGERY PICKARD (By Central Press) NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Watch John Hays Hammond, Junior. This famous son of a famous father bids fair to succeed Thomas Edison as the greatest American inventor. It is generally held in inventive circles.

SAMSON FEATURES SUNDAY NARRATIVE

Rev. E. H. Shanks Continues Weekly Short Story for The Statesman

By REV. ERNEST H. SHANKS There was once a very remarkable member of the chosen people of God. His name was Samson Benmanah. From the time he was a mere lad he showed many wonderful gifts of strength and wisdom.

Indications are that Stanford University will get the gardens, since Burbank favors that institution and offers to place his treasured gardens in its keeping at half their valuation, the sum to be determined by a friendly committee.

Scouts Plan Over-Night Camp At House Mountain

Boys to Be Taken by Truck to Taylor's Grove, Where They Will Make Their Camp for the Night and Begin Long Climb on Following Morn

The Scout Orchestra or Headquarters Harmonians played before the McMinnville Elks. The McMinnville Elks lodge is the sponsoring organization of Troop 2, McMinnville. The Scouts entertained the lodge with demonstrations of knot tying, compass drill, O'Grady drill, etc.

ALL SPAIN STIRRED AT MONARCH'S IDEA

Ten Planes for Extraordinary Adventure Now Being Constructed

By JACKSON V. JACOBS Central Press Correspondent MADRID, March 13.—Nothing has so stirred the excitement of Spain since the war with the United States, as the proposal of King Alfonso XI to make his contemplated visit to South America in a royal air armada.

Sabbath School Lesson

Arranged From the Improved Uniform International by R. S. POORE

The Last Words of Jesus With His Disciples Lesson Text: John 14:1-31. Golden Text: "I am the way, the truth and the life."—John 14:6.

Woodrow Wilson Remained 'A Woodrow' to the End

'In His Heart, Where His Will Lay, His Mother's Voice Spoke,' Says William Allen White, quoted in Great Mothers of World series

By MARY GREER CONKLIN The Reverend Joseph Ruggles Wilson, father of Mr. Woodrow Wilson, married Janet Woodrow, a young Scotch girl nick-named "Jessie" whose mother died on the Atlantic ocean while her parents were migrating from Ireland to North America, settling first in Canada.

Heart and Home Problems Seen By Skilled Writer

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson Begins Weekly Chapter on Advice, Drawing From Long Experience as Home Pre-Server and Home Maker

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young wife of 19, and have been married almost a year. My father-in-law died last June, leaving three small children. My mother-in-law has been dead for some time. When my father-in-law died, my husband insisted that we move in with the children so as to help.

The Busy Reader's Newspaper

Published in the interest of those seeking full and accurate survey of the week's local developments

Because of the First Annual Spring Window Display edition issued last Sunday, fashions crowded out the Busy Reader, but many things give way to style. The story of local happenings in Salem, therefore, is picked up with April only eight days away. Well what did happen in Salem last week?