EUCLID CHAPTER MARKS BIRTHDAY

Jefferson Organization Celebrates Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

JEFFERSON, March 23.—Euclid Chapter O. E. S. No. 70 celebrated their 25th anniversary at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening. When the charter was granted Lona G. Looney was elected worthy matron. She gave a very interesting talk on the history of the chapter, also read the minutes of the first meeting. She has been an active member ever since the granting of the charter. Other charter members are D. H. Looney, Ed Hahn, Mrs. A. E. Phelps, F. E. Wall and Mrs. F. E. Wall, all of whom were called upon to talk. Letters of greetings were received and read from Mrs. Hawk of Bay City, Mrs. Hurdison of Salem, Mrs. Anna Tucker of Salem. These ladies were charter members.

Ed Hahn told of how 25 years ago Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Looney and himself came to lodge together driving a horse and hack, while last Tuesday night they came in a car. The program consisted of speeches. Jim Johnston played his violin. The remainder of the evening was spent in social activities.

The missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church held its meeting at the home of Mrs. V. D. Looney Wednesday afternoon. Lunch was served by Mrs. H. C. Shields, Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, Mrs. J. L. Farlow, Mrs. C. M. Smith, Mrs. Randolph, Miss Addie Libby, Mrs. Longworth, Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mrs. Robert McVenna, Mrs. C. H. McKee and the hostess, Mrs. V. D. Looney.

SILVERTON GUNNERS ENTER SCORE OF 70

High Men Are Reynolds 25, Rue 23 and Dale With 22 Kills

SILVERTON, March 22.—The Silvertown Gun club entered a score of 70 in Sunday morning's telegraphic shoot. The high men were Charles Reynolds 25, Cliff Rue 23 and Buck Dale 22. Unfortunately several of the club members could not be present to take part in the shoot, and a defective trap added further handicap to the making of a perfect score.

Lea Killian is Fined by Silvertown Officers

SILVERTON, March 22.—Lea Killian of Salem was arrested here Sunday night and lodged in jail on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. The officers who made the arrest had previously ordered Killian to leave town, but his failure to take their advice cost him $25 when he appeared in court this morning.

GRIPPING DRAMA IS PLAYING THE HELIG

"The Gilded Butterfly" Will Open Today; Bert Lytell is Co-Featured

Beautiful Alma Rubens and handsome Bert Lytell are co-featured in the Fox Films production, "The Gilded Butterfly," now playing at the Helig theatre.

This gripping drama of society tells the story of a lovely young girl, raised to believe herself enormously wealthy—who finds herself destitute at the death of her father.

She has always had everything she wanted—she knows nothing of earning money, nor of saving it—so she borrows money and sets out to "keep up the show." Her life from then on forms the basis of an absorbing story which comes to a thrilling and unexpected climax.

Others in the cast are Huntly Gordon, Herbert Rawlinson, Vera Lewis, Frank Keenan, Arthur Hoyt and Carolyne Snowden. John Griffith Wray directed the production.

SILVERTON LISTS FIDDLERS' CONTEST

Legion to Sponsor Old Time Dance at Silvertown Armory Saturday

SILVERTON, March 23.—Silvertown is to have its first old time fiddler's contest on April 3. This is to be held under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen and is a result of the interest that is being shown in this locality in the old time dances and old time music.

Several of the old time fiddlers have already signified their willingness to compete in this contest. Saturday night, March 27th, the American Legion is sponsoring an old time dance at the Armory.

WOMAN TO SPEAK ON PRISON FACTS

Salem Trades and Labor Council Sponsor Lecture Set for April 2

Kate Richards O'Hare, of the United Garment Workers will speak in the Salem armory on Friday April 2, under the auspices of the Salem Trades and Labor Council.

Every effort is being expended on the part of the organization here to promote the lecturer who speaks on prison labor from the viewpoint of a person who has served one term in an eastern prison.

Plans for publicity include the placing of 150 window cards and the distribution of more than 1000 handbills prior to the lecture. F. J. A. Boehringer, president of the council, will preside as chairman.

Announcement was also made last night that the Willamette university debate teams will meet in the Labor Hall next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock to talk on the proposed child labor amendment to the federal constitution. The object of the debate is to bring the college students out of their usual atmosphere and to familiarize them with the attitude of real laboring men.

OREGON PICTURE IS HAILED AS SUCCESS

Large Crowds See "Simon the Jester" With Eugene O'Brien Starred

Frances Marion's admirable screen production, "Simon the Jester," in which Eugene O'Brien and Lillian Rich are featured, proved thoroughly delightful to the large audience that witnessed its premier showing at the Oregon theatre yesterday. The work of these two screen artists, as well as that of Henry Walthall, former screen star and a leading member of the supporting cast, and William Platt was highly artistic. The story of the picture re-
