Did You Ever Stop To Think? Shawnee, Okla., Search of Commerce

THAT every citizen should heartily support any plan that is for the good and the glory of the home city. THAT development does not come unassisted. THAT if you don't keep your eyes open for the opportunities that pass your way, they will go on to some other city. THAT some other city is always trying to entice them their way. THAT cities must always be made attractive to people with capital before it can be developed very far. THAT new industries won't tar-Pry long in looking over a prospective city as a location unless living and business conditions are

THAT a city may have all the advantages in the world, but it can't get anything or anywhere until it shows a progressive spirit. THAT as long as a city lacks that spirit and where the people show a lack of loyalty to their city, just so long will a city stand still or progress backward.

THAT in many cities the citisens seem to lack an appreciation of the worth of the home city.

THAT lackly home pride will hold any city of k.
