Watkins Adopts Wilson's Aims, Filing for Senate

Henry J. Bean, Salem, Becomes Candidate for Justice of State Supreme Court; List of Candidates Declaring for May Primaries Increases

Elton Watkins, democrat, of Portland, Tuesday filed in the offices of the secretary of state here his declaration of candidacy for the office of United States senator at the primary election. He previously served one term as representative in congress from the third congressional district.

"If nominated and elected," read Mr. Watkins' platform, "I will advocate legislation insuring the following:

"Agricultural prosperity so that American farmers can maintain their homes and families along American standards, educate their children, and in addition save something.

"A merchant marine maintained by preferential rights and indirect aids without subsidies.

"Tax reduction and further economy by abolishing useless and overlapping bureaus, reducing armaments and outlawing war.

"Develop Oregon by securing her just share of appropriations for hospitals, irrigation, reclamation, highways, rivers and harbors.

"Hydro-electric development for transportation, irrigation, power, heat and light for homes, farms and industries.

"Continue stricter immigration, naturalization, deportation, and better Americanization, educational and child labor laws.

"Square deal for soldiers."

Mr. Watkins has requested that the following slogan be printed after his name on the official ballot:

"With Woodrow Wilson's ideals and progressive policies, let us march to victory."

M. J. Sinnott, representative in congress from the second congressional district, would succeed himself at the primary election. He filed his formal declaration of candidacy with the secretary of state here Tuesday.

"If nominated and elected," read Mr. Sinnott's platform, "I will work for the best interests of my district, state and nation, as I have tried to do during the seven terms I have been honored in representing the people of the second district of the state of Oregon in the congress of the United States." Mr. Sinnott has asked that the following slogan be printed after his name on the ballot:

"Chairman public lands committee, ranking member irrigation committee and member of the house steering committee."

Other declarations of candidacy filed in the state department here Tuesday follow:

Loyal M. Graham, republican, Forest Grove, candidate for representative in the legislature for the 15th representative district, comprising Washington county.

Louis Kohl, democrat, Logan, candidate for representative in the legislature for the 16th district, comprising Clatsop county.

Tom F. Mahoney, republican, Portland, candidate for representative in the legislature for the 18th district, comprising Multnomah county.

A. E. Allen, republican, candidate for representative in the legislature for the 24th district comprising Columbia county.

I. M. Hesse, republican, Scholls, candidate for representative in the legislature for the 15th district, comprising Washington county.

Thomas A. McBride, Deer Island, republican, candidate for justice of the state supreme court.

George M. Brown, Roseburg, republican, candidate for justice of the state supreme court.

Henry J. Bean, Salem, candidate for justice of the state supreme court.

day with an estimated loss of $15,000. Two firemen were slightly injured and several other persons had narrow escapes from flames.

MANILA, April 7.—(By Associated Press.)—A force of constabulary yesterday killed 10 Moro outlaws and wounded a number of others in a fight in Lanao province. Ten constabulary soldiers were wounded, two seriously. The constabulary routed the Moros, capturing and destroying two forts in which the outlaws have been taking refuge defying the authorities.

The constabulary forces had for several days been endeavoring to induce the outlaws to surrender peacefully but failing stormed the Moro fort. Outlaw bands have been killing Christian Filipinos and committing depredations in many districts.

Entire receipts from the state basketball tournament will total $2,200, approximately $100 less than received last year, according to a statement issued by Coach Guy Rathbun, Tuesday. Afternoon crowds were somewhat smaller than in previous years, and the bleacher capacity was somewhat smaller.

Preiminary plans are being formulated by W. M. Hamilton, of the local PEP company, for the new building planned for the company about a block north of its present location on North Liberty street. The building will be of three stories, and is estimated to cost from $125,000 to $140,000. Construction will start in 1927.
