SMALL POPULATION, HIGH CASH RECORD

Village of 650 Subscribers
Total of $2,400 for Disabled Veterans

WILLIAMSON, N. Y., April 7.—A world's record campaign was conducted by Williamson Post No. 394 of the American Legion here in its drive recently completed for the legion's $5,000,000 endowment fund for disabled veterans and orphans of the World war, post officials believe.

With an endowment quota of $600, this village of only 650 persons subscribed a total of $2,400. This sum was raised by 750 contributions, amounting ranging from twenty-five cents to $25 each. The average subscription approached $4 per person.

The post has only forty-six members, of whom twenty-five did the solicitation in three days.

In a letter accompanying a check for the $2,400 sent to national headquarters of the legion, G. H. Stebbins, past commander of Williamson post, said:

"We are all apple-knocking sticks from a little country town. But one thing we would like to know, who, when and where in the history of the endowment fund has any post our size, situated in a town our size, been able to raise any more more money or canvassed any more people in as short a time as did Williamson post on March 15, 16 and 17."

SILVERTON LEGION SHOW ON APRIL 17

"Vinegar's Vaudeville Agency" Declared Not as Sour as It Sounds

SILVERTON, April 7.—Something different in amateur theatricals is promised Silverton theatre goers by the American Legion when it presents "Vinegar's Vaudeville Agency" on April 14.

The play, which is not as sour as the name might imply, is the kind of farce that will make everyone laugh who can laugh — and those poor souls who deem it ill-mannered to guffaw in public advised to stay away if they would avoid committing that unpardonable sin. Ben DeSart is managing the show, and Shack's orchestra will be in attendance. The cast will be announced later.

OREGON THEATRE TO PRESENT FINE FILM

"Peacock Feathers" Stars
Pretty Jacqueline Logan and Cullen Landis

The Oregon theatre is now presenting one of the truly worthwhile comedy-dramas of the season in "Peacock Feathers," a Universal-Jewel in which Jacqueline Logan and Cullen Landis have the stellar roles.

The picture is unique in that it marks the screen premier of Prime Yauca Troubetzkoy, a member of the Russian nobility, and is also the third production on American soil of Svend Gade, noted Danish director.

The story is from the novel by Temple Bailey, being adapted by James O. Sparring, former dramatic editor of the New York Times. All of these facts were blended by Carl Laemmle to give one of the finest achievements of the current season.

There is not a dull moment in the picture. When the plot heats in its ceaseless trend, a bit of comedy is injected to round out a complete play which is a splendid family picture.

Besides those mentioned others in the cast are George Fawcett, Edwin J. Brady, Carolyn Irwin, Ward Crane, Emmett King, Aggie Herring and Dunbar Raymond. The story deals with the problems of a young couple, both poor, who had hesitated before marriage because of poverty. When they think they have inherited wealthy they marry, but find they have nothing but a neglected western ranch which has been deserted for years. The girl accuses the boy of tricking her into marriage and their troubles begin.

ITALIAN DICTATOR SHOT; CONDITION NOT SERIOUS

ces among the people should arise from the attempt.

"I desire that the country not be alarmed," he exclaimed. "I do not want reprisals. It is my will."

Shortly afterward he appeared before the crowds, who cheered him and would have carried him shoulder high. Mussolini smiled and again gave the Roman salute and then drove away with Alessandro and Bastianelli. The Honorable Violet Gibson was in a state of prostration after her arrest; she almost collapsed on realizing that she had been saved from the infuriated mob. Acknowledging the name of Violet Albina Gibson, she declined to make a statement. The revolver which she used is of French make. Only one shot was fired. The weapon was fastened to her wrist, with a handkerchief. She had in her possession a bottle containing iodine, mixed with some other liquid. The authorities are of the opinion that she intended to drink the mixture after her attempt against Mussolini, but either changed her mind or was unable to carry out her intention owing to her overwrought condition. It is only a few days ago that Mussolini in a speech declared "it is beautiful to live, but it is still more beautiful, if it is necessary, to die."

Rage fills Rome and all Italy with Latin-like intensity; emotion is stirred as never for long decades by the attempt to assassinate Mussolini.

When the shot was fired as the premier was leaving the congress of surgeons, Mussolini really saved his own life by his habit of holding his head erect as he faces the crowds which inevitably await as he emerges to the street.

Just as the bullet sped on its intended journey to death, the Italian leader threw back his head more properly to greet the multitude and the tiny globe of lead, instead of traversing the brain, plowed through the tip end of the nostril, causing a wound described by the surgeons as not serious.

STANFIELD WORKING FOR REFUND OF TAX

His Influence as Chairman of Public Lands Committee is Big Boost for Return of $4,007,000 to Eighteen Western Oregon Counties.

The fact that United States Senator Robert N. Stanfield is chairman of the senate committee on public lands, is the practical ground for the belief that the bill for the payment of $4,007,000 of lost O. & C. land grant taxes to Western Oregon counties, has a chance to pass the senate. The bill, which benefits the entire state, is now before that committee and in his charge.

A new senator would be barred by the senate's ironclad seniority rule from holding such a powerful chairmanship and, therefore, would be unable to advance such legislation through the committee and pass it in the senate.

Immediate payment will be made to the 13 counties, if the bill passes, in the following amounts: Benton, $250,000; Clackamas, $347,000; Columbia, $111,000; Coos, $122,000; Curry, $22,000; Douglas, $1,035,000; Jackson, $756,000; Josephine, $379,000; Lincoln, $23,000; Lane, $326,000; Linn, $129,000; Marion, $10,000; Multnomah, $38,000; Polk, $165,000; Tillamook, $30,000; Washington, $50,000; Yamhill, $50,000; Clatsop, $135,000.

The Stanfield bill further provides for the annual payment hereafter of nearly $500,000, an amount equal to the taxes that would have been paid to the counties annually by the railroad company on the O. & C. grant lands. (Stanfield-for-Senator Campaign, E. D. Cusick, Mgr.)—P. A. Adv.
