Three Matrons Entertain Guests at Club House

One of the largest of the affairs which have made the first post-Lenten week such a brimming one, socially, was the bridge tea of Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. Elmer Dae, and Mrs. Leon Gleason were the hostesses at the Woman's club-house. Apple blossoms, tulips, lilacs, iris, and Scotch broom filled, immense baskets throughout the club house. The tea table was a study in springtime loveliness with a centerpiece of pink apple blossoms and pink tulips. Pink candles glowed in glistening crystal holders. Mrs. O. A. Olson and Mrs. Eric Butler presided at the urns. Those assisting the hostesses at the tea hour included: Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Earl Dae, Mrs. Lewis Misher, Mrs. Clair Inman, and Mrs. T. H. Galloway. Phyllis Fisher and Vera Beechler distributed the attractive tally cards.

Two prizes were given during the afternoon, the first prize going to Mrs. O. A. Olson and the second to Mrs. W. I. Staley.

A program of dances gave added delight to the afternoon. Mrs. Elizabeth Waters gave a nature shadow dance, while Cynthia Delano and Maxine Myers danced a colorful Russian duet. Mrs. James Todd presided at the piano.

In the guest group, including a number out of town guests were: Mrs. H. S. Geyer, Mrs. Walter G. S. Webb, Mrs. F. G. G. Out of town guests included Mrs. Lester Davis, Mrs. William Cravatt, Mrs. Guy Harris, Mrs. G. T. W. Mrs. Harold Varney, Mrs. J. J. Green, Mrs. George Whaley, Mrs. Roy Campbell and Mrs. Arthur Good, all of Portland; Mrs. Frederick Brock of Olympia Wash., and Mrs. G. B. Benson and Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton.

Mrs. Rex Sanford Is Chosen Delegate to National Convention

A host of Salem friends will be very happy to know that Mrs. Rex Sanford, president of the local branch of the National League of Women Voters, has been chosen as a delegate to the national convention in St. Louis which will convene April 14-21.

Mrs. Sanford will leave Portland this evening for St. Louis, arriving in time for the opening session of the convention on Wednesday.

Mrs. Sanford, a young Salem matron who combines charm with capability, was chosen delegate at the luncheon meeting held at the Oregon League of Women Voters at the Sovereign Hotel on Friday of last week.

Mrs. Locke Is Hostess for Bridge Club

The members of Capitol Bridge club were entertained in an especially enjoyable manner on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. O. C. Locke was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle, with an afternoon of cards following.

A colorful variety of spring flowers centered the table where covers were placed for two special guests. Mrs. Henry W. Meyers and Mrs. A. F. Hussey, and the following members: Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. W. H. Daney, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mrs. H. H. Olinberger, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, and the hostess, Mrs. O. C. Locke.

Mrs. W. H. Daney won the afternoon's highest score.

On Wednesday Mrs. Rodgers will entertain the group at Mechanic. A feature of the meeting Wednesday was the handkerchief shower which was given as a surprise for Mrs. Milton Meyers.

Dean Richards to Attend Conference

Miss Frances M. Richards, dean of women at Willamette University, left yesterday morning for Los Angeles where she will be in attendance at the conference for deans of women of the western coast. While in the south, Miss Richards will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. S. McAllister, of Los Angeles. She plans to be absent for a period of two weeks.

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. C. Perry, 166 West Washington street at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Gallagher Is Honored at Luncheon

One of the most distinguished women of the country, Mrs. Oscar Gallagher of Boston, who is the national president of the alliance of the Unitarian church, and Mrs. Julia B. Comstock of Portland, national director for Oregon, shared honors when the two were guests at a 35-cover luncheon on Tuesday in the church dining room.

Mrs. Milton Meyers had charge of the dining room which featured a cross-shape arrangement of the long tables with a profuse centerpiece of lavender lilacs and tulips.

Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, president of the Salem Alliance, presided at the meeting in the Emerson room which followed the luncheon. Both honor guests gave intensely interesting speeches.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush Return

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush have returned to their home on "Chambers" and Capitol streets after having spent the winter months in California.

Bridge Tea at Spears Home

One of the most distinctive events of the week will doubtless be the bridge tea which the members of St. Paul's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will sponsor on Thursday, April 15, at the home of Mrs. Frank Spears on Thirteenth and Chambers streets, with Mrs. Russell Catlin the assistant hostess.

Tables for the event may be reserved by calling Mrs. Spears or Mrs. William Neimeyer.

AAUW to Observe Guest Day

At the meeting of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women on Saturday at the Elk's club, annual guest day will be observed, each member having the privilege of inviting an additional guest.

Mrs. Hartman Honored

Mrs. Frederick Brock of Olympia, Wash., who, as a former resident, is always a most welcome visitor in Salem, was the inspiration for an attractive 24-cover luncheon on Tuesday evening when her sister, Mrs. Ray Hartman entertained in her honor. Silver ornamental pheasants and rose and pink tulips in a silver basket made the luncheon table exceedingly attractive. The affair took place in the dining room at the Elks' club with bridge at six tables following on the second floor of the club house.

Mrs. Leon Gleason won the first prize of the afternoon, while the second award went to Mrs. A. F. Hussey.

House Guests From Raymond

Mr. and Mrs. James Bohle (Dorothy Thompson) and little son, Stanley Victor will return to their home in Raymond, Wash., today after a visit with Salem relatives. Mrs. Bohle and little son have divided the three weeks of their visit between the homes of Mrs. L. M. Thompson and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, her mother, and sister.

Alpha Xi Delta to Sponsor Bazaar

The OAC chapter of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority will sponsor a cooked food and fancywork bazaar in Salem a week from Saturday, April 24, to assist in raising funds to send delegates to the national convention at Glacier National Park June 29 to July 2.

Miss Ruby Drager is chairman of the committee in charge of the bazaar. Articles will be on sale at the S. P. ticket office on North Liberty street. Miss Odile Matthews, also a Salem girl, is among those assisting Miss Drager.

Prominent girls of the sorority who will assist with the sale will be Roberta Orr, Agnes Haroldson, Winifred Herr and Frances Smith. Both Doris Loveland and Janice McAfee are Salem members of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Mrs. Gray Returns to Eugene

Following a delightful six weeks vacation in Los Angeles, Mrs. Charles A. Gray, house mother at the Alpha Xi Delta sorority at Eugene, has resumed her duties on the University of Oregon campus. When summer comes, Mrs. Gray plans to spend considerable time in Salem.

Seventeen-Cover Dinner Party at Gray Belle

Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson invited a group of 17 friends to be their guests on Wednesday evening at dinner. The dinner was served at the Gray Belle, with lilacs, and pink tulips providing lovely decorative effects.

An evening of cards followed at the Nicholson home, with Mrs. Ar buckle and Mr. McGilchrist winning the highest score and Mrs. Cooley and Mr. Johnson second highest.

The group included Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Miss Zoe Stockton and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson.

Leaves for San Francisco

Mrs. L. G. Curtis left on the Shasta Wednesday for San Francisco where she will be the guest for several weeks of her son, Dean Curtis.

St. Joseph's Club Presents Delightful Drama

Of particular interest among post-Lenten dramatic events was the three-act comedy drama, "The Path Across the Hill," which was presented at St. Joseph's auditorium on the evening of April 7. Music during the interludes was furnished by the Sacred Heart Academy orchestra.

The play took place with the following cast of characters: Zuzu, the cook, Lerona Lehold; Ruth Conrad, nicknamed "Bobbie"; Gladys Jones; Samuel Crawford, (grandpa); Sidney Jentskow; Walter Conrad, Ruth's brother, Gerald Suing; Lottie, a neighbor, Winifred Albrich; Mrs. Davis, (grandma); Gladys Redding; Robert Post, the visitor, Charles Redding; Dr. Jimmie Reed, with ambitions, Oscar Polser; Flo Gray, Ruth's cousin, Margaret Van Vleet; Salamander Alexander John Henry Jones, Zuzu's choice, Ben Saalfeld.

Guest for April Frolic

Miss Florence Power is spending the week-end in Eugene as the house-guest of Miss Vivian Eiker at the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was a guest at the annual April Frolic.

War Mothers Plan Carnation Sale

Mrs. Frank S. Skiff, president of the Salem chapter of the American War Mothers announces plans for the annual carnation sale which will be held this year on May 8. The campaign, with committees to be named soon, will start at once. Both the red and white blooms will be on sale.

Kenneth Power Graduates From Rush Medical School

The many Salem friends of Dr. Kenneth Power, only son of Mrs. Frank W. Power, will be interested to know that he received his diploma from Rush Medical school on the 16th of March and is now engaged—a position he had held since the first of the year—as assistant pathologist at St. Luke's hospital, where he will take his interne work.

Dr. Power plans to come west for a visit in June.

Guest From Vancouver, B.C.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary at their meeting Monday night will be glad to receive donations of old clothes to be distributed among the families of needy veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers Leave on Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers are leaving this morning for a three weeks trip east. They will first go to Astoria where Mr. Meyers will be in attendance at the Masonic convention, remaining until Thursday on which day they will leave Portland for Chicago, Detroit, and other eastern points.

Mrs. Pearce Visits in Albany

Mrs. George J. Pearce returned last evening from Albany where she was the house-guest for a short time of her sister, Mrs. T. G. Hopkins.

Shipley Home Scene of Two Attractive Affairs

Three prominent Salem matrons—Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, and Mrs. J. E. Law, were hostesses at two of the loveliest affairs of the early post-Lenten season when on Thursday and Friday they entertained groups of friends at two afternoons of bridge, both affairs taking place at the Shipley home on Fairmount hill. Rose-colored tulips, with irises and lilacs intermingled, predominated in the attractive floral scheme used throughout the rooms.

On each occasion, eight tables of bridge were in play. On Thursday the prizes—a first and second—were won by Mrs. J. LePuiry and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr. On Friday the awards went to Mrs. John J. Roberts, first, and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, second.

Mrs. Charles H. Robertson and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay assisted the three hostesses on Thursday, and Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner on Thursday.

The guest-list for the earlier affair included: Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Max Buren, Mrs. Rhea Luper, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. S. P.
