Mabel S. Powers Presents Piano Pupils in Recital.

Mabel S. Powers presented her piano pupils in an interesting recital at the attractive Roberts studio on Summer street on Friday evening.

The program which followed was executed with clearness of tone and ease of action which showed sincere application by each pupil.

The dance numbers by Cynthia Trimmer were dainty and rhythmic, giving evidence of her own conscientious work as well as splendid instruction.

Stephen Whitford who last month returned from a study in Paris charmed the audience with his two numbers, "Impromptu in F Sharp," by Chopin, and the MacDowell "Polonaise." As an encore he gave a pleasing rendition of Chopin's "Butterfly Etude."

Steuiloff Party Touring in Europe

Recent word from Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steuiloff and their daughter, Miss Dorothea Steuiloff, tells of a trip a week ago today in the Madeira Islands. The party landed at Cadiz, Spain, on April 3.

Their itinerary abroad, as now planned, will cover a period of more than three months, bringing them home sometime in July.

Oregon Federation of Women's Club Plan Annual Sessions

The 15,000 club women of Oregon are already keenly interested in the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in LaGrande, May 3, 4, 5, and 6.

It is expected that practically every one of the 175 clubs affiliated with the federation, will be represented, and the voting body will be between 200 and 300.

"Preparation, Participation, Progress," is the slogan for the convention and around the theme, "Enlarged opportunities for women challenge better preparation and utmost participation," a program of interest and instruction is being prepared by a committee headed by Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst of Portland, assisted by Mrs. C. H. Seranton, president of the LaGrande Neighborhood club, the hostess organization; Miss Cornelia Spencer of Portland; Mrs. William Krassig of Oregon City, chairman of the division of music; and Mrs. Dunbar, state president.

Dr. E. O. Holland, president of Washington State College at Pullman, will address the convention of "Education and Democracy" and Dr. Alfred H. Upham, president of the University of Idaho, is the other "big" attraction in the way of a speaker.

Each of the several large working departments of the federation are being given time to present their work by means of outside speakers, reports and discussions.

The department of fine arts, as its part of the program will present a three act play, "The Circle." Mrs. E. F. Moosman of LaGrande, chairman of the division of art and Mrs. Krassig, chairman of the division of music, will be in charge.

Dr. Homer P. Rainey, associate professor of education at the University of Oregon, will speak on the program of the department of applied education which Miss Grace H. Chamberlain of Ashland is chairman.

A. A. Smith, a former member of the state legislature from Baker county, will be the speaker on the program in charge of the legislative department of which Mrs. Alexander Thompson of Portland, is chairman. The American Citizenship department, Mrs. Charles H. Custer, Hood River, chairman, will present Mr. A. C. Strange, executive secretary of the Oregon Americanization commission.

Mr. Frank B. Appleby, editor and publisher of the LaGrande Observer, will speak at the session conducted by the department of press and publicity, Wednesday evening at Baker. The department of public welfare, Miss Grace Phelps of Portland, chairman, announces three speakers, Chaplain W. S. Gilbert, a regent of the University of Oregon, who will speak on the Doernbecher Hospital project in which the federation is interested, having pledged $26,000 at the convention last year; W. J. Herwig, president of the Oregon Anti-narcotics League; and Miss Lida C. Bowler of San Francisco, executive secretary of the Indian Defense league.

Officers of the federation and heads of the departments will be guests of the Rotary club on the opening day of the convention. That evening the formal opening will take place, this being a reception at which the women of LaGrande will be hostesses, "cowboy" breakfast is scheduled for Thursday morning with the business men's clubs as hosts. In response to an invitation from Baker, the convention will be moved to that city for the Wednesday evening session, which will be preceded by a dinner given by the people of Baker.

The chief item of business to come before the convention will be the election of officers. Club leaders have expressed the desire that the delegates go into convention without a state, appraise the women and make their choices to fill the several vacancies accordingly.

Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar of Portland, president of the federation, and members of the board, and department chairmen will preside.

MacDowell Club Closes Season With Enjoyable Program

Salem concert-goers have found increasing joy in the programs sponsored this season by the Salem MacDowell club, the program committee having delved for both the educational and the intrinsically charming in their selection of numbers and contributing artists.

Last Monday's program was of particular interest to Salem folk for the reason that it introduced Miss Margaret Fisher who literally made her platform debut at this time. Miss Fisher's second number, Liszt's "Gondolier," was one of the loveliest things on the entire program. In addition to the "Gondolier," her first group included MacDowell's "From a Wandering Iceburg" and Mokrif's "Valcik." Miss Fisher places with excellent tone and reassuring rhythms. Her second group, both numbers charmingly executed, included one of the most pleasing numbers in piano literature, Brahms' "Cradle Song" and Liszt's Concert Etude in D flat.

Sylvia Weinstein Margulis, a facile violinist, charmed the audience with every note she played. Vitali's "Chaconne" was ably done with firm, vital tone. Kreisler's "Midnight Bells" was given with brilliant and authentic effects.

Rodney Johnson of Portland, the tenor soloist of the evening, was greeted by a large volume of applause at the close of his first group, featuring old country songs—one in old French, one in old English and one in old Italian.

His voice, one of the sort that is exceedingly good to hear, made Schubert's "Who Is Sylvia" almost as lovely a number as possible. Hueter's "Dream Children" was followed with "Just a Cottage Small" as an encore.

As one writer once put it in speaking of the Chickering Ampico re-producing piano, "even in this age of mechanical marvels there is still something uncanny in watching a piano play by itself." That was exactly the feeling of the good-sized audience which filled Waller Hall on Monday evening. The numbers given by the aid of the instrument, including some of the most masterful piano compositions of the age, was indeed a pleasing diversity. Thanks for the loan of the instrument go to the G. F. Johnson Piano company.

Misapah Class of Jason Lee Sunday School

About 40 members and guests of the Misapah class of Jason Lee Sunday school met at the parlors of the church Friday evening for a social time. A short business meeting was held in the early part of the evening after which a very pleasant time was spent with games and music.

Mrs. W. A. Bond had charge of the games while Mrs. C. A. Gies entertained delightfully with music. Members of the class who assisted with the refreshments were Mrs. W. P. Miller, Mrs. Farr, Mrs. C. A. Gies, Mrs. Erp and Mrs. A. Fustman, president of the class.

Mrs. Kirk Entertains Chapter AB of PEO

Delightful in every detail was the meeting of Chapter AB of the PEO Sisterhood on Monday evening at which Mrs. William E. Kirk was the hostess. Tulips and marigolds were lovely in the living room and in the library. Mrs. William Hughes and Mrs. Bolight were special guests for the evening.

Mrs. Wm. Fordree Fargo was initiated into chapter membership at the meeting. The special program consisted of a paper on the Shakespearean stage by Miss May Rauch, president of the chapter.

At the tea hour Mrs. Alice Thompson assisted the hostess. Members of the chapter present for the evening were Mrs. E. C.

Richards, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Mollie Hill Sayles, Mrs. H. H. Belt, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. Alice Thompson, Mrs. Grace Osborne, Mrs. Mildred Flagg, Miss Rauch and the hostess, Mrs. Kirk.

First Methodist Church Ladies' Aid Sponsors Reception

An extremely delightful affair of the past week was the reception at the First Methodist church which was held on Friday evening in the church parlors under the sponsorship of the Ladies' Aid society. The affair was planned for the pleasure of all members and friends of the church, the hours being from 7:30 until 10:30 o'clock.

The first part of the evening was devoted to the formal reception of the guests while the latter part of the evening was in the form of a social hour with refreshments. A short program gave a delightful interlude. Mrs. Grant Day and her assistants greeted the guests at the door, while those in the receiving line included Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, president of the general aid; Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Taylor, and the presidents of the circles, as follows, Mrs. C. A. Downs, South Central; Mrs. I. L. McAdams, West Central; Mrs. F. B. Southwick, East Central; Mrs. E. C. Miller, Southeast circle; Mrs. E. E. Emory, Yew Park; Mrs. Walter Pennington, Naomi, and Mrs. F. A. Legge, Lucy Ann Lee circle.

The program of the evening included two groups of readings by Miss Katherine Goulet and piano numbers by Miss Margaret Fisher. The decorations for the evening were unusually lovely, a colorful profusion of flowers being arranged throughout the church parlors in tall art baskets and on the window ledges. Sheaves of golden Scotch broom gave the predominant note, the art baskets which stood at either side of the pillars that made the approach to the platform being particularly effective.

The program of the evening was in charge of Mrs. E. E. Emory, and the decorations, of Mrs. C. A. Downs.

Refreshments were served from two beautifully decked tables, one on either side of the room. In charge of one table was Mrs. E. C. Miller and in charge of the other was Mrs. Walter Pennington. One table was lovely with its centerpiece of white lilac, purple iris, white columbine, narcissi and spirea, while on the other purple iris, pink roses and clematis were combined in an extremely attractive manner.

Six Table Card Party at Pade Home

Six tables of five hundred were in play during the evening as a diversion for the guests who accepted Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pade's invitation for Wednesday. A profusion of flowers and fern decorated the rooms.

Mrs. G. E. Schuneman and Jesse Savage won the honors of the evening while the consolation award went to Mrs. Savage and Mr. Schuneman.

A four-course luncheon was served late in the evening with Mrs. Leon Barrick, Mrs. Donald Krueger and Mrs. Clarence Townsend assisting the hostess.

The decorations for the evening were unusually lovely, a colorful man, Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townse Mr. and Mrs. Joseph De Jarc Mr. C. J. Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Savage, Dr. and Mrs. L. Barrick, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Propp, Mr. and Mrs. Morris R. and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Pade.

Thursday Bridge Luncheon Closes Season

Mrs. L. P. Aldrich was a charming hostess in her home Thursday afternoon for the pleasure of members of the Thursday Bridge Luncheon club and three special guests. A lovely bowl of iris centered the luncheon table.

Mrs. Clyde Johnson won the bridge honor of the afternoon. In the group for the last meeting of the spring season were Mr. John Krobs, Mrs. Paul Schmitt of Portland, Mrs. R. E. Clark, Portland, Mrs. O. L. Fisher, Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mrs. A. E. Hucstein, Mrs. Clair Inman, Mr. Clyde Johnson, Mrs. Ernie Kaplan, Mrs. W. I. Neudham, Mr. Cal Faltom, Mrs. R. W. Harwitz, and the hostess, Mrs. L. Aldrich.

Members of Chapter G Entertained at Kuntz Home

Mrs. F. J. Kuntz was a delightful hostess on Thursday for members of Chapter G, PEO, St. Terhood, entertaining as additional guests Mrs. Bolight, a member of a chapter in Nebraska, Mrs. Robbins, who is affiliated with Washington group, and Mrs. Temple.

The afternoon, following the business meeting, was delightful
