

FOR FIFTY YEARS HE HAS BEEN MINISTER

Dr. W. C. Kantner Will on Tomorrow Celebrate His Golden Jubilee

It will be fifty years tomorrow since Dr. W. C. Kantner came to Salem. For the first year after his arrival he was pastor of the First Congregational church in this city. Of the fifty years he has served as a minister, 19 of them were with the First Congregational church of this city.

A year ago the last Sunday of this month, he resigned his pastorate here, but for the past six months he has been serving a church in Portland, and he hopes to be kept busy and to have a long time of service yet.

In celebration of his golden jubilee, there will be a dinner at the Kantner home, 853 North Commercial street, attended by a few very old friends, at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

There are few men in this country who can claim such a long service, nor is there one who has more sincere friends than Dr. Kantner. And he has every prospect of being able to do useful work in his chosen field for a long time yet. There is no old citizen of Salem who will not wish to be included in expressing congratulations on his golden jubilee.

NEW MAN IN SALEM IN LOVE WITH CITY

Firm Is Now Drs. Steeves, Findley, Clement and Baum, Specialists

Dr. W. Wells Baum, from Denver, is a new arrival in Salem, with Mrs. Baum. They are already in love with the capital city. They are living in the Fisher apartments, on South Commercial street.

Dr. Baum has become a member of the firm that will hereafter be known as Drs. Steeves, Findley, Clement & Baum. Beginning with the first named, this firm of specialists in eye, ear, nose and throat has been extended to its present personnel. Dr. Steeves started a longer time ago than he would like to be reminded of, perhaps, and Dr. Findley has been a member for a good while.

Dr. Baum comes from Denver. He got part of his training in the Washington university of St. Louis, a leading medical school. He worked in his specialty in the North Chicago hospital, and also in Denver. He was for a time in practice at Marshfield, until coming to Salem a few days ago.

WHAT AILS YOUTH? IS CLUB'S TOPIC

Dr. R. N. Avison Will Address Six O'Clock Club on Monday

The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Six O'Clock club will be held in the basement of the First Methodist church, Monday evening, April 19 at 6:30 o'clock. The Salem Six O'Clock club was organized when Dr. R. N. Avison first came to Salem about 16 years ago.

The club was Dr. Avison's idea and has been functioning ever since its organization. It will be the privilege of the members of the club at the April meeting to hear Dr. Avison on a most interesting subject, "What Ails Our Youth?"

Most of the discussion upon this subject recently from the pulpit and press has been along the lines of finding something wrong with our youth. Dr. Avison does not agree with this trend of modern thought and will defend the youth of today, and promises a very interesting and profitable discussion of the subject.

Dr. Avison was for ten years pastor of the First Methodist church, and his many friends in Salem will be glad to hear him again. The attendance and membership of this club is not limited to the members of the First Methodist church, or to Methodists, or to any other denomination or creed, and all men are invited to attend. Dr. Avison's friends are particularly extended a cordial invitation to hear him upon this occasion.

The ladies of the church will serve the regular evening meal at 6:30 o'clock after which, Dr. Avison will deliver his address.

KLAMATH INDIAN DROPS CAMPAIGN

Fails to Secure Necessary Signatures to Place Name on Ballot

Although Sargent Brown of Chiloquin, Klamath county, filed with the secretary of state for the office of United States senator at the democratic primary election, he had failed to complete his petitions when the time for filing expired at midnight Friday. His name will not appear on the official ballot at the primary election as a result of this omission, the secretary of state said.

Belated filing accepted by the state department Saturday included those of A. W. Peters of Hood River county and B. E. Goodman of Portland. Mr. Peters is a candidate for representative in the legislature for the ninth district, comprising Hood River county, while Mr. Goodman is a candidate for representative in the legislature for the 18th district, comprising Multnomah county.

There were a total of 252 filings for the primary election. Of these 195 were republicans and 57 were democrats.

COLLEEN MOORE IS CUTE LITTLE KID

Vivacious Star Is Now Seen in "Irene," Playing at Oregon Theatre

At heart she is just a kid. Beneath the veneer of fame and fortune thrust upon her the flame of youth burns. Life to her is no different today than it was yesterday. Her veins are filled with young blood. It is doubtful if she will ever grow old, for at heart she's just a youngster, the youngster she used to be.

That, you may believe, is the reason why Colleen Moore enjoys such a wonderful time in her latest First National picture, "Irene," now playing at the Oregon theatre.

Laid in the tenement district of New York, where kids are kids, the opening scenes of "Irene" are enlivened by a gang of twenty-five youngsters with Irene (Miss Moore) as the ringleader.

And, oh, the fun they have—in the streets. But that isn't the story.

Between scenes during the making of the film those twenty-five youngsters surrounded Miss Moore and called her "Colleen." They worshipped her, not as their favorite picture star, but as their play-fellow. And she knew them all and could call them by their first names—she was just one of the gang.

Recently they were playing dolls and eating lollipops with Colleen in the center of the group, a bigger kid than the kids themselves and having a great time. She was turning back the pages of the Book of Life and living over again the days of her childhood.

And after all, though she's one of the biggest screen stars, at heart she is just a kid.

At 27 years of age, Mrs. S. M. Wainwright of Rye, N. Y., recently completed her ninety-second crossing of the Atlantic ocean. Her first trip was made in a side-wheeler in 1868.

To avoid that run-down feeling, cross crossings cautiously.

MUSICAL REVUE TO BE HERE ON MAY 4

George White's Scandals to Be at the Heilig Theatre Here Soon

Everything that one looks for in a musical revue—beautiful settings, costumes, comedy of all varieties, excellent dancing and singing—will be found in George White's Scandals, the sixth edition of which comes to the Heilig theatre Tuesday, May 4.

Myra Brown and Zelma O'Neil are the show's headliners, assisted by a cast of unusual excellence, including Tom Patten, the DeNardos and their seven sheiks, Ace Brown, Fred Lightner, Sonia Decalve, Maybelle Mellon, Brown Elwood, John Grove, Mary Leland, the Astor Sisters, together with a chorus of 50 that excels anything ever seen here. The girls are shapely of figure, pretty of face, vivacious of manner and sprightly in personality.

Many of the impressive scenes in the show are obtained by the use of curtains, such as the silver, gold and diamond curtains, drawn by appropriately attired ladies of the ensemble, in the "Year After Year We're Together" number, the "Mah Jong" set, which is an Oriental fantasy, the "Rose of Madrid" scene and the "Araby" number.
